

WEATHER
Rain Monday night; Tuesday fair and warmer.

FORTY-FIFTH YEAR. NUMBER 270.

THE CIRCLEVILLE HERALD

WORLD, NATIONAL AND STATE NEWS BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE

CIRCLEVILLE, OHIO, MONDAY, NOVEMBER 20, 1939.

Two Telephones
Business Office 782 Editorial Rooms 581

THREE CENTS.

NINE SHIPS SUNK BY GERMAN MINES

Third Term Speculation Grows Apace

WEEK END SPENT AT HYDE PARK STIRS RUMORS

President Sits Tight And Apparently Intends To Let Public Decide

ASSOCIATES AIR OPINION

New Deal Leaders Believe F. D. R. Will Declare Himself At Auspicious Time

ABOARD PRESIDENTIAL SPECIAL ENROUTE TO WASHINGTON, Nov. 20 — Third term speculation grew apace as a result of President Roosevelt's week end at Hyde Park, but best information was — as he returned briefly to the White House today enroute to Warm Springs for Thanksgiving — that the chief executive intended to sit tight and let the American public decide that burning issue for itself.

Badgered on all sides for weeks to declare his intentions about the 1940 nomination, Mr. Roosevelt consistently has parried all questions and ridiculed quite a bit of the printed speculation.

One of his closest associates, however, is sponsor of this prediction: "I think the President is going to see wood — watch the European war — and say nothing. If there should be a far-reaching popular reaction in favor of a third term he probably would respond to it. Lacking such a call he is prepared to retire to his Hyde Park home on January 20, 1941."

Keeps Eye on War

The reference to "watching the European War" obviously called attention to the President's foreign policy, which has proven widely popular among Republicans and conservative Democrats who otherwise strongly oppose the New Deal. Developments along the Maginot-Siegfried line, in the submarine-infested Atlantic, and in the air during the next six months may well have a marked bearing on the action of the nominating delegates at next June's Democratic national convention.

Over the week end at Hyde Park, Mr. Roosevelt gave several jocular but uncommunicative pokes at the third term speculation.

Yesterday he laid the cornerstone of the $350,000 privately-built library which will house ultimately his 6,000,000 political papers. Smiling at the crowd of unlisted donors which included such political notables as Federal Security Administrator Paul V. McNutt, Mayor Edward J. Kelly of Chicago and Mayor Frank Hague of Jersey City, he expressed hope his papers would be ready for public inspection by the spring of 1941.

Pokes at Speculation

Then he added extemporaneously: "And may I add the expression (Continued on Page Four)"

OUR WEATHER MAN

LOCAL
High Sunday, 53.
Low Sunday, 35.
Rainfall in the 24 hours prior to 8 a. m. amounted to 1.0 of an inch.

FORECAST
For Monday and Tuesday:
OHIO — Cloudy with rain in south and central and colder in north portion Monday. Tuesday, generally fair with slowly rising temperature.

TEMPERATURES ELSEWHERE

	High	Low
Ablene, Tex.	69	39
Bismarck, N. Dak.	42	27
Boston, Mass.	42	35
Chicago, Ill.	42	41
Cleveland, O.	42	42
Denver, Colo.	52	26
Des Moines, Iowa	49	27
Duluth, Minn.	36	31
Los Angeles, Calif.	84	43
Miami, Fla.	84	75
Montgomery, Ala.	68	58

BLAST ON SHIP IS PROBED

Six Agencies Search For Evidence Of Possible Sabotage In Harbor

BAYONNE, N. J., Nov. 20—Six separate agencies today probing for evidences of possible sabotage in the roaring explosion which wrought $200,000 damage to the 11,147-ton Standard Oil tanker J. A. Mowinckel at her dock in Bayonne.

Workmen labored through the night to keep the vessel afloat after an explosion in an empty 8,000-gallon fuel tank ripped up 100-feet of the thick steel deck, sprang plates below the water line and broke windows two miles away.

Spokesmen for the Standard Oil Company were inclined to blame a spark of static electricity for the blast, discounting theories of sabotage. The electric spark, it was explained, could have ignited fumes in the tank, one of the few which had not yet been flushed with live steam and washed down with hot water.

Officials of the Standard Oil Company which had the tanker under lease from a Panamanian subsidiary opened their investigation by questioning the crew. Other probes were being conducted by the U. S. Naval Intelligence, G-men, the Coast Guard Intelligence, the Marine Inspection and Navigation bureau and New Jersey police.

Only one seaman on an adjoining ship was slightly injured while diving for cover. The tanks are flushed by steam piped directly from the engine room, no men being allowed inside them at such times.

SWISS PROTEST TO BERLIN ON AIR VIOLATION

GENEVA, Nov. 20—The Swiss government today sent the strongest possible note of protest to Berlin against violations of Swiss soil by German planes and the bombing of sections of Basle Saturday in which three Swiss citizens were wounded.

The bombardment occurred when German anti-aircraft batteries fired upon French planes, some of the shells bursting over sections of Basle adjoining the frontier.

FOUR MEN DIE AS FAST TRAIN HITS WPA TRUCK

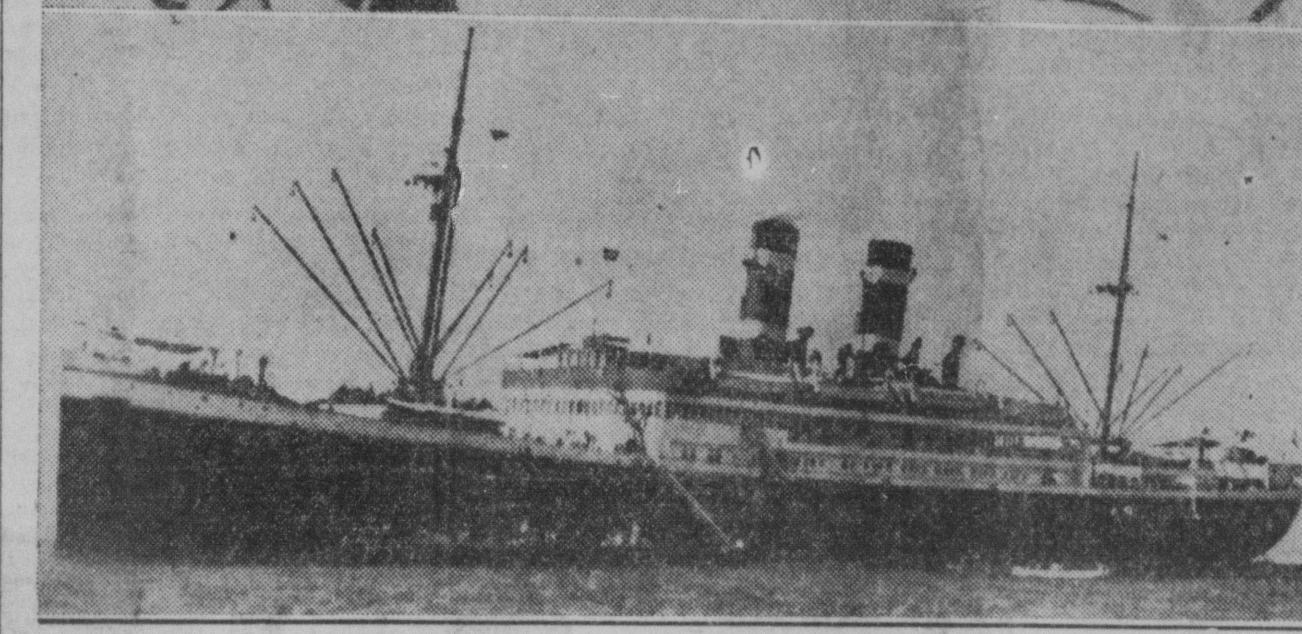

NEW BRITAIN, Nov. 20—Four men, all WPA employees, were killed and a fifth man was injured seriously today when the automobile in which they were riding to work was struck by a passenger train of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad at a New Britain crossing.

The dead: Ronald Loomis, driver of the car; Jeremiah Lynch, Richard MacNamara and William Frazier. In Hartford Hospital was the injured man, Joseph Gazda.

MARINES SAY NO, AND JAPS BELIEVE THEM

SHANGHAI, Nov. 20 — United States marines today prevented Japanese authorities from interfering with two rice warehouses in the marine sector of Shanghai. The Japanese were said to have claimed that the rice was received from the town of Wushih, a rice center in the Japanese-occupied area of China. They were reported making efforts to offset a rice shortage in Japan. Meanwhile, the price of rice has risen 25 percent in Shanghai.

Seeking to Forget Horrors of Simon Bolivar Blast

SURVIVORS of the blast which sank the Dutch liner Simon Bolivar (lower photo), these injured passengers and crew members in Bartholomew Hospital, Harwich, England, try to take their minds off the scenes of horror by playing cards. Nearly 150 persons perished as the 7,906-ton vessel plunged to the bottom of the North Sea sixteen miles off Harwich after two terrific mine explosions. She was bound for New York with approximately 230 passengers and 170 crew members. Photo flashed by radio from London to New York.

JOBLESS YOUTH SEEN AS THREAT

American Commission Says At Least Part Time Work Is Mandatory

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19—The unemployment of nearly 4,000,000 youths between 15 to 24 years old was cited by the American Youth Commission today as a threat to the nation's neutrality.

The commission, composed of a group of industrialists and educators headed by Owen D. Young, urged a federal works program to provide at least part-time jobs for youths who do not desire to continue in school but are unable to obtain jobs in private industry.

GERMAN POLICE WARN OF DEATH SO STRIKE ENDS

PRAGUE, Nov. 20—Strikes reported to have been threatened by workers in some Bohemian factories were believed to have been called off today after police authorities warned that such action would lead to the "most serious consequences."

14 CASES TO BE PROBED BY COUNTY GRAND JURY

The Pickaway County Grand Jury went in session Monday with about 14 cases for consideration. George E. Gerhardt, county prosecutor, believed the jury would complete consideration of the cases in one day. The cases were those filed since the last session of the jury in the early part of September.

MAUDE ETHEL HEDGES DIES AT ASHVILLE

Mrs. Maude Ethel Hedges, 55, died at her home 107 Scioto Street, Ashville, at 9:30 p. m. Sunday of a heart attack. She had been ill several days.

Mrs. Hedges, who was the wife of J. R. Hedges, was widely known socially throughout Pickaway County. She was the daughter of the late Joseph and Addie Westenhaver of Oman. Surviving besides Mr. Hedges are their three children, Mrs. Emerson Ward of Mt. Sterling, Mrs. Harold Cameron of Ashville and Dr. Robert Hedges of Cleveland, two grandchildren, and one sister, Mrs. Jessie Greenfield of Hillsboro.

Mrs. Hedges was a member of the Ashville Methodist Church, the Circleville Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star, the Ladies' Oriental Shrine and Pythian Sisters. Funeral services will be held in the home Wednesday at 11 a. m. Burial will be in Forest Cemetery.

NEW DEAL IS JEALOUS OF WAR

Backers Urge Program To Regain Position In News Spotlight

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20—Fearful that war and national defense will dwarf domestic issues in the forthcoming congress, a group of new deal officials and congressmen are urging the administration to intensify the public electric power development program, it appeared today.

The proposed program would not only be pushed in congress next winter but would be made a major issue in the next presidential campaign, under the program being discussed in official circles. A half-dozen major proposals are in the formative stage, but final word upon a program will rest with the White House. Indications thus far are that the administration will have few major issues to present to congress.

Boost Canadian Pact

Belief that the St. Lawrence waterways treaty will be negotiated with Canada, and submitted to the senate by President Roosevelt by next spring, is said to have encouraged the public power advocates.

HANCHER DRAWS LIGHT SENTENCE IN KUHN DEATH

Bernard Hancher, 35, of Clarksville, was sentenced to 60 days in the Ross County jail Saturday on his plea of guilty on an indictment charging second degree manslaughter.

NAZI WARSHIPS ABOUT RUIN 18 CRAFT FOR U. S.

Pocket Ships Reduce Great Fighters Value To Little More Than Junk

EFFECTIVENESS EXPLAINED

German Vessels Doom 62 World Cruisers Built At Cost Of $750,000,000

(Editors note:—From Germany's development and demonstration of the pocket battleship, Capt. John H. Craig, military commentator for International News Service, today draws the conclusion that 18 American warships have been rendered obsolete.)

Written Especially for International News Service
NEW YORK, Nov. 20—Germany is not at war with the United States but the Nazi pocket battleships have just about ruined eighteen American warships displacing a total of 180,000 tons, which cost the U. S. government in the neighborhood of a quarter of a billion dollars.

They did this without firing a shot in action, and that is far from being the total of the sea-going casualties these mighty German naval mites have caused in the world's navies. Altogether, they reduced practically to junk values some 62 cruisers owned by maritime powers stretching around the world clockwise from England to Japan. These cruisers total 620,000 tons displacement and cost the taxpayers of the world the stupendous sum of three quarters of a billion dollars.

Major Victory

This is infinitely more tons of shipping than has been sunk in any naval war since the advent of steam, and in terms of dollar value it represents more ships than have been destroyed in all mankind's wars at sea.

Of course these treaty cruisers are not at the bottom of the sea, nor is there anything, outwardly wrong with them. Many of them are actively patrolling the North Sea in England's navy, rendering excellent service. But as first-line fighting ships they have been surpassed by something superior and their eventual doom has been written.

The way the Nazi pocket warships junked all these fine and costly ships was by rendering (Continued on Page Four)

LABOR UNIONS GET WARNING ON ANTI TRUST ACT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20—In a statement of policy today, the Department of Justice said the anti-trust laws are applicable to labor unions when they enforce boycotts, strikes and coercion that have "no reasonable connection with wages, hours, health, safety, the speed-up system, or the establishment and maintenance of the right of collective bargaining."

Such cases, Assistant Attorney General Thurman Arnold said, "will be prosecuted" by the department. He said the "kind of activity which will be prosecuted may be illustrated by a practice frequently found in the building industry—strikes or boycotts in preventing the use of economical and standardized building material in order to compel persons in need of low-cost housing to hire unnecessary labor."

"Preventing improved methods of production—as distinguished from protecting labor from abuses connected with their introduction—is, of course, not the only labor activity which goes beyond any legitimate labor purpose," Arnold said. "We cite the example to emphasize the fact that union practices may become illegal where they have no reasonable connection with such legitimate objectives as wages, hours, safety, health, undue speeding up or the right of collective bargaining."

REDS AND JAPS IN ACCORD

Agreement Reached On Commission To Mark Frontier Lines

MOSCOW, Nov. 20—Soviet Russia and Japan have concluded an agreement on the composition of a mixed commission to demarcate the Mongolian-Manchukuoan frontier, the Tass (Russian) news agency said today.

The agency added that the agreement also stipulates the work to be undertaken by the commission. It stated the accord was signed by Soviet Premier Foreign Commissar V. M. Molotov and Japanese Ambassador Shigenori Togo.

According to Tass, Molotov and Togo took the opportunity to exchange views on "fundamental principles on which a Soviet-Japanese trade agreement must be based."

Disputes along the Mongolian-Manchukuoan border led to clashes between armed forces that reached the proportions of regular warfare before a truce finally ended the hostilities some weeks ago. At that time it was decided to name a commission to demarcate the border.

Moscow authorities revealed that Russia and Germany signed an agreement on Thursday for repatriation of German nationals in Soviet-occupied Western White Russia and the Western Ukraine (former Polish territory) and of Soviet nationals now living in German-occupied Poland.

PRODUCERS CALL FINAL PARLEY IN FILM STRIKE

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 20—Hopeful of a settlement which would keep Hollywood's land-of-make-believe a land of prosperous reality, producers called last ditch negotiations with labor leaders today to avert a threatened strike in the motion picture industry.

Conferences got under way as leaders of 23 American Federation of Labor unions stood fast on a final deadline at 2:30 o'clock (PST) this afternoon. Unless demands for pay increases are met by that time, they declared they would paralyze the $2,000,000,000 industry by effecting a strike tomorrow morning.

This action, if taken, would force 35,000 craft union members from their jobs and throw hundreds of famous stars and minor players into idleness. The unions last week turned down a producers' request that the recently granted 10 percent raise to 12,000 IATSE members be abrogated due to war and other conditions threatening box office receipts. Instead the unions made a demand that the same 10 percent increase be given to the 23,000 A. F. of L. workers in the industry who are not members of the IATSE, asserting that a reduction in studio overhead could be made by slashing the salaries of high-salaried executives.

CITY FIREMEN PREPARED FOR TOY CAMPAIGN

Circleville firemen announced Monday they are all set for their Christmas toy campaign. The firemen will receive old toys at any time. "We have our room cleared away to receive the toys and we're ready to start work on them," Fire Chief Talmer Wise announced. The department urges that residents bring old toys to the department as early as possible. Some of the toys require considerable work to put them in shape for distribution. In recent years many organizations have boosted the toy campaign. Programs were held in which members exchanged toys, then the toys were given the firemen.

FIRST PHASE OF SUB WAR FAILS BRITAIN CLAIMS

London Says Germans Now Indiscriminately Plant Explosives In Sea

200 KILLED IN BLASTS

More Than Fourth Of All U-Boats Sunk, Declare English Authorities

LONDON, Nov. 20—Nazi Germany has lost "the first phase" of submarine warfare and is now restoring to "indiscriminate" mine-laying as an alternative, high British naval authorities charged today as a check-up shows that nine vessels of varying nationalities were sent to the bottom in British waters over the week end.

Loss of two additional British steamers—the Collier Torchbearer

NEUTRALITY INTENTION EMPHASIZED BY ITALY

ROME, Nov. 20—Italy's determination to enforce her neutrality in the European war was emphasized today after authorities interned two members of a German military plane which crashed near Belluno on Friday. All four members of the crew parachuted to earth, but only two were found. They explained they had lost their way owing to fog.

GERMANY DENIES HER MINES SINK SHIPS

BERLIN, Nov. 20—The German admiralty vehemently denied today that German mines were responsible for the sinkings of eight vessels off the East coast of England over the week end. The admiralty expressed the opinion that the British were laying mines in the path of neutral vessels to compel them to accept British convoys, and that the British fear their harbors are too vulnerable to German attacks.

many's submarines had failed to return to their bases. "The U-boats have been defeated by torpedo and gun action," a naval spokesman said. "Therefore, the Germans are now restoring to indiscriminate mine-laying as an even more brutal method of warfare. "The Germans are desperate, (Continued on Page Four)"

FORMER KAISER HAS CLOSE CALL IN DUTCH STORM

LONDON, Nov. 20 — Former Kaiser Wilhelm of Germany narrowly escaped death or injury yesterday when walking in the park surrounding his estate, a Reuters dispatch from Doorn, Holland, said today. The report said that three giant trees, uprooted by a storm, crashed within 80 feet of the exiled Kaiser.

WEATHER
Rain Monday night; Tuesday fair and warmer.

THE CIRCLEVILLE HERALD

WORLD, NATIONAL AND STATE NEWS BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE

Two Telephones
Business Office 782 Editorial 581
Rooms

FORTY-FIFTH YEAR. NUMBER 270.

CIRCLEVILLE, OHIO, MONDAY, NOVEMBER 20, 1939.

THREE CENTS.

NINE SHIPS SUNK BY GERMAN MINES

Third Term Speculation Grows Apace

WEEK END SPENT AT HYDE PARK STIRS RUMORS

President Sits Tight And Apparently Intends To Let Public Decide

ASSOCIATES AIR OPINION

New Deal Leaders Believe
F. D. R. Will Declare Himself
At Auspicious Time

ABOARD PRESIDENTIAL
SPECIAL ENROUTE TO WASH-INGTON, Nov. 20 — Third term speculation grew apace as a result of President Roosevelt's week end at Hyde Park, but best information was — as he returned briefly to the White House today enroute to Warm Springs for Thanksgiving — that the chief executive intended to sit tight and let the American public decide that burning issue for itself.

Badgered on all sides for weeks to declare his intentions about the 1940 nomination, Mr. Roosevelt consistently has parried all questions and ridiculed quite a bit of the printed speculation.

One of his closest associates, however, is sponsor of this prediction:

"I think the President is going to saw wood — watch the European war — and say nothing. If there should be a far-reaching popular reaction in favor of a third term he probably would respond to it. Lacking such a call he is prepared to retire to his Hyde Park home on January 20, 1941."

Keeps Eye on War

The reference to "watching the European War" obviously called attention to the President's foreign policy, which has proven widely popular among Republicans and conservative Democrats who otherwise strongly oppose the New Deal. Developments along the Maginot-Siegfried line, in the submarine-infested Atlantic, and in the air during the next six months may well have a marked bearing on the action of the nominating delegates at next June's Democratic national convention.

Over the week end at Hyde Park, Mr. Roosevelt gave several jocular but uncommunicative pokes at the third term speculation.

Yesterday he laid the cornerstone of the $350,000 privately-built library which will house ultimately his 6,000,000 political papers. Smiling at the crowd of unlisted donors which included such political notables as Federal Security Administrator Paul V. Mc-Nutt, Mayor Edward J. Kelly of Chicago and Mayor Frank Hague of Jersey City, he expressed hope his papers would be ready for public inspection by the spring of 1941.

Pokes at Speculation

Then he added extemporaneously:

"And may I add the expression
(Continued on Page Four)

LOCAL
High Sunday, 57.
Low Monday, 35.
Rainfall in the 24 hours prior to 8 a. m. amounted to .1 of an inch.

FORECAST
For Monday and Tuesday:
OHIO — Cloudy with rain in south and central and colder in south portion Monday. Tuesday, generally fair with slowly rising temperature.

TEMPERATURES ELSEWHERE
High Low
Abilene, Tex. .... 66 29
Bismarck, N. Dak. .... 42 27
Boston, Mass. .... 42 35
Chicago, Ill. .... 43 41
Cleveland, O. .... 52 42
Denver, Colo. .... 52 26
Des Moines, Iowa .... 49 37
Duluth, Minn. .... 36 31
Los Angeles, Calif. .... 84 43
Miami, Fla. .... 84 75
Montgomery, Ala. .... 65 58

BLAST ON SHIP IS PROBED

Six Agencies Search For Evidence Of Possible
Sabotage In Harbor

BAYONNE, N. J., Nov. 20—Six separate agencies today probing for evidences of possible sabotage in the roaring explosion which wrought $200,000 damage to the 11,147-ton Standard Oil tanker
J. A. Mowinkel at her dock in Bayonne.

Workmen labored through the night to keep the vessel afloat after an explosion in an empty 8,000 gallon fuel tank ripped up 100-feet of the thick steel deck, sprang plates below the water line and broke windows two miles away.

Spokesmen for the Standard Oil Company were inclined to blame a spark of static electricity for the blast, discounting theories of sabotage. The electric spark, it was explained, could have ignited fumes in the tank, one of the few which had not yet been flushed with live steam and washed down with hot water.

Officials of the Standard Oil Company which had the tanker under lease from a Panamanian subsidiary opened their investigation by questioning the crew. Other probes were being conducted by the U. S. Naval Intelligence, G-men, the Coast Guard Intelligence, the Marine Inspection and Navigation bureau and New Jersey police.

Only one seaman on an adjoining ship was slightly injured while divining for cover. The tanks are flushed by steam piped directly from the engine room, no men being allowed inside them at such times.

SWISS PROTEST TO BERLIN ON AIR VIOLATION

GENEVA, Nov. 20—The Swiss government today sent the strongest possible note of protest to Berlin against violations of Swiss soil by German planes and the bombarding of sections of Basle Saturday in which three Swiss citizens were wounded.

The bombardment occurred when German anti-aircraft batteries fired upon French planes, some of the shells bursting over sections of Basle adjoining the frontier.

FOUR MEN DIE AS FAST TRAIN HITS WPA TRUCK

NEW BRITAIN, Nov. 20—Four men, all WPA employees, were killed and a fifth man was injured seriously today when the automobile in which they were riding to work was struck by a passenger train of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad at a New Britain crossing.

The dead:
Ronald Loomis, driver of the car; Jeremiah Lynch, Richard MacNamara and William Frazier.
In Hartford Hospital was the injured man, Joseph Gazda.

MARINES SAY NO, AND JAPS BELIEVE THEM

SHANGHAI, Nov. 20 — United States marines today prevented
Japanese authorities from interfering with two rice warehouses in the marine sector of Shanghai.

The Japanese were said to have claimed that the rice was received from the town of Wushih, a rice center in the Japanese-occupied area of China. They were reportedly making efforts to offset a rice shortage in Japan. Meanwhile, the price of rice has risen 25 percent in Shanghai.

Seeking to Forget Horrors of Simon Bolivar Blast

SURVIVORS of the blast which sank the Dutch liner Simon Bolivar (lower photo), these injured passengers and crew members in Bartholomew Hospital, Harwich, England, try to take their minds off the scenes of horror by playing cards. Nearly 150 persons perished as the 7,906-

MAUDE ETHEL HEDGES DIES AT ASHVILLE

Mrs. Maude Ethel Hedges, 55, died at her home 107 Scioto Street, Ashville, at 9:30 p. m. Sunday of a heart attack. She had been ill several days.

Mrs. Hedges, who was the wife of J. R. Hedges, was widely known socially throughout Pickaway County.

She was the daughter of the late Joseph and Addie Western of haver Oman. Surviving besides Mrs. Hedges are their three children, Mrs. Emerson Ward of Mt.
Sterling, Mrs. Harold Cameron of Ashville and Dr. Robert Hedges of Cleveland, two grandchildren, and one sister, Mrs. Jessie Greenfield of Hillsboro.

Mrs. Hedges was a member of the Ashville Methodist Church, the Circleville Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star, the Ladies'
Oriental Shrine and Pythian Sisters.

Funeral services will be held in the home Wednesday at 11 a. m.
Burial will be in Forest Cemetery.

GERMAN POLICE WARN OF DEATH SO STRIKE ENDS

PRAGUE, Nov. 20—Strikes reported to have been threatened by workers in some Bohemian factories were believed to have been called off today after police authorities warned that such action would lead to the "most serious consequences."

It was understood the workers threatened to strike following the executions on Friday and Saturday of 12 Czechs as a result of disorders which led to strict martial law in Prague and other Czech towns.

Authorities said that complete quiet had been restored in Prague.
(Editor's note: The Paris radio yesterday broadcast a rumor that 30 demonstrators were killed and "thousands wounded" when Nazi elite guards fired on Czech rioters attempting to storm the official residence of Baron Constantine Von Neurath, Reich protector for Bohemia-Moravia.)

(Reuters (British) news agency claimed about 50,000 new arrests had been made by German military authorities in an effort to "crush unrest among the Czechs." Neither the French nor British reports were substantiated elsewhere.)

14 CASES TO BE PROBED BY COUNTY GRAND JURY

The Pickaway County Grand Jury went in session Monday with about 14 cases for consideration.
George E. Gerhardt, county prosecutor, believed the jury would complete consideration of the cases in one day. The cases were those filed since the last session of the jury in the early part of September.

NAZI WARSHIPS ABOUT RUIN 18 CRAFT FOR U. S.

Pocket Ships Reduce Great Fighters Value To Little More Than Junk

EFFECTIVENESS EXPLAINED

German Vessels Doom 62
World Cruisers Built At Cost Of $750,000,000

(Editors note—From Germany's development and demonstration of the pocket battleship, Capt. John H. Craig, military commentator for International News Service, today draws the conclusion that 18 American warships have been rendered obsolete.)

Written Especially for International News Service
NEW YORK, Nov. 20—Germany is not at war with the United States but the Nazi pocket battleships have just about ruined eighteen American warships displacing a total of 180,000 tons, which cost the U. S. government in the neighborhood of a quarter of a billion dollars.

They did this without firing a shot in action, and that is far from being the total of the sea-going casualties these mighty German naval mines have caused in the world's navies. Altogether, they reduced practically to junk values some 62 cruisers owned by maritime powers stretching around the world clockwise from England to Japan. These cruisers total 620,000 tons displacement and cost the taxpayers of the world the stupendous sum of three quarters of a billion dollars.

Major Victory

This is infinitely more tons of shipping than has been sunk in any naval war since the advent of steam, and in terms of dollar value it represents more ships than have been destroyed in all mankind's wars at sea.

Of course these treaty cruisers are not at the bottom of the sea, nor is there anything, outwardly wrong with them. Many of them are actively patrolling the North Sea in England's navy, rendering excellent service. But as first-line fighting ships they have been surpassed by something superior and their eventual doom has been written.

The way the Nazi pocket warships junked all these fine and costly ships was by rendering
(Continued on Page Four)

LABOR UNIONS GET WARNING ON ANTI TRUST ACT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20—In a statement of policy today, the Department of Justice said the antitrust laws are applicable to labor unions when they enforce boycotts, strikes and coercion that have "no reasonable connection with wages, hours, health, safety, the speed-up system, or the establishment and maintenance of the right of collective bargaining."

Such cases, Assistant Attorney General Thurman Arnold said,
"will be prosecuted" by the department. He said the "kind of activity which will be prosecuted may be illustrated by a practice frequently found in the building industry—strikes or boycotts "in preventing the use of economical and standardized building material in order to compel persons in need of low-cost housing to hire unces-sary labor."

"Preventing improved methods of production—as distinguished from protecting labor from abuses connected with their introduction—is, of course, not the only labor activity which goes beyond any legitimate labor purpose," Arnold said. "We cite the example to emphasize the fact that union practices may become illegal where they have no reasonable connection with such legitimate objectives as wages, hours, safety, health, undue speeding up or the right of collective bargaining."

REDS AND JAPS IN ACCORD

Agreement Reached On Commission To Mark
Frontier Lines

MOSCOW, Nov. 20—Soviet Russia and Japan have concluded an agreement on the composition of a mixed commission to demarcate the Mongolian-Manchukuoan frontier, the Tass (Russian) news agency said today.

The agency added that the agreement also stipulates that the work to be undertaken by the commission. It stated the accord was signed by Soviet Premier-Foreign Commissar V. M. Molotov and Japanese Ambassador Shige-nori Togo.

According to Tass, Molotov and Togo took the opportunity to exchange views on "fundamental principles on which a Soviet-Japanese trade agreement must be based."

Disputes along the Mongolian-Manchukuoan border led to clashes between armed forces that reached the proportions of regular warfare before a truce finally ended the hostilities some weeks ago. At that time it was decided to name a commission to demarcate the border.

Moscow authorities revealed that Russia and Germany signed an agreement on Thursday for repatriation of German nationals in Soviet-occupied Western White
Russia and the Western Ukraine
(former Polish territory) and of Soviet nationals now living in German-occupied Poland.

PRODUCERS CALL FINAL PARLEY IN FILM STRIKE

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 20—Hopeful of a settlement which would keep Hollywood's land-of-make-believe a land of prosperous reality, producers called last ditch negotiations with labor leaders today to avert a threatened strike in the motion picture industry.

Conferences got under way as leaders of 23 American Federation of Labor unions stood fast on a final deadline at 2:30 o'clock
(PST) this afternoon. Unless demands for pay increases are met by that time, they declared they would paralyze the $2,000,000,000 industry by effecting a strike tomorrow morning.

This action, if taken, would force 35,000 craft union members from their jobs and throw hundreds of famous stars and minor players into idleness.

The unions last week turned down a producers' request that the recently granted 10 percent raise to 12,000 IATSE members be abrogated due to war and other conditions threatening box office receipts. Instead the unions made a demand that the same 10 percent increase be given to the 23,000 A. F. of L. workers in the industry who are not members of the IATSE, asserting that a reduction in studio overhead could be made by slashing the salaries of high-salaried executives.

CITY FIREMEN PREPARED FOR TOY CAMPAIGN

Circleville firemen announced
Monday they are all set for their Christmas toy campaign.

The firemen will receive old toys at any time. "We have our room cleared away to receive the toys and we're ready to start work on them." Fire Chief Tal-mer Wise announced.

The department urges that residents bring old toys to the department as early as possible.
Some of the toys require considerable work to put them in shape for distribution.

In recent years many organizations have boosted the toy campaign. Programs were held in which members exchanged toys, then the toys were given the firemen.

FIRST PHASE OF SUB WAR FAILS BRITAIN CLAIMS

London Says Germans Now
Indiscriminately Plant
Explosives In Sea

200 KILLED IN BLASTS

More Than Fourth Of All
U-Boats Sunk, Declare
English Authorities

LONDON, Nov. 20—Nazi Germany has lost "the first phase" of submarine warfare and is now restoring to "indiscriminate" mine-laying as an alternative, high British naval authorities charged today as a check-up shows that nine vessels of varying nationalities were sent to the bottom in British waters over the week end.

Loss of two additional British steamers—the Collier Torchbearer

NEUTRALITY INTENTION EMPHASIZED BY ITALY

ROME, Nov. 20—Italy's determination to enforce her neutrality in the European war was emphasized today after authorities interned two members of a German military plane which crashed near Belluno on Friday. All four members of the crew parachuted to earth, but only two were found. They explained they had lost their way owing to fog.

GERMANY DENIES HER MINES SINK SHIPS

and the trawler Wigmore—became known today. The entire crew of 16 of the Wigmore were believed dead, while nine were lost aboard the Torchbearer.

Shortly before noon today, on the basis of the latest information available, authorities said they feared at least 200 persons had been killed as a result of the sinkings of steamers by floating mines.

Clean-Up Planned
While British authorities laid plans for a major campaign to clear the English Channel and adjacent waters of clusters of floating mines, official quarters claimed that at least one quarter and perhaps one half of Germany's submarines had failed to return to their bases.

"The U-boats have been defeated by torpedo and gun action," a naval spokesman said.

"Therefore, the Germans are now restoring to indiscriminate mine-laying as an even more brutal method of warfare."

"The Germans are desperate,"
(Continued on Page Four)

FORMER KAISER HAS CLOSE CALL IN DUTCH STORM

LONDON, Nov. 20 — Former Kaiser Wilhelm of Germany narrowly escaped death or injury yesterday when walking in the park surrounding his estate, a Reuters dispatch from Doorn, Holland, said today.

The report said that three giant trees, uprooted by a storm, crashed within 80 feet of the exiled ex-Kaiser.

OHIO FACTORIES MAY GAIN IN FOREIGN TRADE

Government Experts See Advance In Glass, Steel, Pottery Demands

CONGRESSMAN IS ACTIVE

Representative Seeking To Gain Business Share For Home State

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20—Ohio manufacturers, especially those making pottery, glass and steel, may gain foreign trade as the result of wars in Europe and Asia, Rep. Earl R. Lewis, (R-Ohio) said today, after a series of conferences with officials of the commerce department.

After accompanying L. P. Reese, president of the Scio Pottery Company, to the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, Lewis said that he wrote to every Ohio pottery and glass manufacturer urging them to seek expansion in foreign fields.

"Government experts are optimistic over prospects for increasing foreign trade in pottery, glass, steel and other industries," said Lewis. "Markets are available not only in South America but also in other countries, including the Orient."

"The continuing war in China has crippled Japanese pottery makers, who were taking the American market. The Czechoslovakian pottery industry, of course, has suffered by German absorption and the war."

"The same general situation applies to steel. Markets are available, not because of exports to warring nations, but because they have been forced to curtail their domestic industries."

The Ohio Congressman said that he planned to make himself a one-man contact committee between Ohio manufacturers and the Commerce Department, in an effort to seize opportunities to increase employment in Ohio industries.

Olivia in Supporting Role

"BUT I Love You More" insists Olivia de Havilland, who vies with Bette Davis for Errol Flynn's love in "The Private Lives of Elizabeth and Essex," Warner Bros. Technicolor production which is currently showing at the Grand. Patrons, who viewed the picture Sunday were loud in their praise of the splendid artistry shown by both Errol Flynn and Bette Davis.

SAM'S SHOP AT ASHVILLE DOES HOLD PRACTICE GOOD BUSINESS MONDAY NIGHT

By S. D. Fridley
Ashville, Phone 79

According to some figures Postmaster Stanley Smith handed us Saturday, when we asked him if Fall business was holding up good at his "store" sales are on the increase as the holiday season becomes nearer. Told us that 747 money orders had been written in the past six weeks, the amount received for same, including fees, $5440.41 and the stamps alone, amounted $598.88 and after certain expense deductions were made, $4879.99 was sent to the general accounting office. So you see, he said, business is quite good at "Sam's Shop".

Herman and Mrs. Berger out in Walnut Township near what we have always known as the "Nogger Gravel Bank", have in egg production now, a very fine flock of White Rock and White Leghorn pullets, a few hundred of them. Several crates of select eggs are sent out each week (30 dozen to a crate) to a Capital City hatchery at a premium price. The hatchery receiving these eggs operates throughout the entire year with no seasonal shutdowns.

The local Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist Church is extra well pleased with the success they had with their recent chicken pie supper. The number of meals served was at the 450 mark and the net receipts very satisfactory.

Clementine Gloyd a teacher in the Obetz schools and who has been confined to her home and bed at Duval for some time, was removed to Mt. Carmel Hospital by the Schlegel ambulance Saturday. And yesterday Mrs. Ralph Stevenson was removed from her home near Ashville, to Grant Hospital.

Roland McCrillis and wife of Norwalk were from Thursday to Sunday guests at the home of Mrs. Blanche Morrison on East Main Street. . . . Robert is a new addition to the Ashville Cloud family born away up in Maine a few days ago, the son of Dr. Samuel and Mrs. Cloud whose home is in New York City. The doctor is employed at the New York State Hospital, a former high school lad here, and in addition private "secretary" at the print shop for a long while. . . . Both the village council and joint high school board will be in session this evening. . . . The broken window glass at the Odd Fellows' building is being replaced with a new one. . . . The second story of this building is now being used as a play room for the children in charge of Mrs. George Nance and Ray Leonard.

About 25 members of the Homecraft Club took supper with the ladies of the M. E. Church at Ashville. Later a meeting was held at the E. F. Schlegel Home Shop where they were entertained by a talk and round table discussion led by Roland McCrillis of Norwalk, Ohio about wood glueing.

On The Air

MONDAY

7:00 Fred Waring, WLW; Ray Kinney, KDKA.
7:30 Blondie, WBNS; Larry Clinton, WTAM.
8:00 Sherlock Holmes, KDKA; Tony Martin, WBNS.
8:30 Richard Crooks, WLW; True or False, KDKA; Tom Howard and George Shelton, WKCY.
9:00 Radio Theatre, WBNS; Doctor I. Q. WLW.
9:30 Alec Templeton, WLW; Youth in Crisis, WSAI.
10:00 Guy Lombardo, WBNS; Gene and Glenn, WBZ.
10:30 Larry Clinton, WLW.
Later: 11, Little Jack Little, WJZ; 11:30, Sammy Kaye, WBNS; Abe Lyman, KDKA; 12, Louis Armstrong, WHAS; Benny Goodman, WKRC.

TUESDAY

6:15 Bill McCune, WGN.
7:00 Fred Waring, WLW; Easy Aces, WSAI.
7:30 Helen Menken, WBNS.
8:00 Edward Robinson, Ona Munson, WBNS; Johnny Green, WLW.
8:30 Information Please, KDKA; Walter O'Keefe, WBNS.
9:00 Gabriel Heatter, WBNS; Frank Crumit, WLW.
9:30 Fibber McGee, WLW; Bob Crosby, WBNS.
10:00 Bob Hone, WLW; Sammy Kaye, WBNS.
Later: 10:30, Judith Allen, WHIO; Ben Feld, KMOX; 11, Martin Dies, WKRC; 11:30, Richard Himber, WSM; Paul Whiteman, WHIO; Bernie Cummins, WLW; 12, Jan Savitt, WSB; Pancho, WLW.

LAUGHTON BOOKED

Charles Laughton, the picture horror man and ace character actor, is to be guest star on Walter O'Keefe's Tuesday Night Party, Nov. 21, 8:30 p. m. over the Columbia Broadcasting System. Laughton and Mary Martin will exchange Hollywood banter while Bobby Dolan's orchestra will provide the musical background.

MADELEINE CARROLL

Resuming last season's guest star policy for one night only, Bob Hope will present Madeleine Carroll, as guest star on the program Tuesday 10 p. m. over the NBC-Red network. Hope has been saying so many complimentary things about Miss Carroll on his weekly show that she decided to pay him a visit by way of reciprocation. Skinnay Ennis will play "O'Johnny."

PETER ARNO TO GUEST

Peter Arno, one of America's best loved cartoonists and current swain of the glamorous Brenda Frazier, will bust a few gags with Milton Berle on Stop Me If You've Heard This One Saturday, Nov. 25, 8:30 p. m. over the NBC-Red network. Arno says this is the first time he's ever attempted to provide the payoff on a gag. Usually, he has to give the payoff substance in the form of line of caricature. Jay C. Flippen and Harry Hersfield will be heard with a band yet to be selected.

BOB CROSBY

Something old, something new, something borrowed and something blue will be set to music by Bob Crosby and his band on the Dixie Song Show program Tuesday 9:30 p. m. CBS, when they swing "It Had To Be You," (an oldie) and "I Didn't Know What Time It Was," (a recent song) with vocals by Hetten Ward. Crosby's solo will be "South of the Border," and the band will borrow from Georgia Tech when the jive "Ramblin' Wreck from Georgia Tech." The something blue will be "Dixieland One Step," played by the ensemble. "In a Little Spanish Town" is the Bobcat selection.

POLICE SEEK KIDNAPERS OF COLUMBUS CITIZEN

COLUMBUS, Nov. 20—Police today sought two youths who reportedly abducted James J. Swisher, of Columbus, and left him blindfolded on a lonely road near the city after robbing him of $40 and a watch.

Swisher told officers he was walking when a man stepped from an auto and forced him into the car at the point of a revolver. The robber and a companion then took Swisher outside the city and took away his belongings.

LEATHER INDUSTRY HIT

YOUNGSTOWN, O. — While many commodities have enjoyed a ready market and higher prices since the start of the European war, the leather industry has suffered a severe setback, according to Victor G. Lombard, president of the Ohio Leather Co., Girard, Ohio.

THEATRES

AT THE CLIFTONA

JAMES Stewart plays the title role in Frank Capra's stirring new romantic comedy, Columbia's "Mr. Smith Goes to Washington." Jean Arthur is also starred in the film, which is now showing at the Cliftona Theatre.

WILLIAMSPORT

By Carolyn Bochard

Mrs. Ethel McKinley was elected Worthy Matron of Heber Chapter, No. 62, Order of the Eastern Star, at the regular meeting, Thursday evening, November 9th. Her associate will be Thomas McKinley, who was elected Worthy Patron. The other officers chosen to serve with Mrs. McKinley include: Mrs. Marvene Rihl, Associate Matron; Charles Carter, Associate Patron; Mrs. Tammie Marcy, Secretary; Mrs. Myrtle Campbell, Treasurer; Mrs. Ida Ware, Conductress; Mrs. Wanda Carpenter, Associate Conductress; and Mrs. Charles Hammack, Trustee. The other officers will be appointed by Mrs. McKinley. The Worthy Matron-elect announced that the installation of officers will be held at the regular meeting, Thursday evening, December 14th.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Baird and sons of Frankfort, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bell and daughter, Carolyn Kay, of Circleville, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baird, Sunday.

Miss Rosemary Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clark, and a Junior in the Williamsport High School won the Prince of Peace Declamation Contest, Sunday evening, at the Methodist Church. Her winning oration was, "Testimony of Youth". The other contestants were: Misses Virginia Buskirk, Nellie Brown and Letitia Gamble. Miss Clark will compete in the County Contest to be held early in December. Music for the occasion was several numbers by a mixed quartette composed of Misses Margaret Smith, Marjorie Heiskell, Mary Alice Luellen and Virginia Puffinberger; Lyle Miner, Orville West, Ralph Carter and Charles Dreisbach.

The regular meeting of the Sorosis Club will be held at the home of Mrs. William Schleich, Monday evening, November 20th. Mrs. William D. Radcliff will be program leader of the evening.

The Deercreek Garden Club will meet Wednesday afternoon, November 29, at the Parish House. Miss Lena Schein will be the program leader, her subject being, "The Care of House Plants".

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond French of Knightstown, Indiana, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Lee Luellen and Miss Mary Alice Luellen.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Smith of near Williamsport entertained with a game supper at their home, recently. Their guests included: Mrs. C. O. Smith of Williamsport; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence McAbee and son, Richard of near Circleville; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith and sons of Mt. Sterling; Mr. and Mrs. Quinn Clark and family of Washington, C. H.; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Steinhauser and son, Don Wendell, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith of Chillicothe; and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Steinhauser and family of Clarksburg.

Mrs. Ella Hornbeck of Circleville is visiting with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Hunsicker.

Continuous Shows Daily

GRAND
CINCINNATI, OHIO

TODAY-TUES.

SHOULD A QUEEN BE DEPRIVED OF LOVE?

Bette DAVIS
Errol FLYNN

THE PRIVATE LIVES OF

ELIZABETH ARDEN
ESSEX

IN TECHNICOLOR
OLIVIA DEHAVILLAND
DONALD CRISP - ALAN
HALE - VINCENT PRICE

Court News

PICKAWAY COUNTY

Marriage Licenses
Claude Robinson, 21, farmer, Circleville Route 2 and Margaret M. Malone, Circleville.

Common Pleas
George E. Cook, v. Erma Cook, divorce decree filed.

Probate
Charles Vernon Furness guardianship, final account filed.

Hocking County
Charles P. Kreider, et al., v. Robert S. Beiter, state director of highways, et al., answer filed.

FAYETTE COUNTY
Probate
Estate of Jesse Bonecutter, John A. Harper, David H. Uphegrove, Alice May Henkle, John Logan and Ray D. Post, final accounts filed.

Milton Williams trusteeship, first account filed.

William E. Over guardianship, eighth account filed and approved.

Henry A. Dearth estate, will filed and probated.

Joseph Speakman estate, estate relieved of administration.

Eva Dawson estate, will filed and probated.

Harry Henkle estate, claim of Harley Henkle allowed.

Sarah A. Lease estate, administratrix named.

Herbert E. Shoop estate, inventory filed.

Ella Waters estate, transfer of real estate ordered.

Bruce Pine estate, administrator named.

Anna Hooser estate, transfer of real estate authorized.

ROSS COUNTY
Common Pleas
Home Owners Loan Corporation v. Isauo and Lulu Willis, judgment for $2,842 filed.

Robert C. Byers v. Alva Petherolf, memorandum of the plaintiff against defendant's motion filed.

Home Owners Loan Corporation v. George W. Medley, et al., resale authorized.

Home Owners Loan Corporation v. David E. Valentine, et al., sale confirmed.

BOY KILLED, THREE HURT WHEN STOVE EXPLODES

MARION, Nov. 20—Eleven-year-old Frederick Gates was killed and his parents and a sister were in a hospital with serious burns today as the result of the explosion of a gasoline cook stove.

Mrs. Mary Gates, 40, the boy's mother, in critical condition, told authorities the stove exploded as she was refilling it while the boy looked on. The father, Edward, 46-year-old steelworker, and the sister, Mary, 13, were burned as they rushed to the aid of the boy and his mother.

CLIFTONA

TONITE
TUESDAY

THE GREATEST OF ALL CAPRA HITS

FRANK CAPRA'S
Mr. Smith Goes To Washington

JAMES STEWART
JEAN ARTHUR

PLUS SHORTS

WED. & THURS.

CONTINUOUS SHOWS
THANKSGIVING

She couldn't cook...and her housework was slow...but oh! how she could sew and sew! A comedy hit that will keep you in stitches!

Extra! Snapshots, Color Classic Comedy

HAL ROACH
Housekeeper's Daughter

JOHN BENNETT
ANITA LOUISE
JOHN RUSSELL

COMING SUNDAY

DOROTHY LAMOUR

'Disputed Passage'

More puffs per pack...and

More Mildness, Coolness, and Flavor with Slower-Burning Camels

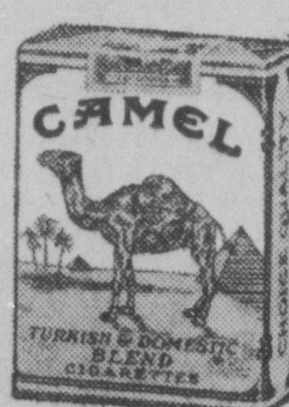

The costlier tobaccos are slower-burning...milder...cooler...mellower

By burning 25% slower than the average of the 15 other of the largest-selling brands tested—slower than any of them—CAMELS give a smoking plus equal to

5 EXTRA SMOKES PER PACK!

SMOKERS: SAVE THE COST OF THE STATE CIGARETTE TAX

Smokers who live in communities where certain state cigarette taxes are in effect can save the cost of the tax—and, in some instances, more—through smoking Camels. (See right.) When you are a Camel smoker, you get this unique economy—and all the extra enjoyment of cooler, milder smoking—the fragrance and delicate taste of finer, more costly tobaccos.

MANY a smoker has switched to Camels because his value-sense applauded the thrift of getting more puffs per pack. But...

That's only one small part of the story of slow burning. You get a lot more than savings!

You get extra mildness! Common sense tells you that a fast, fiery, hot-burning cigarette will not smoke comfortably or yield a delicate taste and fragrance. And that slow-burning tobaccos naturally would be mild and mellow.

You get extra coolness. You needn't be a scientist to know that the slower tobacco burns, the cooler the smoking.

You get extra-fine flavor. Excess heat ruthlessly destroys the subtle elements of flavor and aroma. Slow-burning Camels tell their own taste-tale!

So...for thrift and for a smoking thrill...light up a slow-burning Camel!

For More Mildness, Coolness, and Flavor

Camels
SLOW-BURNING
COSTLIER TOBACCOS

OHIO FACTORIES MAY GAIN IN FOREIGN TRADE

Government Experts See Advance in Glass, Steel, Pottery Demands

CONGRESSMAN IS ACTIVE

Representative Seeking To Gain Business Share For Home State

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20—Ohio manufacturers, especially those making pottery, glass and steel, may gain foreign trade as the result of wars in Europe and Asia, Rep. Earl R. Lewis, (R-Ohio) said today, after a series of conferences with officials of the commerce department.

After accompanying L. P. Reese, president of the Ohio Pottery Company, to the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, Lewis said that he wrote to every Ohio pottery and glass manufacturer urging them to seek expansion in foreign fields.

"Government experts are optimistic over prospects for increasing foreign trade in pottery, glass, steel and other industries," said Lewis. "Markets are available not only in South America but also in other countries, including the Orient."

"The continuing war in China has crippled Japanese pottery makers, who were taking the American market. The Czechoslovakian pottery industry, of course, has suffered by German absorption and the war."

"The same general situation applies to steel. Markets are available, not because of exports to warring nations, but because they have been forced to curtail their domestic industries."

The Ohio Congressman said that he planned to make himself a one-man contact committee between Ohio manufacturers and the Commerce Department, in an effort to seize opportunities to increase employment in Ohio industries.

Court News

PICKAWAY COUNTY

Marriage Licenses
Claude Robinson, 21, farmer, Circleville Route 2, and Margaret M. Malone, Circleville.

Common Pleas
George E. Cook, v. Erma Cook, divorce decree filed.

Probate
Charles Vernon Furness guardianship, final account filed.

Hocking County
Charles F. Kreider, et al, v. Robert S. Bettler, state director of highways, et al, answer filed.

Fayette County
Probate
Estate of Jesse Bonecutter, John A. Harper, David H. Uphegrove, Alice May Henkle, John Logan and Ray D. Post, final accounts filed.

Milton Williams trusteeship, first account filed.

William E. Over guardianship, eighth account filed and approved.

Henry A. Dearth estate, will filed and probated.

Joseph Speakman estate, estate relieved of administration.

Eva Dawson estate, will filed and probated.

Harley Henkle estate, claim of Harry Henkle allowed.

Sarah A. Lense estate, administrator named.

Herbert E. Shoop estate, inventory filed.

Ella Waters estate, transfer of real estate ordered.

Bruce Pine estate, administrator named.

Anna Hosler estate, transfer of real estate authorized.

Ross County
Common Pleas
Home Owners Loan Corporation v. Isaac and Lulu Willis, judgment for $2,448 filed.

Robert C. Byers v. Alva Petheroff, memorandum of the plaintiff against defendant's motion filed.

Home Owners Loan Corporation v. George W. Medley, et al, resale authorized.

Home Owners Loan Corporation v. David E. Valentine, et al, sale confirmed.

BOY KILLED, THREE HURT WHEN STOVE EXPLODES

MARION, Nov. 20—Eleven-year-old Frederick Gates was killed and his parents and a sister were in a hospital with serious burns today as the result of the explosion of a gasoline cook stove.

Mrs. Mary Gates, 40, the boy's mother, in critical condition, told authorities the stove exploded as she was refilling it while the boy looked on. The father, Edward, 46-year-old steelworker, and the sister, Mary, 13, were burned as they rushed to the aid of the boy and his mother.

Olivia in Supporting Role

"BUT I Love You More" insists Olivia de Havilland, who vies with Bette Davis for Errol Flynn's love in "The Private Lives of Elizabeth and Essex." Warner Bros. Technicolor production which is currently showing at the Grand. Patrons, who viewed the picture Sunday were loud in their praise of the splendid artistry shown by both Errol Flynn and Bette Davis.

SAM'S SHOP AT ASHVILLE DOES GOOD BUSINESS

By S. D. Fridley
Ashville, Phone 79

According to some figures Postmaster Stanley Smith handed us Saturday, when we asked him if Fall business was holding up good at his "store" sales are on the increase as the holiday season becomes nearer. Told us that 747 money orders had been written in the past six weeks, the amount received for same, including fees, $5440.41 and the stamps sales alone, amounted $598.88 and after certain expense deductions were made, $4879.99 was sent to the general accounting office. So you see, he said, business is quite good at "Sam's Shop".

Ashville
Herman and Mrs. Berger out in Walnut Township near what we have always known as the "Noecker Gravel Bank", have in egg production now, a very fine flock of White Rock and White Leghorn pullets, a few hundred of them. Several crates of select eggs are sent out each week (30 dozen to a crate) to a Capital City hatchery at a premium price. The hatchery receiving these eggs operates throughout the entire year with no seasonal shutdowns.

Ashville
The local Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist Church is extra well pleased with the success they had with their recent chicken pie supper. The number of meals served was at the 450 mark and the net receipts very satisfactory.

Ashville
Clementine Gloyd a teacher in the Obetz schools and who has been confined to her home and bed at Duval for some time, was removed to Mt. Carmel Hospital by the Schlegel ambulance Saturday. And yesterday Mrs. Ralph Stevenson was removed from her home near Ashville, to Grant Hospital. . . . Roland McCrillis and wife of Norwalk were from Thursday to Sunday guests at the home of Mrs. Blanche Morrison on East Main Street. . . . Robert is a new addition to the Ashville Cloud family born away up in Maine a few days ago, the son of Dr. Samuel and Mrs. Cloud whose home is in New York City. The doctor is employed at the New York State Hospital, a former high school lad here, and in addition private "secretary" at the print shop for a long while. . . . Both the village council and joint high school board will be in session this evening. . . . The broken window glass at the Odd Fellows' building is being replaced with a new one. . . . The second story of this building is now being used as a play room for the children in charge of Mrs. George Nance and Ray Leonard.

Ashville
About 25 members of the Homecraft Club took supper with the ladies of the M. E. Church at Ashville. Later a meeting was held at the E. F. Schlegel Home Shop where they were entertained by a talk and round table discussion led by Roland McCrillis of Norwalk, Ohio about wood gluing.

On The Air

MONDAY

7:00 Fred Waring, WLW; Ray Kinney, KDKA.
7:30 Blondie, WBNS; Larry Clinton, WTAM.
8:00 Sherlock Holmes, KDKA; Tony Martin, WBNS.
8:30 Richard Crooks, WLW; True or False, KDKA; Tom Howard and George Shelton, WKCY.
9:00 Radio Theatre, WBNS; Doctor I. Q. WLW.
9:30 Alec Templeton, WLW; Youth in Crisis, WSAI.
10:00 Guy Lombardo, WBNS; Gene and Glenn, WEZ.
10:30 Larry Clinton, WLW.
Later: 11:30, Sammy Kaye, WJZ; 11:30, Sammy Kaye, WBNS; Abe Lyman, KDKA; 12:30, Louis Armstrong, WHAS; Benny Goodman, WKRC.

TUESDAY

6:15 Bill McCune, WGN.
7:00 Fred Waring, WLW; Easy Aces, WSAI.
7:30 Helen Menken, WBNS.
8:00 Edward Robinson, Ona Munson, WBNS; Johnny Green, WLW.
8:30 Information Please, KDKA; Walter O'Keefe, WBNS.
9:00 Gabriel Heatter, WBNS; Frank Crumit, WLW.
9:30 Fibber McGee, WLW; Bob Crosby, WBNS.
10:00 Bob Hope, WLW; Sammy Kaye, WBNS.
Later: 10:30, Judith Allen, WHIO; Ben Feld, KMOX; 11:30, Martin Dies, WKRC; 11:30, Richard Himber, WSM; Paul Whiteman, WHIO; Bernie Cummins, WLW; 12:30, Jan Savitt, WSB; Pancho, WLW.

LAUGHTON BOOKED

Charles Laughton, the picture horror man and ace character actor, is to be guest star on Walter O'Keefe's Tuesday Night Party, Nov. 21, 8:30 p. m. over the Columbia Broadcasting System.

Laughton and Mary Martin will exchange Hollywood banter while Bobby Dolan's orchestra will provide the musical background.

MADELINE CARROLL

Resuming last season's guest star policy for one night only, Bob Hope will present Madeline Carroll, as guest star on the program Tuesday 10 p. m. over the NBC-Red network. Hope has been saying so many complimentary things about Miss Carroll on his weekly show that she decided to pay him a visit by way of reciprocation. Skinnay Ennis will play "O'Johnny."

PETER ARNO TO GUEST

Peter Arno, one of America's best loved cartoonists and current swain of the glamorous Brenda Frazier, will bust a few gags with Milton Berle on Stop Me If You've Heard This One Saturday, Nov. 25, 8:30 p. m. over the NBC-Red network. Arno says this is the first time he's ever attempted to provide the payoff on a gag. Usually, he has to give the payoff substance in the form of line of caricature. Jay C. Flippen and Harry Hershfield will be heard with a band yet to be selected.

BOB CROSBY

Something old, something new, something borrowed and something blue will be set to music by Bob Crosby and his band on the Dixie Song Shop program Tuesday 9:30 p. m. CBS, when they swing "It Had To Be You," (an oldie) and "I Didn't Know What Time It Was," (a recent song) with vocals by Hetten Ward. Crosby's solo will be "South of the Border," and the band will borrow from Georgia Tech when the jive "Ramblin' Wreck from Georgia Tech." The something blue will be "Dixieland One Step," played by the ensemble. "In a Little Spanish Town" is the Bobcat selection.

POLICE SEEK KIDNAPERS OF COLUMBUS CITIZEN

COLUMBUS, Nov. 20—Police today sought two youths who reportedly abducted James J. Swisher, of Columbus, and left him blindfolded on a lonely road near the city after robbing him of $40 and a watch.

Swisher told officers he was walking when a man stepped from an auto and forced him into the car at the point of a revolver. The robber and a companion then took Swisher outside the city and took away his belongings.

LEATHER INDUSTRY HIT
YOUNGSTOWN, O. — While many commodities have enjoyed a ready market and higher prices since the start of the European war, the leather industry has suffered a severe setback, according to Victor G. Lombard, president of the Ohio Leather Co., Girard, Ohio.

THEATRES

AT THE CLIFTONA

JAMES STEWART plays the title role in Frank Capra's stirring new romantic comedy, Columbia's "Mr. Smith Goes to Washington." Jean Arthur is also starred in the film, which is now showing at the Cliftona Theatre.

WILLIAMSPORT

By Carolyn Bochar

Mrs. Ethel McKinley was elected Worthy Matron of Heber Chapter, No. 62, Order of the Eastern Star, at the regular meeting, Thursday evening, November 9th. Her associate will be Thomas McKinley, who was elected Worthy Patron. The other officers chosen to serve with Mrs. McKinley include: Mrs. Marvene Rihl, Associate Matron; Charles Carter, Associate Patron; Mrs. Tammie Marcy, Secretary; Mrs. Myrtle Campbell, Treasurer; Mrs. Ida Ware, Conductress; Mrs. Wanda Carpenter, Associate Conductress; and Mrs. Charles Hammack, Trustee. The other officers will be appointed by Mrs. McKinley. The Worthy Matron-elect announced that the installation of officers will be held at the regular meeting, Thursday evening, December 14th.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Baird and sons of Frankfort; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bell and daughter, Carolyn Kay, of Circleville, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baird, Sunday.

Miss Rosemary Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clark, and a Junior in the Williamsport High School won the Prince of Peace Declamation Contest, Sunday evening, at the Methodist Church. Her winning oration was, "Testimony of Youth". The other contestants were: Misses Virginia Buskirk, Nellie Brown and Letitia Gamble. Miss Clark will compete in the County Contest to be held early in December. Music for the occasion was several numbers by a mixed quartette composed of Misses Margaret Smith, Marjorie Heiskell, Mary Alice Luellen and Virginia Puffinbarger; Lyle Miner, Orville West, Ralph Carter and Charles Dreisbach.

The regular meeting of the Sorosis Club will be held at the home of Mrs. William Schleich, Monday evening, November 20th. Mrs. William D. Radcliff will be program leader of the evening.

The Deer Creek Garden Club will meet Wednesday afternoon, November 29, at the Parish House. Miss Lena Schein will be the program leader, her subject being, "The Care of House Plants."

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond French of Knightstown, Indiana, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Lee Luellen and Miss Mary Alice Luellen.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Smith of near Williamsport entertained with a game supper at their home, recently. Their guests included: Mrs. C. O. Smith of Williamsport; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence McAbee and son, Richard of near Circleville; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith and sons of Mt. Sterling; Mr. and Mrs. Quinn Clark and family of Washington, C. H.; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Steinhauer and son, Don Wendell, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith of Chillicothe; and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Steinhauer and family of Clarksville, Ind.

Mrs. Ella Hornbeck of Circleville is visiting with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Hunsicker.

Continuous Shows Daily

GRAND
CIRCLEVILLE, OHIO

TODAY-TUES.

SHOULD A QUEEN BE DEPRIVED OF LOVE?

Bette DAVIS
Errol FLYNN
THE PRIVATE LIVES OF

ELIZABETH
AND ESSEX

IN TECHNICOLOR
WARNER BROS. PICTURE
OLIVIA DEHAVILLAND
DONALD CRISP · ALAN HALE · VINCENT PRICE

MICKEY'S IN LOVE
ANDY HARDY
GETS Spring Fever

HIT NO. 2
ROY ROGERS
"Frontier Pony Express"

TOMORROW!
FAST AND LOOSE
With
ROBERT MONTGOMERY
ROSALIND RUSSELL
HIT NO. 2
KEN MAYNARD
"Phantom Thunderbolt"

More puffs per pack...and

More Mildness, Coolness, and Flavor with Slower-Burning Camels

The costlier tobaccos are slower-burning...milder...cooler...mellower

MANY a smoker has switched to Camels because his value-sense applauded the thrift of getting more puffs per pack. But...

That's only one small part of the story of slow burning. You get a lot more than savings!

You get extra mildness! Common sense tells you that a fast, fiery, hot-burning cigarette will not smoke comfortably or yield a delicate taste and fragrance. And that slow-burning tobaccos naturally would be mild and mellow.

You get extra coolness. You needn't be a scientist to know that the slower tobacco burns, the cooler the smoking.

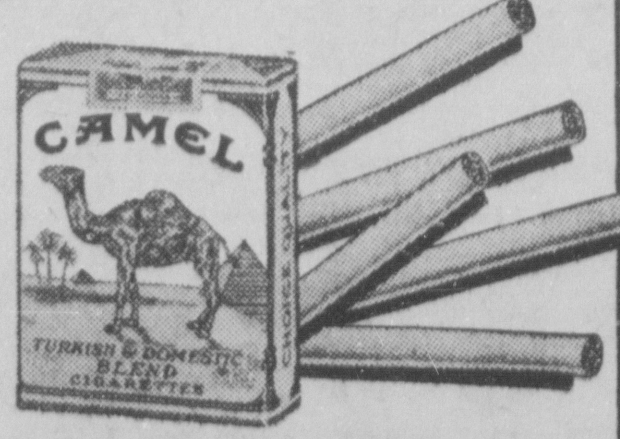

You get extra-fine flavor. Excess heat ruthlessly destroys the subtle elements of flavor and aroma. Slow-burning Camels tell their own taste-tale! So...for thrift and for a smoking thrill...light up a slow-burning Camel!

For More Mildness, Coolness, and Flavor

Camels
SLOW-BURNING
COSTLIER TOBACCOS

By burning 25% slower than the average of the 15 other of the largest-selling brands tested—slower than any of them—CAMELS give a smoking plus equal to

5 EXTRA SMOKES PER PACK!

SMOKERS: SAVE THE COST OF THE STATE CIGARETTE TAX

Smokers who live in communities where certain state cigarette taxes are in effect can save the cost of the tax—and, in some instances, more—through smoking Camels. (See right.) When you are a Camel smoker, you get this unique economy—and all the extra enjoyment of cooler, milder smoking—the fragrance and delicate taste of finer, more costly tobaccos.

CLIFTONA TONITE TUESDAY

THE GREATEST OF ALL CAPRA HITS
Mr. Smith Goes To Washington

ARTHUR STUART
WILL CLAUDE RAINS · EDWARD ARNOLD · GAY KIRBY · THOMAS MITCHELL · BRUCE KENNEDY · FRANK LAYLA · STANLEY DONOVAN · DON TOWNSEND · J. CALVERT · PETER

PLUS SHORTS

WED. & THURS.

CONTINUOUS SHOWS THANKSGIVING

Housekeeper's Daughter
COMING SUNDAY
DOROTHY LAMOUR
'Disputed Passage'

so Easy to serve

BUY THE SIX-BOTTLE CARTON 25¢ Plus deposit

Coca-Cola

Circleville Coca-Cola Bottling Works
713 SOUTH SCRITO STREET

DR. M'DONALD SEEN AS LIKELY O.S.U. PRESIDENT

Brooklyn Educator Has
Inside Track, Believe
Ohio Observers

MERCER COUNTY NATIVE

Service With Harvard, Indiana
And Radcliff Boasts
Chance For Post

COLUMBUS, Nov. 20 — Dr. James Grover McDonald, 53 of the Brooklyn Institute of Fine Arts and Sciences, today was considered to have more than an even chance of being named president of Ohio State University—a position that has been vacant since the retirement in June, 1938, of Dr. George Rightmire, 71.

The belief arose from a conference held yesterday between Dr. McDonald and all members of the board of trustees except Miss Edith Campbell, Cincinnati, chairman. The unheralded meeting was held in Columbus. Dr. McDonald was met by board members while on his way to Cincinnati to fill a speaking engagement tonight before the Wise Center Forum.

It was learned on reliable authority that Dr. McDonald had been unofficially offered the position by several members of the board, and that he had indicated that he would accept if formal offer were made. Such an offer, it was believed, was discussed at yesterday's session.

Native of Ohio

Dr. McDonald is a native of Ohio, having been born in Coldwater, Mercer County. He was graduated from Indiana University in 1909, later studied at Harvard, and has honorary degrees from Tufts College and the Hebrew Union College.

He has served on the faculties of Harvard, Indiana and Radcliff College, and for 14 years was chairman of the Foreign Policy Association. He is now honorary chairman. From 1936 to 1938 he was a member of the editorial staff of the New York Times.

The next regular meeting of the board of trustees is scheduled for Dec. 11. The board in the meantime will discuss the candidacy of Dr. Wilson Compton, of George Washington University, and an unnamed "mystery" candidate. However, neither was given much chance to budge Dr. McDonald from his favorite's position.

Appointment Nears

Many observers believed that the new president of Ohio State, one of the nation's largest educational institutions with an enrollment in excess of 13,000, would be named before the next regular meeting. The field was narrowed down to Dr. McDonald, Dr. Compton, and the unnamed mystery man, a board member indicated.

Among those who were offered the position and who refused it were Dr. Arthur H. Compton, the University of Chicago's noted physicist and Nobel prize winner, and Paul V. McNutt, possible Democratic presidential candidate in 1940. Since the resignation of Dr. Rightmire, Dr. William McPherson, president emeritus of the graduate school, has been acting president of the university.

GREETING TELEGRAMS TO BE SENT ON TWO DAYS

Confronted with the problem of whether to deliver Thanksgiving Greeting telegrams on November 23 or 30, the Western Union Telegraph Company has decided to observe both days in so far as these telegrams are concerned. Greetings filed before and on November 23 will be delivered on that day, and those filed afterwards will be delivered on November 30, it was announced today by C. W. Clark, local manager of the telegraph company.

"Senders of Thanksgiving Greeting telegrams may specify the date they wish delivery made," Mr. Clark said. "We have a list of the states observing each date and are prepared to aid senders in choosing the day for delivery, but if no date is indicated we will be guided by the time the greeting is filed."

YOUR
AGED
FATHER OR MOTHER
WOULD HAVE A 'PHONE!

There Were Five, But Now—

THERE were five members in the Nick Larsen family of Racine, Wis. Now there are two, Mrs. Larsen and four-year-old Donald. Fire destroyed the Larsen cottage northwest of Racine, resulting in the death of the husband and two daughters. Donald escaped from the house. Mrs. Larsen was at a card party at the time.

STRAY SHOT SERIOUSLY INJURES AGED GARDNER

CINCINNATI, Nov. 20—Struck by a stray bullet as he worked in his rose garden, William J. Wunderlich, 75-year-old retired mail carrier, was in serious condition today. The bullet struck Wunderlich in the right shoulder. Police were unable to locate the source of the shot.

Belgium is the most densely populated country in Europe.

LAW FROWNS ON PITCHING WIFE OUT OF WINDOW

COLUMBUS, Nov. 20—Accused of throwing his estranged wife out of a second-floor window to the pavement, Harold Lyons, 35, was held in city prison today on an assault to kill charge filed by a friend of the victim. He was returned to Columbus following his arrest in Springfield.

Lyons was sentenced to 60 days in the workhouse in August for beating his wife, police said, and was released on condition that he stay away from her. This time he is accused with invading the bedroom of Mary Curry, with whom his wife was staying, and throwing his wife out of the window when she refused to leave with him. Then, Miss Curry said, he picked her from the pavement and drove off with her.

The wife, Mrs. Alice Jane Lyons, who has filed suit for divorce, was treated at St. Francis Hospital for severe head and body lacerations. Lyons denied that he threw his wife out the window, asserting she fell out when she stumbled over a chair.

ANNA M. DULSKY FUNERAL SERVICE HELD SUNDAY

Funeral services were held Sunday in Columbus for Mrs. Anna M. Donsky Dulsky, 70, former resident of Circleville, who died Sunday of a heart ailment in Grant Hospital.

Mrs. Dulsky was the wife of Max Dulsky. She was born in Poland and came to the United States in 1890. She moved to Columbus from Circleville in 1916.

Besides her husband she is survived by four sons, Joseph M. Harry, David and Isaac; two daughters, Bertha and Zelda; one grandson and a brother, Samuel Donsky, Cleveland.

ATLANTA

By Margaret Ellen Evans

The Atlanta Parent-Teacher Association met Thursday evening in the High School auditorium with approximately 150 members and visitors for this third regular meeting. Mrs. William Skinner, president, was in charge of the business session which preceded the program. At this time two committees were appointed by Mrs. Skinner to make plans for raising money, with Leslie Canup and O. C. Creighton as chairmen. The secretary and treasurer reports were read by the secretary, Miss

Phyllis Ater, and accepted and approved. Following the business, a very interesting program was presented by the program committee with Mrs. Leslie Canup as chairman, Miss Helen Hatfield and Charles Drake. The guest speaker was Prof. Glenn Drummond of the Department of Education at O. S. U., Columbus. In his splendid address Mr. Drummond stressed the importance of educating our children for citizenship; that is, teaching them the things that they can use after they have finished their school education. Other numbers on the program were: Hymn, "Come Thou Almighty King," audience; prayer, Mrs. Daisy Stinson; piano solo, "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia," Marilyn Drake; vocal duet, "Thanksgiving Day," Rita Jean Ater and Ann Betts; reading, Norma Albright; piano duet, "Poet and Peasant Overture," Mrs. Cecil Vanzant and Mrs. Lawrence Black of Washington C. H.; song, "The Old Mill Road," triple trio; address, Prof. Drummond; piano duet, "Dream Waltz," Mrs. Vanzant and Mrs. Black; and song, "America The Beautiful," audience.

Following the program seasonable refreshments were served by the food committee comprised of Mrs. Harmon Ater, chairman, Mrs. Bessie Barker, Mrs. Isaac Sells, Mrs. Daisy Cupp, Mrs. Vivian Brooks, Mrs. Mary George and Mrs. Chloe Livesay.

WARM WEATHER IS TO FOLLOW MONDAY'S RAIN

Rain and cooler temperatures Monday are to be followed by fair skies and rising temperatures Tuesday, the state weather bureau predicts.

Rainfall in the 24 hours preceding 8 a. m. Monday amounted to only .1 of an inch boosting the total for the month to date to .38 of an inch. Normal for the month is approximately three inches.

Highest temperatures recorded Sunday was 57 degrees. Lowest in the night was 35 degrees.

the expert's choice FOR A MAN'S CHRISTMAS

CONTEMPO

RELATED FASHIONS

BY
WILSON BROTHERS

If you have the luck . . . or the genius . . . always to choose the right gift, you needn't read this ad. But failing this talent, we think you'll more than welcome the choice of leading fashion experts in CONTEMPO RELATED GIFTS.

The groups have all been pre-planned . . . shirts, ties, socks and other smart small essentials . . . perfectly related each to the other. Choose an entire related group for the man who rates a real gift . . . or have the family or friends get together in giving a group . . . and pro-rate the cost.

This page shows only a few suggestions. Ask for our booklet "WHAT TO GIVE WITH WHAT" . . . it will show you, in full color, the experts' entire choice of fashion fool-proof gifts for men.

"Fashion is smiling on rougher suitings. If the object of your affection goes in for tweeds, you'll find a CONTEMPO group which will meet with his wholehearted approval. And we haven't forgotten conservative Uncle Bill who prefers quiet things, 'tho he has a penchant for bold neckties now and then.

The SHIRT—a fine three-tone stripe on blue broadcloth, $2.00.

The TIE—larger figured design that takes its pattern from the well known and very much liked tie-and-dye designs of the English foulards. In this somewhat exaggerated size, it has a combination of classic design and new effectiveness. $1.00.

ALTERNATE TIE—a satin diagonal stripe in harmonizing blue with contrast coloring. $1.00.

The HANDKERCHIEF—white center with an unusual new basket weave nub border. 50c. This group of accessories also comes in blue and green, in addition to the wine illustrated.

SOCKS—buffer mercerized cotton with rayon and silk. Clocking is silk. 50c.

GLOVES—fine rich hazel color pecary pigskin glove, featuring Sidewal tri-dimension construction with a con tour thumb. This glove is not only extremely smart, but features a new, modern method of glove cutting. $5.

ONLY 5 MORE DAYS TO PURCHASE ONE TIRE AT LIST PRICE AND
SAVE 50%
ON THE NEXT ONE!

Famous
Firestone
STANDARD TIRES
At These History-Making Low Prices

Buy now! Enjoy new tires and new tire safety for winter driving. Every tire bears the FIRESTONE NAME and is backed by the FIRESTONE GUARANTEE. During this sale you get a genuine Firestone Gum-Dipped Fire built with Firestone patented safety features for as little as . . .

$3.85
AND YOUR OLD TIRE
UNDER THIS PLAN

LIFETIME GUARANTEE
NO TIME OR MILEAGE LIMIT

BUY THE FIRST TIRE
AT LIST PRICE AND-GET
1/2
OFF
ON THE NEXT ONE

Firestone STANDARD
SIZE	Price For The 1st Tire	Next Tire 50% Discount	Price For 2 Tires	YOU SAVE
4.40-21	$ 7.70	$ 3.85	$11.55	$3.85
4.50-21	7.85	3.93	11.78	3.93
4.75-19	5.00-19	2.50	7.50	2.50
4.50-20	8.20	4.10	12.30	4.10
5.00-20	9.60	4.80	14.40	4.80
5.25-17	9.15	4.58	13.73	4.58
5.25-18	10.45	5.23	15.68	5.23
5.50-18
6.00-16

Above Prices Include Your Old Tire—Other Sizes Proportionately Low.

BUY TIRES NOW AND SAVE!
Sale Ends Saturday, Nov. 25
Prices Slashed on all Other Firestone Tires

Firestone
AUTO SUPPLY & SERVICE STORES
147 W. Main St. — Circleville, O. — Phone 410

I. W. KINSEY
125 N. Court St. MEN'S SHOP Circleville, O.

DR. M'DONALD SEEN AS LIKELY O.S.U. PRESIDENT

Brooklyn Educator Has
Inside Track, Believe
Ohio Observers

MERCER COUNTY NATIVE

Service With Harvard, Indiana
And Radcliff Boasts
Chance For Post

COLUMBUS, Nov. 20 — Dr. James Grover McDonald, 53 of the Brooklyn Institute of Fine Arts and Sciences, today was considered to have more than an even chance of being named president of Ohio State University—a position that has been vacant since the retirement in June, 1938, of Dr. George Rightmire, 71.

The belief arose from a conference held yesterday between Dr. McDonald and all members of the board of trustees except Miss Edith Campbell, Cincinnati, chairman. The unheralded meeting was held in Columbus. Dr. McDonald was met by board members while on his way to Cincinnati to fill a speaking engagement tonight before the Wise Center Forum.

It was learned on reliable authority that Dr. McDonald had been unofficially offered the position by several members of the board, and that he had indicated that he would accept if formal offer were made. Such an offer, it was believed, was discussed at yesterday's session.

Native of Ohio

Dr. McDonald is a native of Ohio, having been born in Coldwater, Mercer County. He was graduated from Indiana University in 1909, later studied at Harvard, and has honorary degrees from Tufts College and the Hebrew Union College.

He has served on the faculties of Harvard, Indiana and Radcliff College, and for 14 years was chairman of the Foreign Policy Association. He is now honorary chairman. From 1936 to 1938 he was a member of the editorial staff of the New York Times.

The next regular meeting of the board of trustees is scheduled for Dec. 11. The board in the meantime will discuss the candidacy of Dr. Wilson Compton, of George Washington University, and an unnamed "mystery" candidate. However, neither was given much chance to budge Dr. McDonald from his favorite's position.

Appointment Nears

Many observers believed that the new president of Ohio State, one of the nation's largest educational institutions with an enrollment in excess of 13,000, would be named before the next regular meeting. The field was narrowed down to Dr. McDonald, Dr. Compton, and the unnamed mystery man, a board member indicated.

Among those who were offered the position and who refused it were Dr. Arthur H. Compton, the University of Chicago's noted physicist and Nobel prize winner, and Paul V. McNutt, possible Democratic presidential candidate in 1940. Since the resignation of Dr. Rightmire, Dr. William McPherson, president emeritus of the graduate school, has been acting president of the university.

GREETING TELEGRAMS TO BE SENT ON TWO DAYS

Confronted with the problem of whether to deliver Thanksgiving Greeting telegrams on November 23 or 30, the Western Union Telegraph Company has decided to observe both days in so far as these telegrams are concerned. Greetings filed before and on November 23 will be delivered on that day, and those filed afterwards will be delivered on November 30, it was announced today by C. W. Clark, local manager of the telegraph company.

"Senders of Thanksgiving Greeting telegrams may specify the date they wish delivery made," Mr. Clark said. "We have a list of the states observing each date and are prepared to aid senders in choosing the day for delivery, but if no date is indicated we will be guided by the time the greeting is filed."

●

YOUR AGED
FATHER OR MOTHER
WOULD HAVE A 'PHONE!

●

There Were Five, But Now—

THERE were five members in the Nick Larsen family of Racine, Wis. Now there are two, Mrs. Larsen and four-year-old Donald. Fire destroyed the Larsen cottage northwest of Racine, resulting in the death of the husband and two daughters. Donald escaped from the house. Mrs. Larsen was at a card party at the time.

STRAY SHOT SERIOUSLY INJURES AGED GARDNER

CINCINNATI, Nov. 20—Struck by a stray bullet as he worked in his rose garden, William J. Wunderlich, 75-year-old retired mail carrier, was in serious condition today. The bullet struck Wunderlich in the right shoulder. Police were unable to locate the source of the shot.

Belgium is the most densely populated country in Europe.

LAW FROWNS ON PITCHING WIFE OUT OF WINDOW

COLUMBUS, Nov. 20—Accused of throwing his estranged wife out of a second-floor window to the pavement, Harold Lyons, 35, was held in city prison today on an assault to kill charge filed by a friend of the victim. He was returned to Columbus following his arrest in Springfield.

Lyons was sentenced to 60 days in the workhouse in August for beating his wife, police said, and was released on condition that he stay away from her. This time he is accused with invading the bedroom of Mary Curry, with whom his wife was staying, and throwing his wife out of the window when she refused to leave with him. Then, Miss Curry said, he picked her from the pavement and drove off with her.

The wife, Mrs. Alice Jane Lyons, who has filed suit for divorce, was treated at St. Francis Hospital for severe head and body lacerations.

Lyons denied that he threw his wife out the window, asserting she fell out when she stumbled over a chair.

ANNA M. DULSKY FUNERAL SERVICE HELD SUNDAY

Funeral services were held Sunday in Columbus for Mrs. Anna M. Donsky Dulskey, 70, former resident of Circleville, who died Sunday of a heart ailment in Grant Hospital.

Mrs. Dulskey was the wife of Max Dulskey. She was born in Poland and came to the United States in 1890. She moved to Columbus from Circleville in 1916.

Besides her husband she is survived by four sons, Joseph M., Harry, David and Isaac; two daughters, Bertha and Zella; one grandson and a brother, Samuel Donsky, Cleveland.

ATLANTA

By Margaret Ellen Evans

The Atlanta Parent-Teacher Association met Thursday evening in the High School auditorium with approximately 150 members and visitors for this third regular meeting. Mrs. William Skinner, president, was in charge of the business session which preceded the program. At this time two committees were appointed by Mrs. Skinner to make plans for raising money, with Leslie Canup and O. C. Creighton as chairmen. The secretary and treasurer reports were read by the secretary, Miss

Phyllis Ater, and accepted and approved. Following the business, a very interesting program was presented by the program committee with Mrs. Leslie Canup as chairman, Miss Helen Hatfield and Charles Drake. The guest speaker was Prof. Glenn Drummond of the Department of Education at O. S. U., Columbus. In his splendid address Mr. Drummond stressed the importance of educating our children for citizenship; that is, teaching them the things that they can use after they have finished their school education. Other numbers on the program were: Hymn, "Come Thou Almighty King," audience; prayer, Mrs. Daisy Stinson; piano solo, "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia," Marilyn Drake; vocal duet, "Thanksgiving Day," Rita Jean Ater and Ann Betts; reading, Norma Albright; piano duet, "Poet and Peasant Overture," Mrs. Cecil Vanzant and Mrs. Lawrence Black of Washington C. H.; song, "The Old Mill Road," triple trio; address, Prof. Drummond; piano duet, "Dream Waltz," Mrs. Vanzant and Mrs. Black; and song, "America The Beautiful," audience.

Following the program seasonable refreshments were served by the food committee comprised of Mrs. Harmon Ater, chairman, Mrs. Bessie Barker, Mrs. Isaac Sells, Mrs. Daisy Cupp, Mrs. Vivian Brooks, Mrs. Mary George and Mrs. Chloe Livesay.

WARM WEATHER IS TO FOLLOW MONDAY'S RAIN

Rain and cooler temperatures Monday are to be followed by fair skies and rising temperatures Tuesday, the state weather bureau predicts.

Rainfall in the 24 hours preceding 8 a. m. Monday amounted to only .1 of an inch boosting the total for the month to date to .38 of an inch. Normal for the month is approximately three inches.

Highest temperatures recorded Sunday was 57 degrees. Lowest in the night was 35 degrees.

the expert's choice FOR A MAN'S CHRISTMAS

CONTEMPO

RELATED FASHIONS

BY

WILSON BROTHERS

If you have the luck . . . or the genius . . . always to choose the right gift, you needn't read this ad. But failing this talent, we think you'll more than welcome the choice of leading fashion experts in CONTEMPO RELATED GIFTS.

The groups have all been pre-planned . . . shirts, ties, socks and other smart small essentials . . . perfectly related each to the other. Choose an entire related group for the man who rates a real gift . . . or have the family or friends get together in giving a group . . . and pro-rate the cost.

This page shows only a few suggestions. Ask for our booklet "WHAT TO GIVE WITH WHAT" . . . it will show you, in full color, the experts' entire choice of fashion fool-proof gifts for men.

"Fashion is smiling on rougher suitings. If the object of your affection goes in for tweeds, you'll find a CONTEMPO group which will meet with his wholehearted approval. And we haven't forgotten conservative Uncle Bill who prefers quiet things, 'tho he has a penchant for bold neckties now and then.

The SHIRT—a fine three-tone stripe on blue broadcloth, $2.00.

The TIE—larger figured design that takes its pattern from the well known and very much liked tie-and-dye designs of the English foulards. In this somewhat exaggerated size, it has a combination of classic design and new effectiveness. $1.00.

ALTERNATE TIE—a satin diagonal stripe in harmonizing blue with contrast coloring. $1.00.

The HANDKERCHIEF—white center with an unusual new basket weave nub border. 50c.

This group of accessories also comes in blue and green, in addition to the wine illustrated.

SOCKS—buffer mercerized cotton with rayon and silk. Clocking is silk. 50c.

GLOVES—fine rich hazel color peccary pigskin glove, featuring Sidewal tri-dimension construction with a con tour thumb. This glove is not only extremely smart, but features a new, modern method of glove cutting. $5.

I. W. KINSEY

125 N. Court St.

MEN'S SHOP

Circleville, O.

ONLY 5 MORE DAYS TO

PURCHASE ONE TIRE AT LIST PRICE AND

SAVE 50%

ON THE NEXT ONE!

Famous
Firestone
STANDARD TIRES

At These History-Making Low Prices

Buy now! Enjoy new tires and new tire safety for winter driving. Every tire bears the FIRESTONE NAME and is backed by the FIRESTONE GUARANTEE. During this sale you get a genuine Firestone Gum-Dipped tire built with Firestone patented safety features for as little as . . .

$3.85

AND YOUR OLD TIRE UNDER THIS PLAN

LIFETIME GUARANTEE
• NO TIME OR MILEAGE LIMIT

Firestone STANDARD
SIZE	Price For The 1st Tire	Next Tire 50% Discount	Price For 2 Tires	YOU SAVE
4.40-21 / 4.50-21	$ 7.70	$ 3.85	$11.55	$3.85
4.75-19	7.85	3.93	11.78	3.93
5.00-19	8.20	4.10	12.30	4.10
5.00-20	9.60	4.80	14.40	4.80
5.25-17	9.15	4.58	13.73	4.58
5.25-18	10.45	5.23	15.68	5.23
5.50-16

Above Prices Include Your Old Tire—Other Sizes Proportionately Low.

BUY TIRES NOW AND SAVE!

Sale Ends Saturday, Nov. 25

Prices Slashed on all Other Firestone Tires

Firestone

AUTO SUPPLY & SERVICE STORES

147 W. Main St. — Circleville, O. — Phone 410

FIRST PHASE OF SUB WAR FAILS, BRITAIN CLAIMS

London Says Germans Now Indiscriminately Plant Explosives In Sea

(Continued from Page One)

care nothing for neutrals and less for humanity."

Tomorrow will mark the 21st anniversary of the surrender of the German fleet in the last war. The eighth vessel in the week end list to go down was a French steamer of unknown tonnage. Previously, the loss of another British ship was disclosed when four surviving members of the crew of 13 of the British Collier Torchbearer were landed at an English port.

Authorities said the Torchbearer, a ship of 1,267 tons, was mined off the east coast of England over the week end. The vessel was registered in London and owned by the British Gas, Light and Coke Co. It was built in 1929.

French Ship Sunk

It was learned that the eighth ship to go down over the week end was a French vessel. It also sank off the English east coast as the result of striking a mine. Its name was not given.

Two other unidentified vessels were damaged by mines.

Four of the other sinkings occurred in the same region where the Netherlands liner Simon Bolivar was sunk with a loss of at least 106 lives on Saturday.

Shortly before noon today, on the basis of latest available information, authorities said they feared at least 200 persons had been killed as a result of the sinking caused by floating mines. Authorities blamed the losses of the ships, including the Simon Bolivar on German mines.

Denial By Berlin

(In Berlin, the German high command stated that careful investigation of the Simon Bolivar's position and other circumstances of its destruction proved it was impossible that a German mine sank the Netherlands liner.)

Other vessels to go down after striking mines were:

1-The 5,857-ton Italian vessel Grazia, out of Genoa.

2-The 6,371-ton Yugoslavian freighter Carica Milica, registered at Dobrovnik.

3-The 1,586-ton Swedish freighter B. O. Borjesson, out of Halsinborg.

4-The 2,492-ton British vessel Blackhill, operated by the Consett Iron Company of London.

5-The 1,521-ton Lithuanian freighter Kaunas, sunk off the Netherlands coast with the loss of one seaman.

Only one of the sunken ships, the Blackhill, belonged to a belligerent.

Sixty-six survivors were picked up by British vessels and taken to English ports, many suffering from injuries and exposure. Loss of the Grazia marked the first sinking of an Italian ship in the war.

The Grazia went down seven miles off the eastern English coast with a reported loss of 21 lives. Five crew members were killed by the explosion and 16 others were missing and believed dead. Seven members of the B. O. Borjesson's crew also were missing while 15 others were picked up by fishing trawlers after clinging to a raft for three hours. No loss of life was reported aboard the Blackhill.

Survivors Rescued

Twenty-nine of the Grazia's survivors were rescued by British fishermen who rowed out in large lifeboats. No details of the sinking of the Carica Milica were given in an admiralty announcement, which stated:

"The B. O. Borjesson, the Blackhill and Grazia were sunk off the east coast by German mines under circumstances similar to those which surrounded the sinkings of the Simon Bolivar and the Carica Milica."

British naval authorities charged that the Germans, unable to cripple allied shipping by submarine attacks, are attempting to achieve this objective by a "mine blockade."

They declared that Britain will undertake a gigantic campaign to clear vital waterways of floating mines to prevent a recurrence of such sinkings.

Sub Sinking Reported

Meanwhile, an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Paris said a French survey ship was reported to have sunk a German submarine.

According to the report, the official Navy Gazette cited the commander of the 719-ton French survey ship Admiral Mouchez for "his quickness of decision and perseverance in carrying out a night counter-attack which in all probability destroyed an enemy submarine."

Mainly About People

ONE MINUTE PULPIT

A man's pride shall bring him low; but honour shall uphold the humble in spirit. — Proverbs 29:23.

Bishop Given, Earl Smith and Elmer Howard returned Saturday night from a week's duck hunting trip to Reelfoot Lake, Tenn. They reported fair luck.

Edwin Strawser, 34, 619 Elm Avenue, was admitted to Berger Hospital Saturday for medical treatment.

The rehearsal of the choir of the Methodist Church planned for Tuesday has been postponed until Sunday at 2 p. m. in the church parlors.

The famous Marble Gloss furniture polish made by G. H. Hoffman of Lancaster, can now be secured by phoning 1176. Mr. Ralph Crist. —ad.

Mrs. B. K. Ludford, Al Fuller and Mrs. Edward Short of Circleville are in Cleveland where they were called by the death of a cousin, E. J. Willis.

All payments on 1939 Xmas Club must be in by Nov. 25. Complete your club and you receive your interest. Circleville Savings & Banking Co. —ad.

Regular meeting of Howard Hall Post, American Legion, will be held Wednesday at 8 p. m. Plans will be completed for Million Dollar Night to be held December 1.

The Nebraska Grange will meet Tuesday at 7:30 p. m. A Thanksgiving program will be presented.

Turkey and chicken shoot at Gold Cliff Park, Tuesday afternoon and night, with special class for amateurs. Heap big turkeys. —ad.

Autos driven by Charles Mowery, Jr., of Circleville R.F.D., and James A. Deever, 2427 Brentwood Road, Bexley, were slightly damaged Saturday in a collision on East Main Street at the first alley east of Court Street. No one was hurt.

The meeting of the Daughters of Union Veterans' Sewing Club has been postponed until Wednesday, December 29, Miss Anna Kirkwood, North Scioto Street, will entertain the group on that day with Mrs. Charles Stofor, assisting.

The Rotary Club is sponsoring a Charity Newsies sale on Wednesday, Nov. 22. Members who will sell are asked to meet at the American Hotel at 8:30 a. m. Proceeds will go to Berger Hospital. —ad.

The Washington Jolly Stitches, 4-H sewing club, entertained members of the Pickaway County Home Sunday afternoon. They presented an entertainment including a play and musical program then treated the inmates with candy and apples. Mrs. Merle Bowman is the club leader.

Inheritance tax on the estate of Harlin G. Guy, Derby, has been established at $2,116 to be paid by 18 persons who share in the estate. The amount of the estate subject to tax is $32,309.94.

FOUR MOTORISTS DRAW FINES IN COURT OF MAYOR

Four motorists were fined in Mayor W. B. Cady's court during the weekend.

Cecil Kneec, 19, Ashville Route 2, was sent to the county jail Monday when he failed to pay a fine of $10 and costs for reckless operation of an auto. Police reported he was driving 60 miles an hour on South Court Street early Sunday.

William Joseph Frame, 20, of 1734 Washington Avenue, Columbus, paid a fine of $25 and costs on a charge of operating an auto with fictitious tags. The arrest was made by the State Highway Patrol.

Two motorists paid $2 each for overtime parking.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY BRINGS PRISON TERM

William Hamilton of Monroe Township was fined $25 and costs by B. T. Hedges, Justice of peace, Monday, on a charge of assault and battery. Hamilton was committed to the county jail when he failed to settle.

Hamilton was arrested Saturday. The charge was filed by Mrs. Mabel Hamilton, his wife.

NAZI WARSHIPS ABOUT RUIN 18 CRAFT FOR U. S.

Pocket Ships Reduce Great Fighters Value To Little More Than Junk

(Continued from Page One)

them obsolete. These 62 vessels are the so-called "heavy treaty cruisers" built as a result of the limitations prescribed at the Washington conference in 1922.

Super Warcraft

In building her pocket battleships, Germany demonstrated to the world that it was possible to build ships no bigger than the treaty cruisers which would outclass them in battle. Since the Deutschland, first pocket battleship, was finished half a dozen years ago, the handwriting has been on the wall for treaty ships.

Japan, Germany, England are said to be building new types of super-cruiser. A few days ago Acting Secretary of the Navy Edison Columbia and Cleveland are being re-designed to conform to the pocket-battleships' lessons.

The treaty cruisers were a queer type and the naval conference from which they emerged was a strange thing. In 1922 when it was called, the United States occupied a pre-eminent naval position. We had approximately a dozen battleships and battlecruisers on the ways, many nearly completed. No foreign navy had more than one or two. Had we completed the ships buildings we must have been the world's greatest naval power for twenty years.

Britain and Japan didn't like this prospect.

When the Harding administration proposed a peace conference in Washington the proposal was eagerly accepted. In spite of the anguished screams of our U. S. naval officers and a large portion of our press, we emerged minus our new ships, while the British and Japs scrapped only obsolete vessels. As a result of that conference the United States sacrificed approximately half a million tons of the finest superdreadnaughts ever constructed, which cost our tax-payers somewhere about 500 million dollars.

After it had been arranged that the United States should destroy these fine new ships, the conference legislated that cruisers in the future should be light and heavy, and that heavy cruisers might displace only 10,000 tons and mount only 8-inch guns.

The pocket battleships brought the doom of the heavy cruiser by mounting 11-inch guns protected behind 5 inch armor on a hull no bigger or more expensive than the treaty cruiser's. 11-inchers are battleship guns. They outrange the treaty-cruiser's 8-inchers by three or four miles. A pocket warship could cut down treaty cruisers as a timber world would cut down Dachshund puppies.

Opinion in the world's naval circles is crystallizing to the effect that the new type cruiser that is coming to take the place of the obsolete treaty type will be a ship of about 20,000 tons displacement, mounting four or six 12-inch guns. Such ships could be given a speed of 32 or 33 knots an hour. They could overhaul either the treaty cruiser or the pocket battleship and neither of these types would have a chance with the new super-cruisers in battle.

(The statements and opinions

MARKETS

CASH quotations made to farmers in Circleville.

Wheat	.....	83
New Yellow Corn	.....	44
New White Corn	.....	54
Soybeans	.....	39

POULTRY

Springers	.....	13
Heavy Hens	.....	12
Leghorn Hens	.....	10
Leghorn Springers	.....	10
Old Roosters	.....	97

CLOSING MARKETS

THE J. W. ESHELMAN & SONS

WHEAT

Open	High	Low	Close
Dec.—88 1/2	89	88 1/2	88 1/2
May—86	86 1/2	85 1/2	85 1/2
July—83 1/2	85	83 1/2	83 1/2

COIN

Open	High	Low	Close
Dec.—50 1/2	50 1/2	50 1/2	50 1/2
May—52 1/2	52 1/2	52 1/2	52 1/2
July—53	53 1/2	52 1/2	52 1/2

GRAIN

Open	High	Low	Close
Dec.—37	37 1/2	37	37 1/2
May—35 1/2	35 1/2	35 1/2	35 1/2
July—31 1/2	32 1/2	31 1/2	32

CLOSING LIVESTOCK MARKET

THE PICKAWAY COUNTY FARM BUREAU

CINCINNATI

RECEIPTS—2,787, steady; Heavy, 250 to 275 lbs., $5.65; Mediums, 225 to 250 lbs., $5.60—200 to 225 lbs., $5.55; Lights, 190 to 225 lbs., $5.50; Pigs, 100 to 180 lbs., $5.00 to $5.50; Cattle, 775, $8.00 to $9.25; Calves, 316, $10.00 to $11.50; Lambs, 155, $2.00 to $3.00.

CHICAGO

RECEIPTS—15,000, steady; Mediums, 150 to 200 lbs., $5.95; Lights, 120 to 150 lbs., $6.00.

T. LOUIS

RECEIPTS—8,000, steady; Mediums, 150 to 200 lbs., $5.95; Lights, 120 to 150 lbs., $6.00.

LOCAL

Heavy—250 to 300 lbs., $5.30—240 to 250 lbs., $5.25—230 to 240 lbs., $5.20; Mediums, 160 to 240 lbs., $5.00; Lights, 140 to 160 lbs., $5.00; Pigs, 100 to 140 lbs., $5.50 to $5.75.

DRIVE AGAINST NUMBERS RACKET STRIKES A SNAG

The campaign of B. T. Hedges, Justice of peace, against the "numbers" racket in Circleville appeared at a standstill Monday.

Three arrests made when the drive was opened last week are the only ones that have been made to date. Two men paid fines of $25 and costs each, and a third is to report for a hearing this week.

"There will probably be some more arrests this week," Mr. Hedges stated Monday. When opening the drive the Justice of peace said he had issued orders to his constable to arrest both numbers writers and those picking up numbers from the writers.

CONCLAVE SUSPENDED

PHILADELPHIA — Europe's war may cause postponement or transfer to some other country of the Lutheran World Convention, scheduled for Philadelphia next May, according to announcement by Dr. Ralph H. Long, Chicago, head of the American convention committee. The Rev. Paul C. Empe, chairman of the Philadelphia committee, said that local plans for the convocation were being suspended. Some 250 official delegates from 28 foreign countries were expected.

herein are the private ones of the writer and are not to be construed as reflecting the views of the navy department or of the naval service in general. Navy regulations.)

10 LB. DRESSED TURKEY

FREE

WITH EVERY $50 PURCHASE

Again we follow our annual custom of being your host on Thanksgiving Day. With every purchase of $50 or more, in any department of our store, we will supply you with a 10 pound turkey for the Holiday feast, with our compliments.

BUY YOUR FURNITURE NEEDS NOW!

CIRCLEVILLE FURNITURE CO.

115 E. Main St. Phone 105

WEEK END SPENT AT HYDE PARK STIRS RUMORS

President Sits Tight And Apparently Intends To Let Public Decide

(Continued from Page One)

of the hope to my good friends of the press, so they may have something to write about, that they give due interpretation to my statement that when we open the building I hope it will be a fine day."

Earlier the President had jibed at political writers who wove 1940 implications into his statement last week that he hoped to be present at the final dedication of the Jefferson memorial in Washington "by January, 1941." Mr. Roosevelt said he deliberately interpolated this remark at the cornerstone laying to get personal amusement from the reactions of columnists and others.

In this connection, nevertheless, it is interesting to note that the Jefferson Memorial contractor is rushing under orders to get work completed by December, 1940. Mr. Roosevelt will be President until January 20, 1941, regardless of whether or not he tosses tradition to the winds and runs for a third term—giving him nineteen days in that possible final month for the dedicatory exercises.

Hints at Retirement

In a number of superbly adroit ways, President Roosevelt seemingly has nurtured the impression he yearns to quit public life and retire to the quiet role of Hyde Park squire.

Best information at the White House was that Mr. Roosevelt would say nothing on the third term subject until the first preferential primary, which falls in normally Republican New Hampshire the second Tuesday of March — and probably would say nothing even then.

The executive will speak at a Jackson Day dinner January 8, just after reassemblage of congress. His remarks there may be provocative, but his intimates predict no definite statement will be forthcoming.

Straws in the wind that point to the President's desire to call it quits after eight years in the White House are several.

Presidential Secretary Stephen T. Early recently administered a mild public spanking—obviously on orders—to Secretary of Agriculture Henry Wallace for endorsing the executive for a third term. Wallace has been mentioned as a presidential possibility himself.

It's going to be a LONG COLD WINTER. Get Ready for it NOW!

WOMEN'S 2-SNAP GALOSHES

Fleece lined. Black or Brown. All Sizes.

79c

MEN'S HEAVY DUTY WORK RUBBERS

84c

Heavy Red Rubber Edged Heel and Sole

MEN'S 4-BUCKLE ARCTICS

Rubber or Cloth Heavy Bumper Edged Sole.

$1.99

WOMEN'S TOE RUBBERS

Moire Finish

59c

YOUTHS' ARCTICS

All Rubber 3-Buckle Dress Weight

Sizes 11 to 2

$1.69

Sizes 2 1/2 to 6 ..... $1.79

MILLER-JONES

SHOES FOR THE FAMILY

112 W. Main St.

NEW DEAL IS JEALOUS OF WAR

(Continued from Page One)

Industry during the European war.

Expansion of the Tennessee Valley authority, a new and enlarged Rural Electrification program, passage of a $350,000,000 Rivers and Harbors bill, which includes big public power developments, a public-private superpower development based upon the St. Lawrence seaway and production of electric power in coal fields, are embraced in the proposed program.

Defeat of the spending bill in the last session, which included huge appropriations for the rural electrification administration, was a bitter dose of administration public power advocates. They are hopeful of reviving the issue in some new spending measure.

Rep. Kent Keller (D) Illinois, has enlisted a number of New Deal officials in a plan to develop public power in coal fields of southern Illinois and perhaps other states. The same group is urging establishments of government munitions plants, using electric power produced by big steam plants, to inaugurate the program.

A program of coordinating public and private utility facilities through a huge super-power network in the east, based upon the St. Lawrence waterways development, was being studied by experts of the national power policy committee. Such a program has been recommended by the New York power authority.

Under the New York program, power would be distributed through private utilities. The more power they used and the cheaper they sold it to the public, the cheaper the government would sell it to them, under this plan.

The attacks of David Lillenthal, of the TVA, on the Alabama Power Company and the reply of the company's president, may be the signal for another congressional battle over efforts to expand the organization in the Tennessee Valley. TVA has been accused by Chairman May (D) of Kentucky, of the House Military Affairs committee, of breaking an implied agreement with congress, when it was authorized to purchase properties of the Tennessee Electric Company. May indicated that he would seek an investigation.

SOVIET PRESS LIES TO YOUTH ON HAPPY LIFE

MOSCOW, Nov. 20—The Soviet press today appealed to the youth of the world "to fight against the second imperialist war" under the red star of Communism, on the twentieth anniversary of the founding of the Communist youth movement.

"Future battles will be led by Communist youths, inspired by Josef Stalin," an editorial stated, adding that the "smashing of all obstacles will lead the young generation to a happy, joyous life."

The appeal was similar to that made to the working classes of Great Britain, France and Germany by the Communist International a few weeks ago.

HOMER AGLER, 71, IS VICTIM OF PNEUMONIA

Homer Agler, 76, died in Berger Hospital at 10 a. m. Sunday of pneumonia. Mr. Agler lived at 114 1/2 West Main Street.

He was born May 13, 1863 in Franklin County, a son of John and Anna Eliza Coe Agler. Mr. Agler had been a resident of Pickaway County for 16 years. He never married.

Surviving are four brothers, Chauncey, Howard, Martin and John, and a sister, Mrs. Ester Parren, all of Franklin County.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday at 10:30 a. m. in the Mader Chapel with the Rev. G. L. Troutman officiating. Burial will be in Forest Cemetery.

THANKSGIVING GREETINGS

By TELEGRAPH

Special Blank & Envelope 25c & 35c Anywhere in U. S.

PHONE WESTERN UNION 36

COMING FRIDAY

another Big

JOHN DEERE DAY

for Farmers

FEATURING

"JOEL GENTRY"

in HOLLYWOOD

AN ALL-HOLLYWOOD PRODUCTION

FRIDAY, NOV. 24

STARTS AT 9:30 A. M.

AND 4 OTHER ALL-TALKING PICTURES

IT'S ALL FREE

And Continues All Day At Our New Store—120 E. Franklin St.

J. B. WORK

Eyes Examined Glasses Fitted

OFFICE Daily 9 to 5, Saturday 9 to 9 Closed all day Thursday.
HOURS: Evenings by Appointment—Phone 448

Dr. D. S. Goldschmidt

121 1/2 W. Main St.
Over J. C. Penney Co. Store
OPTOMETRIST

FIRST PHASE OF SUB WAR FAILS, BRITAIN CLAIMS

London Says Germans Now Indiscriminately Plant Explosives In Sea

(Continued from Page One)

There is nothing for neutrals and less for humanity."

Tomorrow will mark the 21st anniversary of the surrender of the German fleet in the last war. The eighth vessel in the week end list to go down was a French steamer of unknown tonnage. Previously, the loss of another British ship was disclosed when four surviving members of the crew of 13 of the British Collier Torchbearer were landed at an English port.

Authorities said the Torchbearer, a ship of 1,267 tons, was mined off the east coast of England over the week end. The vessel was registered in London and owned by the British Gas, Light and Coke Co. It was built in 1929.

French Ship Sunk

It was learned that the eighth ship to go down over the week end was a French vessel. It also sank off the English east coast as the result of striking a mine. Its name was not given.

Two other unidentified vessels were damaged by mines.

Four of the other sinkings occurred in the same region where the Netherlands liner Simon Bolivar was sunk with a loss of at least 106 lives on Saturday.

Shortly before noon today, on the basis of latest available information, authorities said they feared at least 200 persons had been killed as a result of the sinking caused by floating mines. Authorities blamed the losses of the ships, including the Simon Bolivar on German mines.

Denial By Berlin

(In Berlin, the German high command stated that careful investigation of the Simon Bolivar's position and other circumstances of its destruction proved it was impossible that a German mine sank the Netherlands liner.)

Other vessels to go down after striking mines were:

- 1-The 5,857-ton Italian vessel Grazia, out of Genoa.
- 2-The 6,371-ton Yugoslavian freighter Carica Milica, registered at Dobrovnik.
- 3-The 1,586-ton Swedish freighter B. O. Bjorjesson, out of Helsingborg.
- 4-The 2,492-ton British vessel Blackhill, operated by the Consett Iron Company of London.
- 5-The 1,521-ton Lithuanian freighter Kaunas, sunk off the Netherlands coast with the loss of one seaman.

Only one of the sunken ships, the Blackhill, belonged to a belligerent.

Sixty-six survivors were picked up by British vessels and taken to English ports, many suffering from injuries and exposure. Loss of the Grazia marked the first sinking of an Italian ship in the war.

The Grazia went down seven miles off the eastern English coast with a reported loss of 21 lives. Five crew members were killed by the explosion and 16 others were missing and believed dead. Seven members of the B. O. Bjorjesson's crew also were missing while 15 others were picked up by fishing trawlers after clinging to a raft for three hours. No loss of life was reported aboard the Blackhill.

Survivors Rescued

Twenty-nine of the Grazia's survivors were rescued by British fishermen who rowed out in large lifeboats. No details of the sinking of the Carica Milica were given in an admiralty announcement, which stated:

"The B. O. Bjorjesson, the Blackhill and Grazia were sunk off the east coast by German mines under circumstances similar to those which surrounded the sinkings of the Simon Bolivar and the Carica Milica."

British naval authorities charged that the Germans, unable to cripple allied shipping by submarine attacks, are attempting to achieve this objective by a "mine blockade."

They declared that Britain will undertake a gigantic campaign to clear vital waterways of floating mines to prevent a recurrence of such sinkings.

Sub Sinking Reported

Meanwhile, an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Paris said a French survey ship was reported to have sunk a German submarine.

According to the report, the official Navy Gazette cited the commander of the 719-ton French survey ship Admiral Mouchez for "his quickness of decision and perseverance in carrying out a night counter-attack which in all probability destroyed an enemy submarine."

Mainly About People

ONE MINUTE PULPIT

A man's pride shall bring him low; but honour shall uphold the humble in spirit. — Proverbs 29:23.

Bishop Given, Earl Smith and Elmer Howard returned Saturday night from a week's duck hunting trip to Reelfoot Lake, Tenn. They reported fair luck.

Edwin Strawser, 34, 619 Elm Avenue, was admitted to Berger Hospital Saturday for medical treatment.

The rehearsal of the choir of the Methodist Church planned for Tuesday has been postponed until Sunday at 2 p. m. in the church parlors.

The famous Marble Gloss furniture polish made by G. H. Hoffman of Lancaster, can now be secured by phoning 1176. Mr. Ralph Crist. —ad.

Mrs. B. K. Ludford, Al Fuller and Mrs. Edward Short of Circleville are in Cleveland where they were called by the death of a cousin, E. J. Willis.

All payments on 1939 Xmas Club must be in by Nov. 25. Complete your club and you receive your interest. Circleville Savings & Banking Co. —ad.

Regular meeting of Howard Hall Post, American Legion, will be held Wednesday at 8 p. m. Plans will be completed for Million Dollar Night to be held December 1.

The Nebraska Grange will meet Tuesday at 7:30 p. m. A Thanksgiving program will be presented.

Turkey and chicken shoot at Gold Cliff Park, Tuesday afternoon and night, with special class for amateurs. Heap big turkeys. —ad.

Autos driven by Charles Mowery, Jr., of Circleville R.F.D., and James A. Devear, 2427 Brentwood Road, Bexley, were slightly damaged Saturday in a collision on East Main Street at the first alley east of Court Street. No one was hurt.

The meeting of the Daughters of Union Veterans' Sewing Club has been postponed until Wednesday, December 29, Miss Anna Kirkwood, North Scioto Street, will entertain the group on that day with Mrs. Charles Stofer, assisting.

The Rotary Club is sponsoring a Charity Newsies sale on Wednesday, Nov. 22. Members who will sell are asked to meet at the American Hotel at 8:30 a. m. Proceeds will go to Berger Hospital. —ad.

The Washington Jolly Stitches, 4-H sewing club, entertained members of the Pickaway County Home Sunday afternoon. They presented an entertainment including a play and musical program then treated the inmates with candy and apples. Mrs. Merle Bowman is the club leader.

Inheritance tax on the estate of Harlin G. Guy, Derby, has been established at $2,116 to be paid by 18 persons who share in the estate. The amount of the estate subject to tax is $32,309.94.

FOUR MOTORISTS DRAW FINES IN COURT OF MAYOR

Four motorists were fined in Mayor W. B. Cady's court during the weekend.

Cecil Knece, 19, Ashville Route 2, was sent to the county jail Monday when he failed to pay a fine of $10 and costs for reckless operation of an auto. Police reported he was driving 60 miles an hour on South Court Street early Sunday.

William Joseph Frame, 20, of 1734 Washington Avenue, Columbus, paid a fine of $25 and costs on a charge of operating an auto with fictitious tags. The arrest was made by the State Highway Patrol.

Two motorists paid $2 each for overtime parking.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY BRINGS PRISON TERM

William Hamilton of Monroe Township was fined $25 and costs by B. T. Hedges, justice of peace, Monday, on a charge of assault and battery. Hamilton was committed to the county jail when he failed to settle.

Hamilton was arrested Saturday. The charge was filed by Mrs. Mabel Hamilton, his wife.

NAZI WARSHIPS ABOUT RUIN 18 CRAFT FOR U. S.

Pocket Ships Reduce Great Fighters Value To Little More Than Junk

(Continued from Page One)

them obsolete. These 62 vessels are the so-called "heavy treaty cruisers" built as a result of the limitations prescribed at the Washington conference in 1922.

Super Warcraft

In building her pocket battleships, Germany demonstrated to the world that it was possible to build ships no bigger than the treaty cruisers which would outclass them in battle. Since the Deutschland, first pocket battleship, was finished half a dozen years ago, the handwriting has been on the wall for treaty ships.

Japan, Germany, England are said to be building new types of super-cruiser. A few days ago Acting Secretary of the Navy Edison revealed that our new cruisers Columbia and Cleveland are being re-designed to conform to the pocket-battleships' lessons.

The treaty cruisers were a queer type and the naval conference from which they emerged was a strange thing. In 1922 when it was called, the United States occupied a pre-eminent naval position. We had approximately a dozen battleships and battlecruisers on the ways, many nearly completed. No foreign navy had more than one or two. Had we completed the ships buildings we must have been the world's greatest naval power for twenty years.

Britain and Japan didn't like this prospect.

When the Harding administration proposed a peace conference in Washington the proposal was eagerly accepted. In spite of the anguished screams of our U. S. naval officers and a large portion of our press, we emerged minus our new ships, while the British and Japs scrapped only obsolete vessels. As a result of that conference the United States sacrificed approximately half a million tons of the finest superdreadnaughts ever constructed, which cost our tax-payers somewhere about 500 million dollars.

After it had been arranged that the United States should destroy these fine new ships, the conference legislated that cruisers in the future should be light and heavy, and that heavy cruisers might displace only 10,000 tons and mount only 8-inch guns.

The pocket battleships brought the doom of the heavy cruiser by mounting 11-inch guns protected behind 5 inch armor on a hull no bigger or more expensive than the treaty cruiser's. 11-inchers are battleship guns. They outrange the treaty-cruiser's 8-inchers by three or four miles. A pocket warship could cut down treaty cruisers as a timber would cut down Dachshund puppies.

Opinion in the world's naval circles is crystallizing to the effect that the new type cruiser that is coming to take the place of the obsolete treaty type will be a ship of about 20,000 tons displacement, mounting four or six 12-inch guns. Such ships could be given a speed of 32 or 33 knots an hour. They could overhaul either the treaty cruiser or the pocket battleship and neither of these types would have a chance with the new super-cruisers in battle.

(The statements and opinions

MARKETS

CASH quotations made to farmers in Circleville.

Wheat	.....	33
New Yellow Corn	.....	44
New White Corn	.....	54
Soybeans	.....	90

POULTRY

Springers	.....	12
Heavy Hens	.....	12
Leghorn Hens	.....	10
Leghorn Springers	.....	10
Old Roosters	.....	10
Cream	.....	23
Eggs	.....	23

CLOSING MARKETS

FURNISHED BY THE J. W. ESHELMAN & SONS

WHEAT
Dec.	88 1/2	89	88 1/2
May	86 1/2	86 1/2	85 1/2
July	83 1/2	85	83 1/2

CORN
Dec.	50 1/2	50 1/2	50 1/2
May	52 1/2	52 1/2	52 1/2
July	53 1/2	52 1/2	52 1/2

OATS
Dec.	37 1/2	37 1/2	37 1/2
May	35 1/2	35 1/2	35 1/2
July	31 1/2	31 1/2	32

CLOSING LIVESTOCK MARKET

FURNISHED BY THE PICKAWAY COUNTY FARM BUREAU.

RECEIPTS: 2,787, steady; Heavies, 250 to 275 lbs., $5.65; Mediums, 225 to 250 lbs., $5.00 to $5.25; Lights, 180 to 200 lbs., $4.75 to $5.00; Pigs, 100 to 180 lbs., $5.00 to $5.50; Cattle, 778, $8.00 to $9.25; Calves, 235, $10.00 to $11.00; Lambs, 185, $9.00 to $9.50.

CHICAGO RECEIPTS: 2,000, steady; Mediums, 180 to 200 lbs., $5.75 to $6.00; Calves, $9.00 to $10.50; Lambs, 5,000, $9.00 to $9.15.

INDIANAPOLIS RECEIPTS: 5,000, steady to strong; Mediums, 180 to 200 lbs., $5.95; Lights, 150 to 180 lbs., $6.00.

ST. LOUIS RECEIPTS: 8,000, steady to strong; Mediums, 180 to 200 lbs., $5.95; Lights, 160 to 180 lbs., $6.00.

HEAVIES: 280 to 300 lbs., $5.30 to $5.50; Mediums, 240 to 260 lbs., $5.75; Lights, 160 to 240 lbs., $5.00; Pigs, 100 to 140 lbs., $5.50 to $5.75.

—o—

DRIVE AGAINST NUMBERS RACKET STRIKES A SNAG

The campaign of B. T. Hedges, justice of peace, against the "numbers" racket in Circleville appeared at a standstill Monday.

Three arrests made when the drive was opened last week are the only ones that have been made to date. Two men paid fines of $25 and costs each, and a third is to report for a hearing this week.

"There will probably be some more arrests this week," Mr. Hedges stated Monday. When opening the drive the justice of peace said he had issued orders to his constable to arrest both numbers writers and those picking up numbers from the writers.

CONCLAVE SUSPENDED

PHILADELPHIA — Europe's war may cause postponement or transfer to some other country of the Lutheran World Convention, scheduled for Philadelphia next May, according to announcement by Dr. Ralph H. Long, Chicago, head of the American convention committee. The Rev. Paul C. Empe, chairman of the Philadelphia committee, said that local plans for the convence were being suspended. Some 250 official delegates from 28 foreign countries were expected.

herein are the private ones of the writer and are not to be construed as reflecting the views of the navy department or of the naval service in general. Navy regulations.)

WEEK END SPENT AT HYDE PARK STIRS RUMORS

President Sits Tight And Apparently Intends To Let Public Decide

(Continued from Page One)

of the hope to my good friends of the press, so they may have something to write about, that they give due interpretation to my statement that when we open the building I hope it will be a fine day."

Earlier the President had jibed at political writers who wove 1940 implications into his statement last week that he hoped to be present at the final dedication of the Jefferson memorial in Washington "by January, 1941." Mr. Roosevelt said he deliberately interpolated this remark at the cornerstone laying to get personal amusement from the reactions of columnists and others.

In this connection, nevertheless, it is interesting to note that the Jefferson Memorial contractor is rushing under orders to get work completed by December, 1940. Mr. Roosevelt will be President until January 20, 1941, regardless of whether or not he tosses tradition to the winds and runs for a third term—giving him nineteen days in that possible final month for the dedicatory exercises.

Hints at Retirement

In a number of superbly adroit ways, President Roosevelt seemingly has nurtured the impression he yearns to quit public life and retire to the quiet role of Hyde Park squire.

Best information at the White House was that Mr. Roosevelt would say nothing on the third term subject until the first preferential primary, which falls in normally Republican New Hampshire the second Tuesday of March — and probably would say nothing even then.

The executive will speak at a Jackson Day dinner January 8, just after reassembly of congress. His remarks there may be provocative, but his intimates predict no definite statement will be forthcoming.

Straws in the wind that point to the President's desire to call it quits after eight years in the White House are several.

Presidential Secretary Stephen T. Early recently administered a mild public spanking—obviously on orders—to Secretary of Agriculture Henry Wallace for endorsing the executive for a third term. Wallace has been mentioned as a presidential possibility himself.

Secretary of the Interior Harold Ickes, other member of the cabinet to beat the drum openly for a third term, suddenly changed his tactics last week and told a press conference that Mr. Roosevelt "can speak for himself."

Builds Retirement House

After adding considerably to his Hyde Park acreage, the President built a hideaway cottage—minus a telephone—atop Dutchess Hill to which he said he anticipated retiring.

The Hyde Park library project also was worthy of note. Assemblage of the complete New Deal history at his family estate has become a passion with the President. The 18 acres on which the library is being built already have been deeded to the government with the consent of his 85-year-old mother, Mrs. Sarah Delano Roosevelt. On the President's death, it has been announced, the whole Hyde Park estate, totalling some 360 acres and including the family mansion, will become a public show place.

In recent years Mr. Roosevelt has built up a property of his own running not far short of a thousand acres to the east of the family estate. There are located his hilltop cottage, Mrs. Roosevelt's Val Kill cottage, the swimming pool, his Christmas tree enterprise and his "tree farm."

Should he retire at the end of his second term, it was pointed out, he could, and probably would, locate in his Dutchess hill hideaway and make daily trips to the library to act as chief annotator of his public papers.

NEW DEAL IS JEALOUS OF WAR

(Continued from Page One)

industry during the European war. Expansion of the Tennessee Valley authority, a new and enlarged Rural Electrification program, passage of a $350,000,000 Rivers and Harbors bill, which includes big public power developments, a public-private super-power development based upon the St. Lawrence seaway and production of electric power in coal fields, are embraced in the proposed program.

Defeat of the spending bill in the last session, which included huge appropriations for the rural electrification administration, was a bitter dose of administration public power advocates. They are hopeful of reviving the issue in some new spending measure.

Rep. Kent Keller (D) Illinois, has enlisted a number of New Deal officials in a plan to develop public power in coal fields of southern Illinois and perhaps other states. The same group is urging establishments of government munitions plants, using electric power produced by big steam plants, to inaugurate the program.

A program of coordinating public and private utility facilities through a huge super-power network in the east, based upon the St. Lawrence waterways development, was being studied by experts of the national power policy committee. Such a program has been recommended by the New York power authority.

Under the New York program, power would be distributed through private utilities. The more power they used and the cheaper they sold it to the public, the cheaper the government would sell it to them, under this plan.

The attacks of David Lillenthal, of the TVA, on the Alabama Power Company and the reply of the company's president, may be the signal for another congressional battle over efforts to expand the organization in the Tennessee Valley. TVA has been accused by Chairman May (D) of Kentucky, of the House Military Affairs committee, of breaking an implied agreement with congress, when it was authorized to purchase properties of the Tennessee Electric Company. May indicated that he would seek an investigation.

DELANO WEAVER DIES AT ISLAND ROAD HOME

Delano Weaver, 61, died at his home on the Island Road at 6:15 a. m. Monday following a year's illness. Complications caused death. Mr. Weaver was a barber.

He was a lifelong resident of Pickaway County, born January 9, 1878 a son of John and Emma Chapman Weaver. Mr. Weaver was a member of St. Paul Methodist Church.

Surviving are three brothers, Hartley of Chillicothe and Ernest and Lloyd, both of Circleville, and three sisters, Mrs. Ada Harris and Misses Birdie and Blanche Weaver, all of Circleville.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 3 p. m. in the Albaugh Chapel with the Rev. Mary Lou Henderson officiating. Burial will be in Forest Cemetery in charge of the W. H. Albaugh Company.

Pallbearers will be Lloyd, Hartley and Clyde Weaver; David Harris, Jack Holmes and George Cooper.

SOVIET PRESS LIES TO YOUTH ON HAPPY LIFE

MOSCOW, Nov. 20.—The Soviet press today appealed to the youth of the world "to fight against the second imperialist war" under the red star of Communism, on the twentieth anniversary of the founding of the Communist youth movement.

"Future battles will be led by Communist youths, inspired by Josef Stalin," an editorial stated, adding that the "smashing of all obstacles will lead the young generation to a happy, joyous life."

The appeal was similar to that made to the working classes of Great Britain, France and Germany by the Communist International a few weeks ago.

HOMER AGLER, 71, IS VICTIM OF PNEUMONIA

Homer Agler, 76, died in Berger Hospital at 10 a. m. Sunday of pneumonia. Mr. Agler lived at 114 1/2 West Main Street.

He was born May 13, 1863 in Franklin County, a son of John and Anna Eliza Coe Agler. Mr. Agler had been a resident of Pickaway County for 16 years. He never married.

Surviving are four brothers, Chauncey, Howard, Martin and John, and a sister, Mrs. Ester Parren, all of Franklin County.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday at 10:30 a. m., in the Mader Chapel with the Rev. G. L. Troutman officiating. Burial will be in Forest Cemetery.

THANKSGIVING GREETINGS

By

TELEGRAPH

Special Blank & Envelope

25c & 35c Anywhere in U. S.

PHONE WESTERN UNION

36

10 LB. DRESSED TURKEY

FREE

WITH EVERY $50 PURCHASE

Again we follow our annual custom of being your host on Thanksgiving Day. With every purchase of $50 or more, in any department of our store, we will supply you with a 10 pound turkey for the Holiday feast, with our compliments.

BUY YOUR FURNITURE NEEDS NOW!

CIRCLEVILLE FURNITURE CO.

115 E. Main St. Phone 105

It's going to be a LONG COLD WINTER Get Ready for it NOW!

WOMEN'S 2-SNAP GALOSHES

Fleece lined. Black or Brown All Sizes.

79c

MEN'S HEAVY DUTY WORK RUBBERS

84c

Heavy Red Rubber Edged Heel and Sole

MEN'S 4-BUCKLE ARCTICS

Rubber or Cloth Heavy Bumper Edged Sole.

$1.99

WOMEN'S TOE RUBBERS

Moire Finish

59c

YOUTHS' ARCTICS

All Rubber 3-Buckle Dress Weight

$1.69

Sizes 2 1/2 to 6 ..... $1.79

MILLER-JONES

SHOES FOR THE FAMILY

112 W. Main St.

COMING FRIDAY

another Big

JOHN DEERE DAY

for Farmers

FEATURING

"JOEL GENTRY

in HOLLYWOOD"

AN ALL-HOLLYWOOD PRODUCTION

AND 4 OTHER ALL-TALKING PICTURES

IT'S ALL FREE

FRIDAY, NOV. 24

STARTS AT 9:30 A. M.

And Continues All Day At Our New Store—120 E. Franklin St.

J. B. WORK

Eyes Examined Glasses Fitted

OFFICE HOURS: Daily 9 to 5, Saturday 9 to 9 Closed all day Thursday. Evenings by Appointment—Phone 448

Dr. D. S. Goldschmidt

121 1/2 W. Main St. Over J. C. Penney Co. Store OPTOMETRIST

KUHN DEFENSE TURNS TO WIFE OF BUND CHIEF

Woman Called To Deny Charge Of Dipping Into Organization Cash

HEART INTEREST CITED

Prosecution Declares Fritz Used Money To Help
"Distressed" Ladies

NEW YORK, Nov. 20 — Mrs. Elsa Kuhn was to take the witness stand today to deny—if she was permitted—inferences that Fritz Kuhn, her Bund boss husband, dipped into the funds of his organization to aid two ladies in distress — blonde Mrs. Florence Camp and seven-times wed Mrs. Virginia Cogswell — because he had a heart interest in them.

Kuhn began his third week of trial on forgery and larceny charges with the state's contention that he pocketed $500 intended as an attorney's fee, unexplained by his defense.

He had done somewhat better on other counts of the 10 count indictment with the state changing its mind about two counts and subsequently reducing the larceny claimed in them from $4,000 to approximately $600.

Aids Two Women

It was admitted by the defense that the burly Bundsman spent $700 to have Mrs. Camp's furniture transported from place to place and that he had paid a $60 doctor's bill for Mrs. Cogswell but as alibi backing for a larceny charge, the $500 lawyer's fee item was the state's best bet.

Defense counsel has indicated that it may rest its case late today.

To reports that J. Edgar Hoover, chief G-man, might be called as a final defense witness, counsel had "no comment."

The only purpose in calling Hoover would be to revive the "persecution" theory on which the defense sought unsuccessfully to elaborate with witnesses like District Attorney Thomas E. Dewey, Mayor F. H. La Guardia and Police Commissioner Lewis J. Valentine.

Dewey admitted that he considered the Bund a nuisance and a possible "future threat to civil liberties if permitted to grow" but denied any personal ill-will against Kuhn. La Guardia and Valentine were not even permitted to testify by Judge James G. Wallace who insisted that counsel must confine its witnesses and their testimony to a single issue — did or did not Kuhn commit larceny and forgery. The court held that neither La Guardia nor Valentine could testify along that line.

Kuhn faces a maximum sentence of 35 years if found guilty on all counts of the indictment.

SALTCREEK SCHOOL NEWS

The Armistice Day celebration at Saltcreek School was held on November 10 at 11:30 a. m.

All grades marched to the school lawn and, forming a circle around the flagpole, heard the following program:

Two members of the first grade were the flag bearers, whose escorts were from the second grade. Bob Stous, in military dress and Francis Fraunfelder, in civilian dress, took charge of raising the flag, followed by the pledge by the entire school.

The following people then gave readings:

Dorothy McRoberts—Land of Liberty

Mary Ann Macklin—He is an American

Charlotte Dille—Soldierly

Nelson Jones—Gettysburg Address

Ralph Wolfe—The Cost of the World War

Eugene Crawford—The American Creed

Ruth Mary Crawford—In Flanders Fields

During the program the flag was lowered at half mast in memory of the soldiers who have been killed in the last war, Rev. Root from Tarilton, representing the local legionnaires, gave a short talk on war and peace. The program was then concluded by the singing of "America", in unison, led by Miss VanVoorhis.

The Senior class accompanied by Miss Hockman made the annual trip to Columbus on November 14.

HOURS FRESHER

Ask your grocer for
HONEY BOY BREAD

—Or—

ED'S MASTER LOAF!

Waters American Ships May and May Not Enter

THIS map shows the belligerent zones (named by President Roosevelt) from which American merchant vessels are barred by the new neutrality law. Black area indicates British, French and German waters in Europe and Africa, as far south as the Canary Islands. Arrows indicate ocean routes to be taken by American ships trading with those countries to which shipping is not prohibited. The restricted area also includes all of the North and Baltic seas.

APPLE ORCHARD IN N. ENGLAND RESTORED QUICK

BOSTON, —Hard work, patience plus science restored to New England in one short year the devastation caused to apple orchards in the hurricane a year ago.

Although hundreds of thousands of bearing trees were toppled over — plus the loss of millions of bushels of ripe fruit ready to be harvested — the harvest estimate this fall is only slightly less than the outlook for last year before the hurricane. In 1938 the crop estimation was 6,186,000 bushels while the outlook for 1939 is 5,630,000.

Horses, tractors, and automobiles were pressed into service by orchard growers after the big blow, hauling fallen trees back into position. Specially constructed props and guy wires anchored many trees in their original position. Care had to be exercised so that the trees were not damaged further.

Special care in watering the roots had to be given. Then long drought during the past summer brought another worry to fruit growers as the still-guyed trees had to be continually watered. Twice a week farmers had to bring water to the trees in tanks. But when harvest time came the New England orchards looked much as they always have looked. The apples appear of good size, fine color and juicy appearance.

Official estimates place the actual number of trees lost at 20 percent, whereas an estimated 50 percent were leveled.

PARK VISITORS UP

WASHINGTON, —The national park service of the Interior Department reports that war-troubled 1939 was a "good year" for Hawaii and Alaska parks. "With travel abroad so uncertain and disturbed," the service reported, "Americans turned to their own peaceful territories outside the continental United States." Mount McKinley National Park, Alaska, reports a 52 percent increase in visitors over 1938, and Hawaii National Park a boost of 15 1/2 percent.

A Second Oven at Holiday Time

An Electric Roaster is just the thing to relieve the stress caused by big holiday meals. It will roast a turkey to juicy golden brown perfection, bake mince pies or hot bread, even cook complete meals; all without watching . . . you will appreciate, too, the full flavored foods, the cleanliness and convenience of electric cooking. Get set for the holidays. See the Electric Roasters now.

NO WATCHING TASTIER MEALS
EASY TO CLEAN

Columbus and Southern Ohio
Electric Company

114 EAST MAIN STREET

AMANDA

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Ritchie entertained recently at dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Ginder of Columbus. Other guests were Mrs. Mildred Lutz and Roy Baugher.

Mrs. Milton Manson and Miss Alice Brown of Circleville spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Albert Leist.

At a recent meeting of the Amanda Chapter 150, O. E. S., the following officers were elected: Mrs. Jessie Crites, worthy matron; Ray Bowers, worthy patron; Mrs. Olive Johnston, associate matron; Warrick Van Cleve, associate patron; Miss Alice Andrews, conductress; Mrs. Alma Craft, associate conductress; Mrs. Maggie Bitler, secretary and Mrs. Chloé Trout, treasurer.

Henry Scholl of Owensboro, Ky., was the supper guest Saturday of Mrs. Emma Ruff.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Poling, son, Keith spent Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Kennedy.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kern entertained at dinner Sunday for Mr.

Guests criticize if table linens are dingy and stained. Wash linens with Roman Cleanser. It removes stains, makes them snow-white — saves the wear of hard rubbing and boiling. See label.

ROMAN CLEANSER
whitens clothes safely

REPORT SHOWS RISE IN AVERAGE FAMILY INCOME

MINNEAPOLIS —The bugaboo of the high cost of living took a drubbing as a report stated that the average monthly paycheck today is $4 higher than a year ago while expenses are about the same.

A survey conducted by the family economics bureau of the Northwestern National Life Insurance Company disclosed a $2 jump in the monthly food bill of the average American family shortly after the outbreak of the war. The study further showed a slower increase in clothing, house furnishings and other items of the family budget while food prices have since eased off.

These raises, however, have been mainly offset by sharp reductions which occurred prior to the war's start, leaving general household and living expenses about what they were in the autumn of 1938.

At the same time employment has broadened despite the drag of numerous strikes and the increased family buying power is reflected in an 8 percent jump in department store sales, according to the survey.

Figuring an average worker's family of four with an income of $120 and expenses of $120 per month in 1933, the survey asserted that it was necessary to spend $137.09 to maintain an equal standard in September 1939 but was well able to do so since their income was up to $144.48. These figures were obtained it was said, from payrolls of industries employing 15,000,000 workers.

EGG TRUCK SCRAMBLED, BUT DRIVER ESCAPES

COLUMBUS, Nov. 20 —Frank Rogers, Columbus truck driver, considered himself lucky to be alive today as he told his friends of a $10,000 omelet.

Rogers was driving his tractor-trailer, loaded with butter, eggs and cheese, on Route 16 when it stalled on the Columbia Center crossing of the Pennsylvania railroad, about 16 miles east of Columbus. He leaped to safety and watched the train scramble his load and wreck his truck.

KROGER

BE SURE OF A PERFECT FEAST!

INSIST ON A KROGER
4-POINT TURKEY

4 REASONS WHY:

1. FROM BEST AREAS!
2. INDIVIDUALLY SELECTED!
3. FED FOR TENDERNESS!
4. HANDLED WITH CARE!

Turkeys . . . 33c

Roasting Chickens . . . 28c

Young Ducks . . . 28c

Fresh Oysters . . . 49c

MINCE MEAT . . . 15c
Sausage . . . 17c

PIG FEET . . . 28c
SPICED HAM . . . 12c

Trimming For Your Thanksgiving Feast—At A Savings!

BUTTER	Kroger's Country Club Creamery, Print—Lb. 31c	Lb. 30c
PINEAPPLE	Kroger's Country Club Quality	2 No. 2 1/2 Cans 39c
PUMPKIN	Kroger's Country Club Quality—Guaranteed	2 No. 2 1/2 Cans 15c
MINCE MEAT	Kroger's Country Club Quality	2 Pkgs. 19c
FANCY CORN	Kroger's Country Club Cream Style	3 No. 2 Cans 25c

GET YOURS NOW!

That Beautiful Revere Carving Set . . . Consisting of Hollow Handle Knife and Fork with Carborundum Knife Sharpener. Will enhance any Thanksgiving table. Only $2.98 with 2 filled books.

Fresh Fruits & Vegetables for Your Feast Table!

Cranberries . . .	2 lbs 27c
Fancy Oranges . . .	6 lbs 23c
Sweet Potatoes . . .	10 lbs 29c
Celery . . .	2 stalks 17c
Ripe Bananas . . .	5 lbs 25c

FANCY YAMS . . .	6 Lbs. 25c
CAULIFLOWER . . .	Hd. 15c
LETTUCE . . .	2 Hds. 19c
POTATOES . . .	Peck 32c
TANGERINES . . .	Doz. 15c
GRAPES . . .	2 Lbs. 15c

KROGER GUARANTEED BRANDS

All A&P Stores
Will Be Closed
Thursday—Nov. 23—
THANKSGIVING
DAY

Pilgrim Brand—Fresh Dressed
TURKEYS

Extra Meat On Breast 25c

Sunnyfield—Fully Dressed
Turkeys . . . 35c
Long Island Ducklings . . . 17c

Sunnyfield Stewing Chickens . . . 69c	Sunnyfield Roasting Chickens . . . 99c	Sunnyfield Frying Chickens . . . 69c
---------------------------------------	--	--------------------------------------

Sunnyfield—Tendered—Whole or Shank Half
Smoked Hams . . . 25c

Sanding
Beef Roast . . . 23c

Extra Standard
Fresh Oysters . . . 23c

Sunnyfield Smoked Calas . . . 19c	Whole or Shank Half Piece Bacon . . . 15c	Pure Lard . . . 8c
-----------------------------------	---	--------------------

Nectar O. P. Tea 1/2 lb. pkg. 29c
S. F. Pancake Flour 6 lbs. 17c
S. F. Rolled Oats . . . 5 lb. sk. 19c
Tom. Ketchup . . . 3 lge. bots. 25c
Dill Pickles—1/2 gal. . . jar 25c
Apple Butter—Qt. . . jar 15c
A&P Apple Sauce . . . 2 cans 15c

Ann Page—Salad
Dressing—qt. . . . 29c

Ann Page
Beans . . . 5c

Sliced or Halves
Iona Peaches 2 . . . 27c

Crisco or
Spry . . . 52c

Ann Page Puddings or
Sparkle . . . 10c

Iona Cocoa . . . 17c

Cracked Wheat—Soft Twist
Whole Milk—Jumbo White
A&P Bread 2 loaves 15c

Sultana Peanut Butter . . . 2 lb. jar 25c

A & P Fancy Pumpkin—No. 2 1/2 can . . . 2 for 19c

A & P Seedless Raisins . . . 2 lb. pkg. 15c

Mince Meat — bulk . . . 19c

Cranberry Sauce—17 oz. . . can 13c

Pumpkin Pie Spice . . . pkg. 10c

Ann Page Pure Fruit Preserves . . . 29c	Iona Brand Tomato Juice . . . 25c	Sunnyfield Family Flour . . . 63c
---	-----------------------------------	-----------------------------------

Thanksgiving Fruits and Vegetables!

Celery Hearts . . . 2 for 15c

Cranberries . . . 1 lb 17c

Yams or Sweet . . . 5 lbs. 19c

Pascal Celery . . . bunch 10c

Head Lettuce . . . 2 heads 15c

Chestnuts . . . lb. 19c

English Walnuts . . . lb. 19c

A & P Food Stores

The Circleville Herald

Consolidation of The Circleville Herald established 1883, and the Daily Union-Herald, established 1894.

Published Evenings Except Sunday by
THE CIRCLEVILLE PUBLISHING COMPANY
210 N. Court Street, Circleville, Ohio

T. E. WILSON ..... Publisher
Member Ohio Newspaper Association, International News Service, Central Press Association, and the Ohio Select List

NATIONAL ADVERTISING REPRESENTATIVES
8 South Michigan Avenue, Chicago; 63 Fifth Avenue,
New York; General Motors Building, Detroit.

SUBSCRIPTION

By carrier in Circleville, 15c per week. By mail, Pickaway County and Circleville trading territory, per year, $3 in advance; Zone one and two, $4 per year in advance, beyond first and second postal zones, per year, $5.50 in advance.

Entered at Postoffice at Circleville, Ohio, as Second Class Matter.

RUGGED SPORT

FOR the second time the Yellowstone National Park is going to be kept open all winter. This is not for the usual sight-seeing and camping purposes of the regular vacation season, but primarily for sport.

There is to be a definite program of winter sports, especially skiing, snowshoeing and tobogganing, and the main roads will be kept open as well as possible. In January and February there will be special days designated for visitors to see nature's wild-life show of big game animals—elk, deer, antelope, mountain sheep, buffalo, and so on—in their natural habitat.

Last winter 65,000 persons took advantage of the Yellowstone sport program, pouring in from long distances over snowy roads, and being rewarded with scenes of rare beauty along with their healthful sport. There may be 100,000 this winter.

Such fun would have seemed incredible a generation or two ago. It is evident that instead of our race growing soft with the progress of modern civilization, it is really getting harder and tougher. The bulk of these winter sportsmen are city people, who used to be regarded as "softies."

MORE PLENTIFUL JOBS

TWO encouraging employment reports are found in recent news from New York City and Albany, N. Y. The first states that only 2 per cent of the 1936 graduates of the school of Technology at City College are unemployed. More than three-fourths of them are busy in the engineering field for which they prepared. Nearly one-fifth are in other lines of work and 1 per cent are studying at graduate schools.

That report covers only one group of graduates from one technical school, but it may be representative of many others.

The Albany report comes from the State Associate Education Commissioner and deals with high school graduates. The commissioner announces that 86 per cent of the 15,000 June graduates of public vocational and technical high schools in the state have jobs.

"Industries are demanding more youthful labor, in most cases, than the schools can supply," he says. "The airplane industry wants mechanics far in excess of the supply. In some cities the same condition applies to machine shops. Power machine fields are absorbing girl operators as fast as they can be turned out. Even in the building trades, notably slow in the general pick-up, employment is increasing."

This is all to the good. The farther it goes the better, from both the social and economic standpoints. It will give us another chance to learn what our normal unemployment problem is and to devise better means of handling it than we could do while jobs were so scarce for everybody.

WORLD AT A GLANCE

—By—

Charles P. Stewart

TO READ the state department's current account of it, Charles Evans Hughes, now chief justice of the federal supreme court, but state secretary in 1924, appears to have made a great mistake then, in discouraging Brazil from strengthening its navy, as it wanted to do. If the Brazilians had gone ahead with their program, the conclusion is that today they'd have been in much better shape than they actually are, to help the United States in the latter's patrol of Pan-America's Atlantic neutrality zone.

It's a sound conclusion all right, but it does justice (and ex-Secretary) Hughes considerably less than justice. Times aren't now what they were in 1924. Charles Evans would have needed to be a good bit of a prophet to see ahead 15 years in this rapidly changing era.

In 1924 I was just back from a prolonged residence in Brazil and Argentina and know, therefore, something of what I'm talking about.

HOW IT HAPPENED

It happened like this: Brazil and Argentina are Latin-America's two major republics. They never have been very friendly. They adjoin and there long had existed more or less of a war threat between them.

The world conflict of 1914-18 had recently ended. "Never again" was the watchword in this country. The air here was saturated with disarmament sentiment.

At this juncture Brazil took a notion to reconstruct its navy. It needed experts to boss the job. It appealed to Uncle Sam to provide them. The prospect looked like a favorable one for us to make a barrelful of money by taking on the contract. Accordingly, we sent a naval mission to Rio de Janeiro to supervise the undertaking.

However, at that precise moment we were exerting ourselves to the utmost to persuade ourselves and other nations to cut down on war preparations. It certainly seemed inconsistent in us, just then, to have a naval mission in Rio, helping Brazil to arm against Argentina. There was plenty of Yankee criticism of such a policy. It assuredly was justified in the light of 1924's calculations.

IN 1924'S LIGHT

Secretary Hughes evidently thought so.

Daily Washington Merry-Go-Round

BY DREW PEARSON AND ROBERT S. ALLEN.

DIDN'T WANT SHIPS

WASHINGTON—The attempt to transfer eight United States Lines vessels to the Panama flag is now a closed book, but there are two significant incidents which have leaked out.

One was the fact that Panama herself took a very decided stand against permitting the ships to fly her flag. Panama made it quite clear that transfer of the ships was likely to get her snarled up with Germany, and that her neutrality status must be similar to that of the United States.

If the United States could not risk sending these vessels into the war zone, Panama said that she did not want to do so. This clinched the argument within the Administration.

The other unrevealed incident was the fact that Cordell Hull, who later fought the transfer, actually had OK'd it, and in writing. His letter is still in the hands of the Maritime Commission.

What happened was that Admiral Land, chairman of the Commission, telephoned the Secretary of State at 4:30 on the afternoon before the Commission put out its favorable statement. Hull read his letter over the telephone and later mailed it. Having received this State Department OK, the Maritime Commission proceeded to approve the transfer.

However, it turned out later that Mr. Hull had not thoroughly understood the proposal, or else it was not carefully explained to him. Some of Hull's assistants go so far as to say that the Maritime Commission was deliberately deceptive. At any rate, Mr. Hull changed his mind.

Perhaps it was the emphatic position taken by Panama which helped to change it.

SENATORIAL COURTESY

Pronounced a new child prodigy violinist by musical critics of the Capital, Betty Jane Atkinson of Pittsburgh played before several private audiences in Washington recently. Among these were the leaders of the National Symphony and Mrs. Eleanor Patterson, publisher of The Times-Herald.

Mrs. Patterson also arranged for the 16-year-old violinist to play two numbers at a prominent Washington restaurant where she was entertaining a distinguished gathering. Most of those dining in the restaurant were enraptured. But from one table came loud and daucous conversation.

Chief conversationalist was Senator Tom Connally of Texas. For him, apparently, the neutrality debate still continued. Other guests listening to the violinist glanced pointedly in his direction, but the Senator talked on.

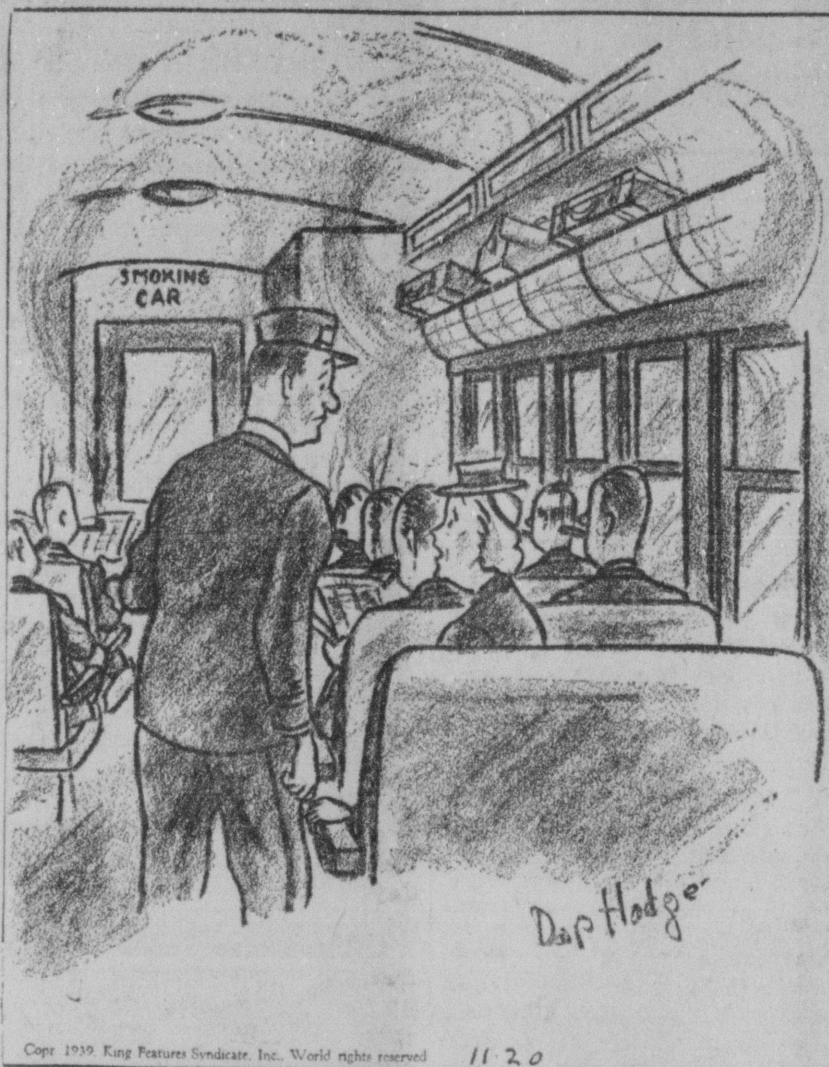

Finally, Mrs. Patterson went to the Senator's table and whispered: "Please, Senator. There is to be just this last number. She is very young. Would you mind...?"

But the Senator did mind. Waving one arm, he exclaimed: "What does this mean? Interfering with my dinner! Proprietor! Proprietor! Show this lady out—if she is a lady."

"HAM" FISH

Disclosure that Representative Hamilton Fish was employing a professional (Continued on Page Ten)

LAFF-A-DAY

"Must I smoke?"

DIET AND HEALTH

Why Adolescence Is Hazardous Period

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M. D.

SHAKESPEARE WAS wrong about the ages of man. There are only four—infancy, to the end of the third year; childhood, from the third to about the twelfth year; adolescence, from about the twelfth to the eighteenth year, and adult maturity from then on.

Adolescence is the threshold to adult life, as infancy is the threshold or preparation period for childhood. Adolescence is quite as hazardous and difficult a period as is infancy, and should command almost as much guidance as the earlier period.

The physical changes in adolescence are complicated by mental and emotional changes. The most striking physical changes are sudden accelerations in the development of height and weight. This follows after the comparatively long period of practically unchanging development in childhood.

Dr. Clendening will answer questions of general interest only, and then only through his column.

Every organ and tissue in the body is altered in childhood. The head grows mostly in the facial region. The cranium has attained nine-tenths of its mature size at six. The trunk grows rapidly during the early half of adolescence, this acceleration occurring two years earlier in girls than in boys.

Growth of Limbs

Most of the adolescent gain in height is due to the growth of the lower limbs. Both arms and legs lengthen near the cartilaginous ends of the bones, which unite firmly with the shaft of the bone late in adolescence. At maturity the legs are about five times as long as at birth. The circumference of the forearm, upper arm, calf and thigh increase largely through muscular growth. The growth of the pelvis differs according to sex, the girl's pelvis changing considerably at this period.

The adolescent heart nearly doubles in size to fulfill the circulatory requirements of the enlarging body. Glandular development is very marked in adolescence. The thyroid and pituitary glands are intensely activated. This results in development of the reproductive functions.

Diet Essentials

All these changes require certain adjustments.

The essentials of the adolescent's daily diet are given as follows:

Viscera, meat, fowl, fish, eggs, or cheese—one serving.
Milk: as a beverage—one pint; prepared in dishes—one pint.

Vegetables: leafy—two large servings; root—two large servings.

Fruit: raw—two servings; cooked—two servings.

Cereals: whole-grain—one large serving.

Additional foods optional.

Personal hygiene in regard to regularity of meals, exercise to enhance the efficiency of bodily function, personal cleanliness and attention to sex hygiene, particularly on the part of girls, are all matters that can be suggested and guided by the parents.

The most common physical problems of adolescence which require adjustment are posture, anemia, acne and the growth of the thyroid gland.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

A. R.: "Could tuberculosis germs live indefinitely in a house? Would it be quite safe to move into a house formerly inhabited by tuberculosis patients, but where no infected person has lived for five years? Should the house be fumigated after all these years?"

Answer: The best-informed opinion of modern times is that tuberculosis is transmitted only from person to person.

Seventeen: "Will you please advise a 17-year-old girl as to how I can keep my eyes clear and shining? I have good eyesight and very seldom have headaches, yet my eyes seem dull."

Answer: "The eyes are bright and shining when we are alert and interested. Keep your soul bright and shining and the eyes will respond. To keep your soul bright and shining, you must not contaminate your body; cultivate good food, plain living, healthy outdoor exercise. Cold water is the best eye wash."

EDITOR'S NOTE: Dr. Clendening has seven pamphlets which can be obtained by readers. Each pamphlet sells for 10 cents. For any one pamphlet desired, send 10 cents in coin, and a self-addressed envelope stamped with a three-cent stamp, to Dr. Logan Clendening, in care of this paper. The pamphlets are: "Three Weeks' Reducing Diet," "Indigestion and Constipation," "Reducing and Gaining," "Infant Feeding," "Instructions for the Treatment of Diabetes," "Feminine Hygiene" and "The Care of the Hair and Skin."

Looking Back in Pickaway County

FIVE YEARS AGO

Commissioners are considering construction of a garage at the rear of the courthouse to house county cars.

STARS SAY—

For Monday, November 20

MONDAY'S Astrological forecast is for sudden and surprising developments. There may be unforeseen change, journeys or removals, with new matters and distant interests uppermost. And while there are favorable auguries, at the same time there are conflicting and adverse signs. Be cautious with business as well as private correspondence, and avert unhappy complications.

Those whose birthday it is may have a year of unexpected change or adventure, involving new objectives, persons and environs. With caution and vigilance, trouble, trickery or fraud may be avoided. Social and domestic activities may give much pleasure. Be prepared for surprises in all affairs.

A child born on this day may be talented in unusual lines, with much originality and independence in thought and action. It may be fond of adventure and frequent change in residence and employment.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Parr, Watt Street, and daughter, Patty, spent the week end with relatives in Lynchburg and Wilmington.

The Rev. Harry Boyer, son of Mrs. Charles Boyer, East Union Street, accepted a call to Hope Lutheran Church, Columbus.

10 YEARS AGO

The vacant house at the extreme end of Walnut Street, owned by Charles Hampp, was destroyed by fire.

Miss Verda Eymann was elected president of the Evangelical League of Christian Endeavor.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Barnhill returned from Dayton where they attended the convention of the Cleaners' and Dyers' State Association.

25 YEARS AGO

John Elder, Civil War veteran, died at his home in New Holland.

Miss Anna Florence is spending the week with Miss Agnes McVean of Covington, Ky.

L. E. Miller, Watt Street, is seriously ill.

A human being can live for several weeks without food if he has water to drink.

"TELL BILL GOODBYE"

WRITTEN FOR AND RELEASED BY CENTRAL PRESS ASSOCIATION

By Marie Blizard

SYNOPSIS

THE CHARACTERS:
FABIENNE SEYMOUR, rich, young and beautiful.
NICKY BARTLETT, wealthy and in love with Fabienne.
ESTERDAY: Fabienne persuades Nicky to drive her to Willoughby house, the old Willoughby mansion which her grandfather has left as a settlement house.

CHAPTER THREE

MARCUS brought Fabienne's tray in and laid it across her knees. Annabelle slipped a cape pale blue seldown across her shoulders. Her mother's maid, in maroon taffeta that was twin to Annabelle's, passed the door with clothes draped over her arm.

Fabienne stretched deliciously and said, "Somebody going some place?"

"Madame is having her trunks packed, Miss Fabienne," the butler told her and removed the silver tops of the breakfast dishes.

Fabienne inspected the dishes hungrily. There were rosy melon balls in ice, an egg with a fragrant brown sauce still sizzling in a minute baking dish, tiny sweet rolls toasted, and a pot of coffee.

There were also the morning newspapers and two piles of mail. Marcus poured coffee and went out with the dish covers.

Fabienne settled back in her pillows and opened her mail. She gobbled the melon balls while she read the bills. Then she turned to the invitations, the little notes with foreign post-marks while she ate the rest of her breakfast.

There wasn't a crumb left when she finished. Sheer curtains, like lingerie petticoats, billowed lazily in the sunny, September breeze that blew in her windows. In the room beyond she could hear Annabelle's movements as she prepared her bath.

Oh, what a lovely morning, she thought. For what? For golf? For shopping? She ran through her mail. Helene Carrington wanted her to serve on a committee for some sort of refugee work. Heavens, no!

Gertrude came to her door. "I've decided to sail on the Normandie, Fab. The Derwents are going to take the apartment. Are you coming with me? I do think you ought to stay here. Edna and Mark would like to have you, but of course—" "I'll let you know later, mother. You really mean that you think I ought to stay here until Nicky proposes again, don't you?"

Nicky! She'd forgotten that she'd told Nicky to call for her at eleven. What for? Oh, yes, she was going to make him drive her down to the slums. To Henderson street to see Willoughby house.

She regretted that impulse. To waste a beautiful morning drive down through the slums to appease an anger she had completely forgotten was silly.

Her mother's exasperated voice recalled her: "Fabienne Seymour, you've got a disposition just like your father. What are you going to do today?"

Fabienne grinned. She looked strangely like the old man then, old Elihu. "Nicky and I are going down to look over the family mansion."

"Oh, Fab!"

"Don't worry. I won't do anything but look it over."

"That is there to see?" "That was what Nicky wanted to know, too. Privately, Fabienne agreed with both of them that the expedition was a stupid one. There were so many more pleasant things to do on a bright September morning. But perversity was a strong trait in Miss Seymour and she was persistent about driving down to Henderson street.

"What is it anyway?" Nicky plucked her.

"It's a settlement house, darling."

"I recognized you from your photographs," said the other girl.

A place where children and . . . in the midst of a city's squalor. oh, I don't know any more than you. Only it is some kind of a neighborhood club where earnest young women teach people things they don't want to know. Grandfather Willoughby met some angel of mercy—some completely impossible Good Woman—named Ellen Chapman—who is supposed to be a miracle worker in the cause of charity. And she sold him on the idea of lending the house to make the Henderson Street Settlement house. Then, as you know, he left the whole works to them as a memorial to his mother."

Nicky chorled. "She must have been some persuader. I thought the old man loved that place."

Fabienne said, "Humph!" She settled down glumly.

"Who? Chapman? No. But can't you see her? Nice broad bosom and a lamp in her eyes. A spinster of fifty mothering all the dear unwashed."

Nicky turned the car off Seventh avenue and drove through a maze of crooked crowded streets. In an astonishingly short time they had left the neighborhood of neat apartments and now they drove more slowly through knots of screaming urchins who scampered through the streets. Bed clothing hung from the windows of the tenement that lined the narrow streets and pushcarts forced them to progress at a snail's pace.

"Want to turn back?" Nicky asked when they had narrowly avoided running over a baby carriage pushed into their path.

"When I slum, I slum. Push on," Fabienne answered, wrinkling her nose with distaste for the smells that assaulted it. "After all, this is where he built his great mansion for his mother sixty years ago."

It was before them then. A mass of gray stone, with neat curtains in every window. There were patches of green grass between the iron paling of the fence and the building at the front. Back of it, they could see a playground. The sound of singing children's voices came from one of the opened upstairs windows.

Over the fan-door that was open there was a new plate. On it, WILLOUGHBY HOUSE was written in black on a field of gold.

It was very clean and cool and spacious, that house sitting there compensating qualities in good-heartedness and a sympathetic nature, and be fairly fortunate throughout life.

One-Minute Test Answers
1. Because old-time churches had no kitchen or larder, so mice got nothing to eat in them.
2. In northern Russia, near the Arctic Circle.
3. Minister (plenipotentiary).

She turned to the other girl with a broad smile. "All right," she said. "Let's go. This might have been my house, you know. I'd like to see it. I never have, Miss—"

"I'm glad to have the privilege of showing it to you. May I introduce myself? My name is Ellen Chapman." She held out a small hand that was surprisingly firm and strong for such a slip of a girl.

(To Be Continued)

GRABBAG

One-Minute Test

1. Why do we say "as poor as a church mouse?"
2. Where is the White sea?
3. What diplomatic representative ranks next below an ambassador?

Hints on Etiquette

Men never are invited to bridal showers, not even the bridegroom. The boys may come later, however, possibly to eat, and surely to see the girls home.

Words of Wisdom

The proper means of increasing the love we bear to our native country is to reside some time in a foreign one.—Shenstone.

Today's Horoscope

If your birthday is today, you will experience a mixture of joy and grief in the year now commencing, the stars indicate. Domestic happiness will be yours, but you will be troubled by a sudden and unexpected event. The child born on this date will be of a dreamy disposition, thriftless and somewhat careless and untidy. Such a child, however, will have

We Pay CASH For

Horses $5-Cows $3
OF SIZE AND CONDITION
HOGS, SHEEP, CALVES and
COLTS REMOVED

Quick Service CALL Clean Trucks

Phone 104

Reverse Charge—

Pickaway Fertilizer

Circleville, O. A. James & Son

Factographs

The chili bean is no longer merely an article of diet. It's a new color that women are using on their fingernails.

Stylists are using artificial flowers for decorating dresses, and providing said flowers with zippers.

"STRIKE WHILE THE CASH IS COLD IRON IS HOT"

When you find a chance to profit, grab it! When you see a bargain, buy it! Rare bargains and golden opportunities won't wait. They go to the man with cash. At The City Loan you can get the money you need - $10 to $1000 - for immediate use, and pay it back on your own kind of terms.

Remember, opportunity is an impatient fellow. Don't wait! Find your big chance and see us for the cash.

Our new Jitney-Loan of $50 costs less than your daily newspaper.

CLAYTON G. CHALPIN
Manager

The City Loan
AND SAVINGS COMPANY

108 W. MAIN STREET

CIRCLEVILLE, OHIO

PHONE 90

The Circleville Herald

Consolidation of The Circleville Herald established 1883, and the Daily Union-Herald, established 1894.

Published Evenings Except Sunday by
THE CIRCLEVILLE PUBLISHING COMPANY
210 N. Court Street, Circleville, Ohio

T. E. WILSON, Publisher

Member Ohio Newspaper Association, International News Service, Central Press Association, and the Ohio Select List

NATIONAL ADVERTISING REPRESENTATIVES
8 South Michigan Avenue, Chicago; 63 Fifth Avenue, New York; General Motors Building, Detroit.

SUBSCRIPTION

By carrier in Circleville, 15c per week. By mail, Pickaway County and Circleville trading territory, per year, $3 in advance; Zone one and two, $4 per year in advance, beyond first and second postal zones, per year, $5.50 in advance.

Entered at Postoffice at Circleville, Ohio, as Second Class Matter.

RUGGED SPORT

FOR the second time the Yellowstone National Park is going to be kept open all winter. This is not for the usual sight-seeing and camping purposes of the regular vacation season, but primarily for sport.

There is to be a definite program of winter sports, especially skiing, snowshoeing and tobogganing, and the main roads will be kept open as well as possible. In January and February there will be special days designated for visitors to see nature's wild-life show of big game animals—elk, deer, antelope, mountain sheep, buffalo, and so on—in their natural habitat.

Last winter 65,000 persons took advantage of the Yellowstone sport program, pouring in from long distances over snowy roads, and being rewarded with scenes of rare beauty along with their healthful sport. There may be 100,000 this winter.

Such fun would have seemed incredible a generation or two ago. It is evident that instead of our race growing soft with the progress of modern civilization, it is really getting harder and tougher. The bulk of these winter sportsmen are city people, who used to be regarded as "softies".

MORE PLENTIFUL JOBS

TWO encouraging employment reports are found in recent news from New York City and Albany, N. Y. The first states that only 2 per cent of the 1936 graduates of the school of Technology at City College are unemployed. More than three-fourths of them are busy in the engineering field for which they prepared. Nearly one-fifth are in other lines of work and 1 per cent are studying at graduate schools.

That report covers only one group of graduates from one technical school, but it may be representative of many others.

The Albany report comes from the State Associate Education Commissioner and deals with high school graduates. The commissioner announces that 86 per cent of the 15,000 June graduates of public vocational and technical high schools in the state have jobs.

"Industries are demanding more youthful labor, in most cases, than the schools can supply," he says. "The airplane industry wants mechanics far in excess of the supply. In some cities the same condition applies to machine shops. Power machine fields are absorbing girl operators as fast as they can be turned out. Even in the building trades, notably slow in the general pick-up, employment is increasing."

This is all to the good. The farther it goes the better, from both the social and economic standpoints. It will give us another chance to learn what our normal unemployment problem is and to devise better means of handling it than we could do while jobs were so scarce for everybody.

WORLD AT A GLANCE . . . . .

—By—
Charles P. Stewart

TO READ the state department's current account of it, Charles Evans Hughes, now chief justice of the federal supreme court, but state secretary in 1924, appears to have made a great mistake then, in discouraging Brazil from strengthening its navy, as it wanted to do. If the Brazilians had gone ahead with their program, the conclusion is that today they'd have been in much better shape than they actually are, to help the United States in the latter's patrol of Pan-America's Atlantic neutrality zone.

It's a sound conclusion all right, but it does justice (and ex-Secretary) Hughes considerably less than justice. Times aren't now what they were in 1924. Charles Evans would have needed to be a good bit of a prophet to see ahead 15 years in this rapidly changing era.

In 1924 I was just back from a prolonged residence in Brazil and Argentina and know, therefore, something of what I'm talking about.

HOW IT HAPPENED

It happened like this:

Brazil and Argentina are Latin-America's two major republics. They never have been very friendly. They adjoin and there long had existed more or less of a war threat between them.

The world conflict of 1914-18 had recently ended. "Never again" was the watchword in this country. The air here was saturated with disarmament sentiment.

At this juncture Brazil took a notion to reconstruct its navy. It needed experts to boss the job. It appealed to Uncle Sam to provide them. The prospect looked like a favorable one for us to make a barrelful of money by taking on the contract. Accordingly, we sent a naval mission to Rio de Janeiro to supervise the undertaking.

However, at that precise moment we were exerting ourselves to the utmost to persuade ourselves and other nations to cut down on war preparations. It certainly seemed inconsistent in us, just then, to have a naval mission in Rio, helping Brazil to arm against Argentina. There was plenty of Yankee criticism of such a policy. It assuredly was justified in the light of 1924's calculations.

IN 1924'S LIGHT

Secretary Hughes evidently thought so.

He told Brazil that we'd recall our naval mission if it proceeded with an obviously belligerent policy.

This correspondence wasn't made public. It would have been undiplomatic.

Only in the last few days has the state department opened its files, and revealed it, presumably with a view to putting Charles Evans Hughes "in bad," considering 1939's conditions.

Brazil was squelched, anyway. It would have been better for Justice Hughes, in the long run, if he'd told his story earlier, but it wouldn't have been popular then. He'd have given the impression that he was choking off a big South American warship-building program—with the United States getting the profits. He'd have been accused of being an anti-profiler. Now he's accused of having made a poor 1939 neutrality bet.

As of 1924, Hughes was a bad better in 1939. As of 1939 he was a bad better in 1924. It isn't because his judgment was punk.

It's because history is so eccentric.

Daily Washington Merry-Go-Round

BY DREW PEARSON AND ROBERT S. ALLEN,

DIDN'T WANT SHIPS

WASHINGTON—The attempt to transfer eight United States Lines vessels to the Panama flag is now a closed book, but there are two significant incidents which have leaked out.

One was the fact that Panama herself took a very decided stand against permitting the ships to fly her flag. Panama made it quite clear that transfer of the ships was likely to get her snarled up with Germany, and that her neutrality status must be similar to that of the United States.

If the United States could not risk sending these vessels into the war zone, Panama said that she did not want to do so. This clinched the argument within the Administration.

The other unrevealed incident was the fact that Cordell Hull, who later fought the transfer, actually had OK'd it, and in writing. His letter is still in the hands of the Maritime Commission.

What happened was that Admiral Land, chairman of the Commission, telephoned the Secretary of State at 4:30 on the afternoon before the Commission put out its favorable statement. Hull read his letter over the telephone and later mailed it. Having received this State Department OK, the Maritime Commission proceeded to approve the transfer.

However, it turned out later that Mr. Hull had not thoroughly understood the proposal, or else it was not carefully explained to him. Some of Hull's assistants go so far as to say that the Maritime Commission was deliberately deceptive. At any rate, Mr. Hull changed his mind.

Perhaps it was the emphatic position taken by Panama which helped to change it.

SENATORIAL COURTESY

Pronounced a new child prodigy violinist by musical critics of the Capital, Betty Jane Atkinson of Pittsburgh played before several private audiences in Washington recently. Among these were the leaders of the National Symphony and Mrs. Eleanor Patterson, publisher of The Times-Herald.

Mrs. Patterson also arranged for the 16-year-old violinist to play two numbers at a prominent Washington restaurant where she was entertaining a distinguished gathering. Most of those dining in the restaurant were enraptured. But from one table came loud and daucous conversation.

Chief conversationalist was Senator Tom Connally of Texas. For him, apparently, the neutrality debate still continued. Other guests listening to the violinist glanced pointedly in his direction, but the Senator talked on.

Finally, Mrs. Patterson went to the Senator's table and whispered: "Please, Senator. There is to be just this last number. She is very young. Would you mind . . . ?"

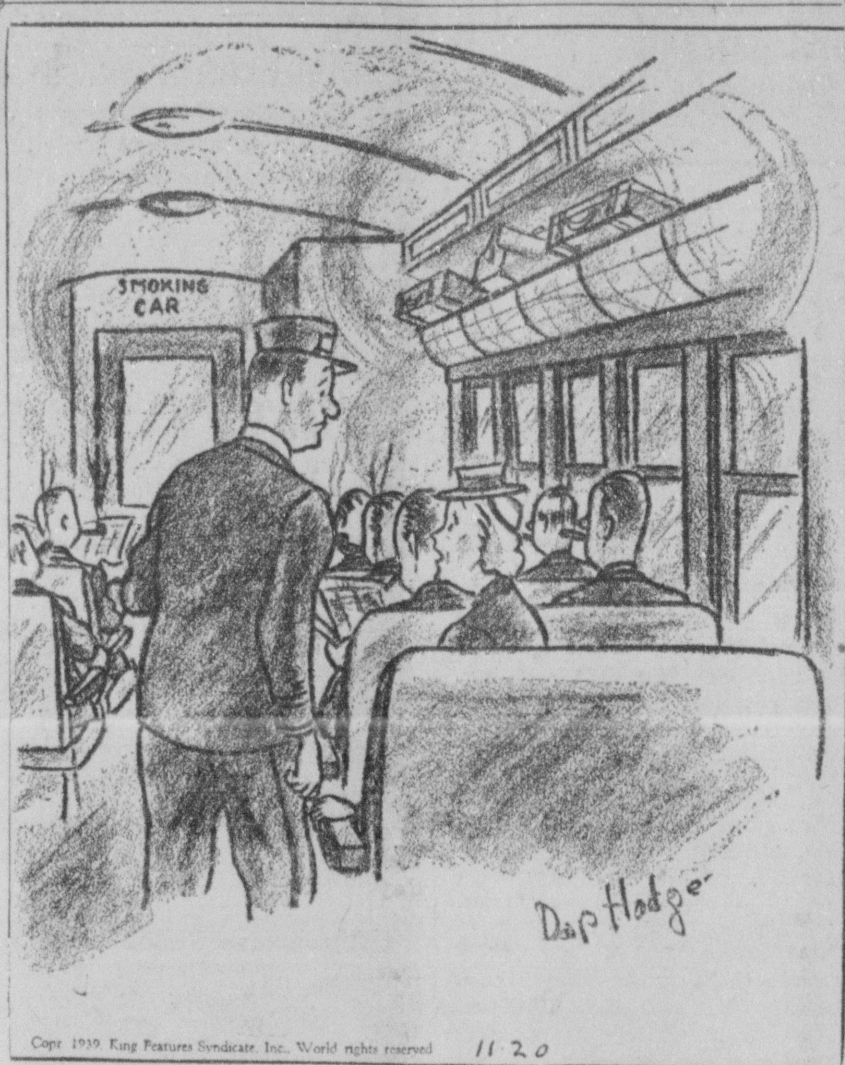

But the Senator did mind. Waving one arm, he declaimed: "What does this mean? Interfering with my dinner! Proprietor! Proprietor! Show this lady out—if she is a lady."

"HAM" FISH

Disclosure that Representative Hamilton Fish was employing a professional

(Continued on Page Ten)

LAFF-A-DAY

DIET AND HEALTH

Why Adolescence Is Hazardous Period

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M. D.

SHAKESPEARE WAS wrong about the ages of man. There are only four—infancy, to the end of the third year; childhood, from the third to about the twelfth year; adolescence, from about the twelfth to the eighteenth year, and adult maturity from then on.

Adolescence is the threshold to adult life, as infancy is the threshold to childhood. Adolescence is quite as hazardous and difficult a period as is infancy, and should command almost as much guidance as the earlier period.

The physical changes in adolescence are complicated by mental and emotional changes. The most striking physical changes are sudden accelerations in the development of

Dr. Clendingen will answer questions of general interest only, and then only through his column.

height and weight. This follows after the comparatively long period of practically unchanging development in childhood.

Every organ and tissue in the body is altered in childhood. The head grows mostly in the facial region. The cranium has attained nine-tenths of its mature size at six. The trunk grows rapidly during the early half of adolescence, this acceleration occurring two years earlier in girls than in boys.

Growth of Limbs

Most of the adolescent gain in height is due to the growth of the lower limbs. Both arms and legs lengthen near the cartilaginous ends of the bones, which unite firmly with the shaft of the bone late in adolescence. At maturity the legs are about five times as long as at birth. The circumference of the forearm, upper arm, calf and thigh increase largely through muscular growth. The growth of the pelvis differs according to sex, the girl's pelvis changing considerably at this period.

The adolescent heart nearly doubles in size to fulfill the circulatory requirements of the enlarging body. Glandular development is very marked in adolescence. The thyroid and pituitary glands are intensely activated. This results in development of the reproductive functions.

Diet Essentials

All these changes require certain adjustments.

The essentials of the adolescent's daily diet are given as follows: Viscera, meat, fowl, fish, eggs, or cheese—one serving.

Milk as a beverage—one pint; prepared in dishes—one pint.

Vegetables: leafy—two large servings; root—two large servings.

Fruit: raw—two servings; cooked—two servings.

Cereals: whole-grain—one large serving.

Additional foods optional.

Personal hygiene in regard to regularity of meals, exercise to enhance the efficiency of bodily function, personal cleanliness and attention to sex hygiene, particularly on the part of girls, are all matters that can be suggested and guided by the parents.

The most common physical problems of adolescence which require adjustment are posture, anemia, acne and the growth of the thyroid gland.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

A. R.: "Could tuberculosis permeate indefinitely in a house? Would it be quite safe to move into a house formerly inhabited by tuberculosis patients, but where no infected person has lived for five years? Should the house be fumigated after all these years?"

Answer: The best-informed opinion of modern times is that tuberculosis is transmitted only from person to person.

Seventeen: "Will you please advise a 17-year-old girl as to how I can keep my eyes clear and shining? I have good eyesight and very seldom have headaches, yet my eyes seem dull."

Answer—The eyes are bright and shining when we are alert and interested. Keep your soul bright and shining and the eyes will respond. To keep your soul bright and shining, you must not contaminate your body; cultivate good food, plain living, healthy outdoor exercise. Cold water is the best eye wash.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Dr. Clendingen has seven pamphlets which can be obtained by readers. Each pamphlet sells for 10 cents. For any one pamphlet desired, send 10 cents in coin and a self-addressed envelope stamped with a three-cent stamp, to Dr. Logan Clendingen, in care of this paper. The pamphlets are: "Three Weeks' Reducing Diet," "Indigestion and Constipation," "Reducing and Gaining," "Infant Feeding," "Instructions for the Treatment of Diabetes," "Feminine Hygiene" and "The Care of the Hair and Skin."

Looking Back in Pickaway County

FIVE YEARS AGO

Commissioners are considering construction of a garage at the rear of the courthouse to house county cars.

STARS SAY—

For Monday, November 20

MONDAY'S Astrological forecast is for sudden and surprising developments. There may be unforeseen change, journeys or removals, with new matters and distant interests uppermost. And while there are favorable auguries, at the same time there are conflicting and adverse signs. Be cautious with business as well as private correspondence, and avert unhappy complications.

Those whose birthday it is may have a year of unexpected change or adventure, involving new objectives, persons and environs. With caution and vigilance, trouble, trickery or fraud may be avoided. Social and domestic activities may give much pleasure. Be prepared for surprises in all affairs.

A child born on this day may be talented in unusual lines, with much originality and independence in thought and action. It may be fond of adventure and frequent change in residence and employment.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Parr, Watt Street, and daughter, Patty, spent the week end with relatives in Lynchburg and Wilmington.

The Rev. Harry Boyer, son of Mrs. Charles Boyer, East Union Street, accepted a call to Hope Lutheran Church, Columbus.

10 YEARS AGO

The vacant house at the extreme end of Walnut Street, owned by Charles Hampp, was destroyed by fire.

Miss Verda Eymann was elected president of the Evangelical League of Christian Endeavor.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Barnhill returned from Dayton where they attended the convention of the Cleaners' and Dyers' State Association.

25 YEARS AGO

John Elder, Civil War veteran, died at his home in New Holland.

Miss Anna Florence is spending the week with Miss Agnes McVean of Covington, Ky.

L. E. Miller, Watt Street, is seriously ill.

A human being can live for several weeks without food if he has water to drink.

"TELL BILL GOODBYE"

WRITTEN FOR AND RELEASED BY CENTRAL PRESS ASSOCIATION

By Marie Blizard

SYNOPSIS

THE CHARACTERS:
FABIENNE SEYMOUR, rich, young and beautiful.
NICKY BARTLETT, wealthy and in love with Fabienne.
ESTHER: Fabienne persuades Nicky to drive her to Willoughby house, the old Willoughby mansion which her grandfather has left as a settlement house.

CHAPTER THREE

MARCUS brought Fabienne's tray in and laid it across her knees. Annabelle slipped a pale blue elderdown across her shoulders. Her mother's maid, in maroon taffeta that was twin to Annabelle's, passed the door with clothes draped over her arm.

Fabienne stretched deliciously and said, "Somebody going some place?"

"Madame is having her trunks packed, Miss Fabienne," the butler told her and removed the silver tops of the breakfast dishes.

Fabienne inspected the dishes hungrily. There were rosy melon balls in ice, an egg with a fragrant brown sauce still sizzling in a minute baking dish, tiny sweet rolls toasted, and a pot of coffee.

There were also the morning newspapers and two piles of mail. Marcus poured coffee and went out with the dish covers.

Fabienne settled back in her pillows and opened her mail. She gobbled the melon balls while she read the bills. Then she turned to the invitations, the little notes with foreign post-marks while she ate the rest of her breakfast.

There wasn't a crumb left when she finished.

Sheer curtains, like lingerie petticoats, billowed lazily in the sunny, September breeze that blew in her windows. In the room beyond she could hear Annabelle's movements as she prepared her bath.

Oh, what a lovely morning, she thought. For what? For golf? For shopping? She ran through her mail. Helene Carrington wanted her to serve on a committee for some sort of refugee work. Heavens, no!

Gertrude came to her door. "I've decided to sail on the Normandie, Fab. The Derwents are going to take the apartment. Are you coming with me? I do think you ought to stay here, Edna and Mark would like to have you, but of course—"

"I'll let you know later, mother. You really mean that you think I ought to stay here until Nicky proposes again, don't you?"

Nicky! She'd forgotten that she'd told Nicky to call for her at eleven. What for? Oh, yes, she was going to make him drive her down to the slums. To Henderson street to see Willoughby house.

She regretted that impulse. To waste a beautiful morning drive down through the slums to appease an anger she had completely forgotten was silly.

Her mother's exasperated voice recalled her.

"Fabienne Seymour, you've got a disposition just like your . . ."

Fabienne grinned. She looked strangely like the old man then, old Elihu. "Nicky and I are going down to look over the family mansion."

"Oh, Fab!"

"Don't worry. I won't do anything but look it over."

"What is there to see?"

That was what Nicky wanted to know, too. Privately, Fabienne agreed with both of them that the expedition was a stupid one. There were so many more pleasant things to do on a bright September morning. But perversely was a strong trait in Miss Seymour and she was persistent about driving down to Henderson street.

"What is it anyway?" Nicky plucked her.

"It's a settlement house, darling."

"I recognized you from your photographs," said the other girl.

A place where children and . . . oh, I don't know any more than you. Only it is some kind of a neighborhood club where earnest young women teach people things they don't want to know. Grandfather Willoughby met some angel of mercy—some completely impossible Good Woman—named Ellen Chapman—who is supposed to be a miracle worker in the cause of charity. And she sold him on the idea of lending the house to make the Henderson Street Settlement house. Then, as you know, he left the whole works to them as a memorial to his mother."

Nicky chortled. "She must have been some persuader. I thought the old man loved that place."

Fabienne said, "Humph!" She settled down glumly.

"Ever see her?"

"Who? Chapman? No. But can't you see her? Nice broad bosom and a lamp in her eyes. A spinster of fifty mothering all the dear unwashed."

Nicky turned the car off Seventh avenue and drove through a maze of crooked crowded streets. In an astonishingly short time they had left the neighborhood of neat apartments and now they drove more slowly through knots of screaming urchins who scampered through the streets. Bed clothing hung from the windows of the tenements that lined the narrow streets and pushcarts forced them to progress at a snail's pace.

"Want to turn back?" Nicky asked when they had narrowly avoided running over a baby carriage pushed into their path.

"When I slum, I slum. Push on. Fabienne answered, wrinkling her nose with distaste for the smells that assaulted it. After all, this is where he built his great mansion for his mother sixty years ago."

It was before them then. A mass of gray stone, with neat curtains in every window. There were patches of green grass between the iron paling of the fence and the building at the front. Back of it, they could see a playground. The sound of singing children's voices came from one of the opened upstairs windows.

Over the far-door that was open there was a new plate. On it, WILLOUGHBY HOUSE was written in black on a field of gold.

It was very clean and cool and spacious, that house sitting there

Fabienne did not want to go on. She didn't know how not to. She said, "Thank you . . . but perhaps . . . some other day."

Nicky was watching the little play from back of the wheel a few feet away.

Fabienne looked at him, hoping he'd catch her cue and call to her to hurry, but Nicky was grinning. Nicky was tremendously amused! For some strange reason, she felt piqued.

She turned to the other girl with a broad smile. "All right," she said. "Let's go. This might have been my house, you know. I'd like to see it. I never have. Mis—"

"I'm glad to have the privilege of showing it to you. May I introduce myself? My name is Ellen Chapman." She held out a small hand that was surprisingly firm and strong for such a slip of a girl.

(To Be Continued)

GRAB BAG

One-Minute Test

1. Why do we say "as poor as a church mouse?"
2. Where is the White sea?
3. What diplomatic representative ranks next below an ambassador?

Hints on Etiquette

Men never are invited to bridal showers, not even the bridegroom. The boys may come later, however, possibly to eat, and surely to see the girls home.

Words of Wisdom

The proper means of increasing the love we bear to our native country is to reside some time in a foreign one.—Shenstone.

Today's Horoscope

If your birthday is today, you will experience a mixture of joy and grief in the year now commencing, the stars indicate. Domestic happiness will be yours, but you will be troubled by a sudden and unexpected event. The child born on this date will be of a dreamy disposition, thriftless and somewhat careless and untidy. Such a child, however, will have compensating qualities in good-heartedness and a sympathetic nature, and be fairly fortunate throughout life.

One-Minute Test Answers

1. Because old-time churches had no kitchen or larder, so mice got nothing to eat in them.
2. In northern Russia, near the Arctic Circle.
3. Minister (plenipotentiary).

Factographs

The chili bean is no longer merely an article of diet. It's a new color that women are using on their fingernails.

Stylists are using artificial flowers for decorating dresses, and providing said flowers with zippers.

"STRIKE WHILE THE CASH IS COLD IRON IS HOT"

When you find a chance to profit, grab it! When you see a bargain, buy it! Rare bargains and golden opportunities won't wait. They go to the man with cash. At The City Loan you can get the money you need - $10 to $1000 - for immediate use, and pay it back on your own kind of terms.

Remember, opportunity is an impatient fellow. Don't wait! Find your big chance and see us for the cash.

Our new Jinney-Loan of $50 costs less than your daily newspaper.

CLAYTON G. CHALFIN
Manager

THE CITY LOAN
AND SAVINGS COMPANY

108 W. MAIN STREET
CIRCLEVILLE, OHIO

PHONE 90

We Pay CASH For
Horses $5-Cows $3
OF SIZE AND CONDITION
HOGS, SHEEP, CALVES and
COLTS REMOVED
Quick Service CALL Clean Trucks
Phone 104
Reverse Charge—
Pickaway Fertilizer
Circleville, O. A. Jones & Son

:—: Social Happenings-Personals-News Of Interest to Women :—:

Pomona Grange Meet Draws Crowd Of 200

Scioto Group Acts As Host For Occasion

More than 200 grangers were present for the quarterly meeting of Pomona Grange, the county grange organization, which was Saturday at Scioto Township School. Scioto Grange served as host for the day. Mrs. Raymond Hedges won the county apple pie contest held during this session. She will compete in the finals which will be at the annual meeting of the State Grange in Columbus, December 11-14.

C. D. Bennett, superintendent of Walnut Township School, was the speaker on the afternoon program which was devoted to the Thanksgiving theme. He told his reasons for thinking that each American citizen should be unusually thankful on this particular Thanksgiving Day, stressing our many blessings in contrast with the countries of war torn Europe. He held the attentive interest of the group throughout his pertinent address.

The morning session was devoted to grange business and the quarterly reports of subordinate and juvenile granges were received. Resolutions of respect in the death of G. M. Newton were read. At noon, lunch was served by Scioto Grange.

Mrs. Kenneth Holtrey of Nebraska grange was obligated in the fifth degree during the afternoon session.

The Thanksgiving program, in addition to the talk by Mr. Bennett included group singing of "America the Beautiful"; a paper, "Then Came Thanksgiving", by Mrs. Paul Peters of Scioto Valley Grange; a quartet selection by Mrs. Clara Dresbach, Mrs. Marvin Dreibach, Mrs. George Jury and Mrs. George Bennett of Logan Elm Grange; reading, "Why Thanksgiving Day?", Mrs. Russell Anderson, Saltcreek Valley Grange; quartet number, Mrs. Paul Beers, Mrs. Elizabeth Bethards, Milton Beatty and Vaughn Neal, Scioto Grange; play, "Another John Alden", by members of Washington Grange including Arthur Leist, Mrs. Louella Stout, Mrs. S. L. Warner, Miss Mary K. Bowman and Miss Ethel May. The closing number of the interesting program was the solo "God Bless America" by Miss Glendal Dick of Scioto Grange.

Miss Mary Shortridge, county 4-H Club leader, served as judge in the apple pie contest.

Pomona Grange will meet in February, Logan Elm Grange serving as host at Pickaway Township School.

The fifth degree work will be exemplified in full for the candidates who have been obligated during the year Monday, December 4, at Scioto Grange meeting at Scioto Township School.

Anniversary Party
Mr. and Mrs. Fred Woodward of East Franklin Street were honored at a surprise party Sunday observing their tenth wedding anniversary.

A group of friends gathered in their home, serving a delicious

Social Calendar

MONDAY
WALNUT RURAL YOUTH, Walnut Township School, Monday at 8 p. m.
MONDAY CLUB, LIBRARY Trustees' room, Memorial Hall, Monday at 7:30 p. m.
WASHINGTON TOWNSHIP PTA, Washington School, Monday at 8 p. m.
Y. T. C., HOME MISS RUTH Gard, East Franklin Street, Monday at 8 p. m.
TUESDAY
D.A.R., HOME MRS. C. K. Hunsicker, 146 West Union Street, Tuesday at 6 p. m.
D. U. V., POST ROOM, MEMORIAL Hall, Tuesday at 7:30 p. m.
LOGAN ELM GRANGE, PICKAWAY Township School, Tuesday at 8 p. m.
SALT CREEK VALLEY Grange, Saltcreek Township School, Tuesday at 8 p. m.
CHILD CONSERVATION LEAGUE, home Mrs. Robert T. Kelley, Tuesday at 2:30 p. m.
WEDNESDAY
JOLLY TIME CLUB, HOME Mrs. Fred Fitzpatrick, East Main Street, Wednesday at 2 p. m.
FRIDAY
COTILLION CLUB DANCE, Memorial Hall, Friday at 7:30 p. m.
WASHINGTON GRANGE, Washington Township School, Friday at 7:30 p. m.

lunch at the close of an evening at the card tables.
Included in the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Ward, Mr. and Mrs. John Neff, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Woodward and family of Circleville; Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Crites of Stoutsville; Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Neff of Columbus and Mr. and Mrs. Woodward and daughter of the home.

Piano Recital
Several Circleville pupils of Miss Anna L. Merz of Columbus will be included in the piano recital which she has planned for Tuesday, November 21, in a Columbus music center.

Mary Carolyn Weller will play two numbers, "In a Park" and "French Folk Song" by Adair; Phyllis Weller, "Spinning Song" by Elmenreich; Eleanor Weaver, "Petite Hungarian Rhapsody"; John Thompson and "By Tranquil Waters"; Ketterer; Carolyn Herrman, "Sarabande" by Rebe; "Waltzing Doll" by Poldini; and "Scotch Poem" by MacDowell; Dorothy Jenkins, "Music Box"; Liebleich and "Northern Festival"; Torjussen; Regina Thornton, "The Girl with the Flaxen Hair"; Debussy, "Prelude in C Minor"; Chopin and "Valse in C Minor"; Chopin; Ruth Esther Blum, "To a Water Lily"; MacDowell, "Liebesfreud"; Kreisler, "On Wings of Song"; Mendelssohn-Liszt, "Gavotte in E Major"; Bach-Saent Saens and "Fire Dance" by Huerter.

D.A.R. Anniversary
Dr. Arthur S. Watts of Ohio State University, Columbus, will talk on "Ceramics and Ohio Clay" at the anniversary meeting of the Pickaway Plains Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, Tuesday at 6 p. m. at the home of Mrs. C. K. Hunsicker, West Union Street.

It is requested that members take table service for the cooperative dinner, for themselves and husbands who are invited to attend the meeting.

Dinner Party

A group of Circleville friends motored to Chillicothe Sunday and enjoyed a dinner party at the Town House.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Hedges, Mr. and Mrs. John Boggs, Mrs. Glenn I. Nickerson, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Mader, Mr. and Mrs. George P. Foreman, Mrs. W. Emerson Downing, Mack Parrett, Jr., Judge and Mrs. Meeker Terwilliger, Mr. and Mrs. Orion King, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Bales of Circleville and Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Herrstein of Chillicothe.

King's Heralds Meet

The King's Heralds and Little Light Bearers of Hedges Chapel held their November meeting at the home of Charleen, Mariuth, Genevieve and Vaughn Dresbach, near Ashville.

A talk by Miss Alice Weaver followed devotional service. Genevieve Dresbach was in charge of the program and included a recitation by Dolores Shaffer; piano solo, Sarah Jane Hedges; a story, Donna A. May; talks by Miss Weaver and Mrs. Anna Hedges.

Lunch was served by the hostesses at the close of the meeting.

Game Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Adkins of East Main Street were hosts at a game dinner Sunday the affair marking the birthday anniversary of Mr. Adkins, and their wedding anniversary.

Covers for the dinner served at 3 o'clock were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Adkins and their family, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ullom, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hilyard, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hott, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Lyle, Mrs. Edward Helwagen and daughter, Betty Lou, Mrs. T. P. Brown, Paul Brown, Miss Adella Huffman, Mrs. Charles Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Denman, of Circleville; Mr. and Mrs. William Lappe, Washington C. H.; Miss Margaret Adkins, Medina and Russell Henry of Atlanta.

Miscellaneous Shower

Miss Roma Melvin, bride-elect, was honored at a miscellaneous shower Friday evening, Mrs. Russell Skaggs and Mrs. Henry Bar-

thelmas entertaining a group of her friends at the Skaggs home, 954 South Pickaway Street.

The living room was decorated with pink and white crepe paper, a large bell being suspended from the chandelier.

The guests were entertained with clever games, Miss Marjorie Westenhaver and Miss Annabelle Barch winning score favors.

Miss Melvin opened her many attractive gift packages while seated under the wedding bell.

The guests were Miss Melvin, Mrs. Herbert Melvin, Miss Ruth Melvin, Mrs. Mabel Westenhaver, Mrs. Raymond Stevens and son, Nelson, Mrs. George L. Troutman, Mrs. George Barch, Mrs. John Himrod, Mrs. Charles Walters, Mrs. George Eitel, Jr., Mrs. Floyd Ott, the Misses Marjorie Westenhaver, Lottie Walters, Annabelle Barch, Marvyn Riffel, James Barthelmew of Circleville and Mrs. Harold Crosse of Williamsport.

The lunch, which was served by the hostesses after the games, was in keeping with the prevailing color theme.

Westminster Circle

Nine members of the Westminster Circle of the Presbyterian Church met Saturday afternoon at the home of the Misses Joan and Elizabeth Downing, Wayne Township.

During the short business session, it was decided to send the towels which had been made by the group to the Mary Holmes mission school in the South. Plans were made for the Christmas party which will be Saturday, December 9, at 2 p. m. at the manse. Betty Moeller will be in charge of the program for the party. Circle members will exchange gifts at this time.

The scrapbooks were completed and will be sent in the Christmas box to Martins Ferry, to be distributed to needy children. The group plans also to make rag dolls for the box.

Mrs. Gail Creager of Stoutsville visited Saturday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Carter of East Mound Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Cole of Columbus were guests over the week end of Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Burke of North Pickaway Street.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Replogle South Scioto Street have returned home after spending a week on a hunting trip in northern Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McCollister and daughter, Jean Ruth, were Saturday visitors in Circleville.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wright and family of Williamsport and Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Binns and son, Tommy, of Chillicothe were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Wright and family of Saltcreek Township.

Mrs. John Miller and children of Pickaway Township were in Circleville, shopping, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Landis of Logan Elm Farm, Elmwood, were Saturday business visitors in Circleville.

Miss Ann Denman of Ohio State University, Columbus, spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Denman, of North Pickaway Street.

Mrs. Robert Wolf and Mrs. Nelson T. Walters of Circleville visited friends in Lancaster, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Heintz of Detroit, Mich., have returned home after spending the week end with her mother, Mrs. Frank Mason, of Watt Street.

Mrs. Abbie Gusman and granddaughter, Miss Lillie Mae French, of East Franklin Street spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Pepperkorn of Cincinnati.

Robert G. Hessong of Akron was a weekend guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Walters and daughters, Mary and Harriet, of Lancaster Pike.

Mrs. Noah G. Spangler, Mrs. Clara Belle Spangler and daughter, Nancy Ann, returned Saturday from Hollywood, Fla. where they have passed the last six weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Overly and daughters, Gloria and Eileen, of Chillicothe are spending the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Overly of East Ringgold.

Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Goeller and daughter, Judith, and Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Warren of East Franklin Street were in Athens Sunday where they visited Mr. and Mrs.

George Reynold Ropeter and family, formerly of Circleville.

Miss Leah Ann Crites of Capital University, Columbus, spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Crites of Stoutsville.

Donald Olen White of Columbus spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Don J. White of South Scioto Street.

Mrs. T. A. Saunders, Mrs. Joe Spencer and daughter, Sandra, and Mrs. Carl Carter of Portsmouth were Friday guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. Dee Early of West Franklin Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Davis of Springfield, formerly of Monroe Township, left last week for a trip to Los Angeles. They plan to make an extended visit with their son, Gaylord, who recently completed a degree course in accounting and secretarial science. He is now associated with the Lockheed Airplane company.

Miss Virginia Dreisbach of Columbus visited during the week end with Miss Ruth Beers of Circleville Township.

Richard Cockerill of Circleville and William Junk, Ohio State University, Columbus were hunting guests Saturday of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Sollars of Washington C. H.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Peters of Walnut Township were Circleville visitors, Saturday.

Mrs. Bessie Good of Stoutsville shopped in Circleville, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth List of Williamsport were business visitors in Circleville, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Metzger of Williamsport were Circleville visitors, Saturday.

Mrs. William Whitehead and daughter, Wilma Jean, of Ashville were Saturday visitors in Circleville.

Mrs. Cora Rader Hood and Miss Nettie Rader of Pickaway Township shopped in Circleville, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hill of Muhlenberg Township were Circleville business visitors, Saturday.

Mrs. Hazel Rader and daughter, Letitia, of Fox were Saturday shoppers in Circleville.

Mrs. Minnie Snyder and Miss Cleona Dunnick of Ashville were Saturday shoppers in Circleville.

Mrs. Wright Dunkel of Washington Township shopped in Circleville, Saturday.

Mrs. Roland McDonald of Ashville was a Saturday caller in Circleville.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Alexander of Ashville were Saturday business visitors in Circleville.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Peters of Walnut Township were Circleville visitors, Saturday.

Mrs. Bessie Good of Stoutsville shopped in Circleville, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth List of Williamsport were business visitors in Circleville, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Metzger of Williamsport were Circleville visitors, Saturday.

Mrs. William Whitehead and daughter, Wilma Jean, of Ashville were Saturday visitors in Circleville.

Mrs. Cora Rader Hood and Miss Nettie Rader of Pickaway Township shopped in Circleville, Saturday.

Miss Marguerite Dillon of Oakland was a Saturday shopper in Circleville.

Mrs. C. E. Meyers of near Stoutsville was a Circleville visitor, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ward of Walnut Township were in Circleville on business, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Clark of Deercreek Township were Saturday business visitors in Circleville.

Mrs. Charles Henry of Atlanta shopped in Circleville, Saturday.

Mrs. O. S. Bookwalter of Kings-ton shopped in Circleville, Saturday.

BAD MEMORY

SEKONK, Mass. — Town authorities charged that Mrs. Stella L. Smith, 56, had obtained $852 in welfare funds since 1933 under false representation. In the refrigerator police found a purse containing $24. Hidden in a sack of meal was a second purse containing $1,000 in large bills of the 1928 series. Mrs. Smith claimed she had forgotten where the money was hidden.

The man at the next desk rises to say that he knows a lot of wives who go with their husbands to football games just to get ideas on how to break through the bargain counter brigade.

These Rugs
Make Wonderful Christmas
Gifts

They're Here Again—These
5 Piece
Rugs ..... $1.19

These rugs are made from Wilton Carpet Remnants and worth twice or three times this price. Size 21x36 in., there's wonderful color combinations and just fit in almost any place in the house—choose yours now.

GRIFFITH & MARTIN
"WHERE FLOORCOVERING IS A SPECIALTY"

SPECIAL
Bunte's
MINT COOLERS
15¢
Gallagher's
DRUG STORES
105 W. Main St.

THE ★ Jewelry Gift
She Will Remember!
HAMILTON
America's Fine Watch

Hamilton . . Celia—17 jewels
yellow gold filled .....$42.50

Flawless blue white center diamond
4 side diamonds set in platinum 14 K
yellow gold .....$90.00

Our diamonds offer an assurance of quality
which costs no more.

We Invite You To Use Our Convenient Layaway Plan

Famous For Diamonds
L. M. Butch Co. Finer Jewelry
JEWELERS For the 58th
Christmas

PRE-THANKSGIVING

SALE

TURBANS SOAR SKYWARD
IN BREATHTAKING COLORS

Another sensational purchase, just received for a timely pre-holiday event. Rich Velvets, French Beltings and other new supply fabrics.

Thrilling Jewel
Tones and Black...
Headsizes from 21½ to 23.

$2

REGULAR $2.95 AND $3.95 VALUES!

CRIST
DEPT. STORE

It's On STEVENSON'S
12 LB. TURKEY
FREE!

With Any ESTATE
Product Until
Thanksgiving Nov. 23rd

Save Work
ESTATE
MECHANICAL HAND
Slides the baking in and out of the oven.

Save Time
THERMESTATE
and
TIME ESTATE
even controls do the watching and waiting
for you.

Save Food
ESTATE FRESH-AIR OVEN means perfect
baking every time
—no disappointments.

COME IN!
Discover a dozen other thrilling reasons why your life will be easier and happier with an

ESTATE Gas Range

STEVENSON'S FURNITURE CO.
148 W. MAIN ST.
Circleville—Phone 334

THANKS TO MOTHER
FOR A LOVELY MEAL—

—and Thanks To
Our New Tappan
Gas Range, Too

Family appreciation for mother's cooking will quicken with the advent of a new Tappan in the kitchen. Countless modern improvements such as Visualite oven, Visiguide cooking chart, divided top, Flexo-speed oven with low temperature burner, CleanQuick smokeless broiler, giant top burner with simmer-set valve, steps cooking into a new world of ease and enjoyment. The Tappan "Celebration" model is equipped with all these features and more. Regularly priced at $129.75 — it is now reduced to $99.75 for a limited time. Other models priced as low as $69.75 during this sale. Convenient terms.

TAPPAN
"Celebration"
MODEL

Now—
SAVE
$30.00
ON THIS MODEL

The Gas Company

GAS DOESN'T COST IT PAYS!

:—: Social Happenings-Personals-News Of Interest to Women :—:

Pomona Grange Meet
Draws Crowd Of 200

Scioto Group Acts
As Host For Occasion

More than 200 grangers were present for the quarterly meeting of Pomona Grange, the county grange organization, which was Saturday at Scioto Township School. Scioto Grange served as host for the day. Mrs. Raymond Hedges won the county apple pie contest held during this session. She will compete in the finals which will be at the annual meeting of the State Grange in Columbus, December 11-14.

C. D. Bennett, superintendent of Walnut Township School, was the speaker on the afternoon program which was devoted to the Thanksgiving theme. He told his reasons for thinking that each American citizen should be unusually thankful on this particular Thanksgiving Day, stressing our many blessings in contrast with the countries of war torn Europe. He held the attentive interest of the group throughout his pertinent address.

The morning session was devoted to grange business and the quarterly reports of subordinate and juvenile granges were received. Resolutions of respect in the death of G. M. Newton were read.

At noon, lunch was served by Scioto Grange.

Mrs. Kenneth Holtrey of Nebraska grange was obligated in the fifth degree during the afternoon session.

The Thanksgiving program, in addition to the talk by Mr. Bennett included group singing of "America the Beautiful"; a paper, "Then Came Thanksgiving", by Mrs. Paul Peters of Scioto Valley Grange; a quartet selection by Mrs. Clara Dresbach, Mrs. Marvin Dreibach, Mrs. George Jury and Mrs. George Bennett of Logan Elm Grange; reading, "Why Thanksgiving Day?", Mrs. Russell Anderson, Salt Creek Valley Grange; quartet number, Mrs. Paul Beers, Mrs. Elizabeth Bethards, Milton Beatty and Vaughn Neal, Scioto Grange; play, "Another John Alden", by members of Washington Grange including Arthur Leist, Mrs. Louella Stout, Mrs. S. L. Warner, Miss Mary K. Bowman and Miss Ethyl May. The closing number of the interesting program was the solo "God Bless America" by Miss Glendal Dick of Scioto Grange.

Miss Mary Shortridge, county 4-H Club leader, served as judge in the apple pie contest.

Pomona Grange will meet in February, Logan Elm Grange serving as host at Pickaway Township School.

The fifth degree work will be exemplified in full for the candidates who have been obligated during the year Monday, December 4, at Scioto Grange meeting at Scioto Township School.

Anniversary Party
Mr. and Mrs. Fred Woodward of East Franklin Street were honored at a surprise party Sunday observing their tenth wedding anniversary.

A group of friends gathered in their home, serving a delicious

Social Calendar

MONDAY
WALNUT RURAL YOUTH, Walnut Township School, Monday at 8 p. m.
MONDAY CLUB, LIBRARY Trustees' room, Memorial Hall, Monday at 7:30 p. m.
WASHINGTON TOWNSHIP PTA, Washington School, Monday at 8 p. m.
Y. T. C., HOME MISS RUTH Gard, East Franklin Street, Monday at 7:30 p. m.
TUESDAY
D.A.R., HOME MRS. C. K. Hunsicker, 146 West Union Street, Tuesday at 6 p. m.
D. U. V., POST ROOM, MEMORIAL Hall, Tuesday at 7:30 p. m.
LOGAN ELM GRANGE, PICK- away Township School, Tuesday at 8 p. m.
SALT CREEK VALLEY Grange, Salt Creek Township School, Tuesday at 8 p. m.
CHILD CONSERVATION LEAGUE, home Mrs. Robert T. Kelly, Tuesday at 2:30 p. m.
WEDNESDAY
JOLLY TIME CLUB, HOME Mrs. Fred Fitzpatrick, East Main Street, Wednesday at 2 p. m.
FRIDAY
COTILLION CLUB DANCE, Memorial Hall, Friday at 7:30 p. m.
WASHINGTON GRANGE, Washington Township School, Friday at 7:30 p. m.

lunch at the close of an evening at the card tables.

Included in the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Ward, Mr. and Mrs. John Neff, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Peters of Scioto Valley Grange; Mr. and Mrs. Harl Dilsaver of Amanda; Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Crites of Stoutsville; Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Neff of Columbus and Mr. and Mrs. Woodward and daughter of the home.

Piano Recital
Several Circleville pupils of Miss Anna L. Merz of Columbus will be included in the piano recital which she has planned for Tuesday, November 21, in a Columbus music center.

Mary Carolyn Weller will play two numbers, "In a Park" and "French Folk Song" by Adair; Phyllis Weller, "Spinning Song" by Elmenreich; Eleanor Weaver, "Petite Hungarian Rhapsody"; John Thompson and "By Tranquil Waters"; Ketterer; Carolyn Herrman, "Sarabande" by Rebe; "Waltzing Doll" by Poldini; and "Scotch Poem" by MacDowell; Dorothy Jenkins, "Music Box"; Liebhich and "Northern Festival"; Torjussen; Regina Thornton, "The Girl with the Flaxen Hair"; Debussy, "Prelude in C Minor"; Chopin and "Valse in C Minor"; Chopin; Ruth Esther Blum, "To a Water Lily"; MacDowell, "Liebesfreud"; Kreisler, "On Wings of Song"; Mendelssohn-Liszt, "Gavotte in E Major"; Bach-Saent Saens and "Fire Dance" by Huerter.

D.A.R. Anniversary
Dr. Arthur S. Watts of Ohio State University, Columbus, will

talk on "Ceramics and Ohio Clay" at the anniversary meeting of the Pickaway Plains Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, Tuesday at 6 p. m. at the home of Mrs. C. K. Hunsicker, West Union Street.

It is requested that members take table service for the cooperative dinner, for themselves and husbands who are invited to attend the meeting.

Dinner Party
A group of Circleville friends motored to Chillicothe Sunday and enjoyed a dinner party at the Town House.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Hedges, Mr. and Mrs. John Boggs, Mrs. Glenn I. Nickerson, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Mader, Mr. and Mrs. George P. Forsman, Mrs. W. Emerson Downing, Mack Parrett, Jr., Judge and Mrs. Meeker Terwilliger, Mr. and Mrs. Orion King, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Bales of Circleville and Mr. and Mrs. A. E. HERNSTEIN of Chillicothe.

King's Heralds Meet
The King's Heralds and Little Light Bearers of Hedges Chapel held their November meeting at the home of Charleen, Marluth, Genevieve and Vaughn Dresbach, near Ashville.

A talk by Miss Alice Weaver followed devotional service. Genevieve Dresbach was in charge of the program and included a recitation by Dolores Shaffer; piano solo, Sarah Jane Hedges; a story, Donna A. May; talks by Miss Weaver and Mrs. Anna Hedges.

Lunch was served by the hostesses at the close of the meeting.

Game Dinner
Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Adkins of East Main Street were hosts at a game dinner Sunday the affair marking the birthday anniversary of Mr. Adkins, and their wedding anniversary.

Covers for the dinner served at 3 o'clock were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Adkins and their family, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ullom, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hilyard, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hott, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Lyle, Mrs. Edward Helwagen and daughter, Betty Lou, Miss Adella Huffman, Mrs. Charles Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Denman, of Circleville; Mr. and Mrs. William Lappe, Washington C. H.; Miss Margaret Adkins, Medina and Russell Henry of Atlanta.

Miscellaneous Shower
Miss Roma Melvin, bride-elect, was honored at a miscellaneous shower Friday evening, Mrs. Russell Skaggs and Mrs. Henry Bar-

thelmas entertaining a group of her friends at the Skaggs home, 954 South Pickaway Street.

The living room was decorated with pink and white crepe paper, a large bell being suspended from the chandelier.

The guests were entertained with clever games, Miss Marjorie Westenhaver and Miss Annabelle Barch winning score favors.

Miss Melvin opened her many attractive gift packages while seated under the wedding bell.

The guests were Miss Melvin, Mrs. Herbert Melvin, Miss Ruth Melvin, Mrs. Mabel Westenhaver, Mrs. Raymond Stevens and son, Nelson, Mrs. George L. Troutman, Mrs. George Barch, Mrs. John Himrod, Mrs. Charles Walters, Mrs. George Eitel, Jr., Mrs. Floyd Ott, the Misses Marjorie Westenhaver, Lottie Walters, Annabelle Barch, Marvinne Riffel, James Barthelmew of Circleville and Mrs. Harold Crose of Williamsport.

The lunch, which was served by the hostesses after the games, was in keeping with the prevailing color theme.

Westminster Circle
Nine members of the Westminster Circle of the Presbyterian Church met Saturday afternoon at the home of the Misses Joan and Elizabeth Downing, Wayne Township.

During the short business session, it was decided to send the towels which had been made by the group to the Mary Holmes mission school in the South. Plans were made for the Christmas party which will be Saturday, December 9, at 2 p. m. at the manse. Betty Moeller will be in charge of the program for the party. Circle members will exchange gifts at this time.

The scrapbooks were completed and will be sent in the Christmas box to Martins Ferry, to be distributed to needy children. The group plans also to make rag dolls for the box.

Mrs. Gail Creager of Stoutsville visited Saturday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Carter of East Mound Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Cole of Columbus were guests over the week end of Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Burke of North Pickaway Street.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Replogle South Scioto Street have returned home after spending a week on a hunting trip in northern Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McCollister and daughter, Jean Ruth, were Saturday visitors in Circleville.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wright and family of Williamsport and Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Binns and son, Tommy, of Chillicothe were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Wright and family of Salt Creek Township.

Mrs. John Miller and children of Pickaway Township were in Circleville, shopping, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Landis of Logan Elm Farm, Elmwood, were Saturday business visitors in Circleville.

Miss Ann Denman of Ohio State University, Columbus, spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Denman, of North Pickaway Street.

Mrs. Robert Wolf and Mrs. Nelson T. Walters of Circleville visited friends in Lancaster, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Heintz of Detroit, Mich., have returned home after spending the week end with her mother, Mrs. Frank Mason, of Watt Street.

Mrs. Abbie Guesman and granddaughter, Miss Lillie Mae French, of East Franklin Street spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Pepperkorn of Cincinnati.

Robert G. Hessong of Akron was a weekend guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Walters and daughters, Mary and Harriet, of Lancaster Pike.

Mrs. Noah G. Spangler, Mrs. Clara Belle Spangler and daughter, Nancy Ann, returned Saturday from Hollywood, Fla. where they have passed the last six weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Overly and daughters, Gloria and Eileen, of Chillicothe are spending the week end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Overly of East Ringgold.

Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Goeller and daughter, Judith, and Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Warren of East Franklin Street were in Athens Sunday where they visited Mr. and Mrs.

George Reynold Ropeter and family, formerly of Circleville.

Miss Leah Ann Crites of Capital University, Columbus, spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Crites of Stoutsville.

Donald Olen White of Columbus spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Don J. White of South Scioto Street.

Mrs. T. A. Saunders, Mrs. Joe Spencer and daughter, Sandra, and Mrs. Carl Carter of Portsmouth were Friday guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. Dee Early of West Franklin Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Davis of Springfield, formerly of Monroe Township, left last week for a trip to Los Angeles. They plan to make an extended visit with their son, Gaylord, who recently completed a degree course in accounting and secretarial science. He is now associated with the Lockheed Airplane company.

Miss Virginia Dreisbach of Columbus visited during the week end with Miss Ruth Beers of Circleville Township.

Richard Cockerill of Circleville and William Junk, Ohio State University, Columbus were weekend guests Saturday of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Sollars of Washington C. H.

Miss Anna Pontius of Tarlton was a Saturday shopper in Circleville.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Carmean and daughter, Margie, of Deer-creek Township were business visitors in Circleville.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hill of Muhlenberg Township were Circleville business visitors, Saturday.

Mrs. Hazel Rader and daughter, Letitia, of Fox were Saturday shoppers in Circleville.

Mrs. Minnie Snyder and Miss Cleona Dunnick of Ashville were Saturday shoppers in Circleville.

Mrs. Wright Dunkel of Washington Township shopped in Circleville, Saturday.

Mrs. Roland McDonald of Ashville was a Saturday caller in Circleville.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Alexander of Ashville were Saturday business visitors in Circleville.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Peters of Walnut Township were Circleville visitors, Saturday.

Miss Bessie Good of Stoutsville shopped in Circleville, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth List of Williamsport were business visitors in Circleville, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Metzger of Williamsport were Circleville visitors, Saturday.

Mrs. William Whitehead and daughter, Wilma Jean, of Ashville were Saturday visitors in Circleville.

Mrs. Cora Rader Hood and Miss Nettie Rader of Pickaway Township shopped in Circleville, Saturday.

Miss Marguerite Dillon of Oakland was a Saturday shopper in Circleville.

Mrs. C. E. Meyers of near Stoutsville was a Circleville visitor, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ward of Walnut Township were in Circleville on business, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Clark of Deer Creek Township were Saturday business visitors in Circleville.

Mrs. Charles Henry of Atlanta shopped in Circleville, Saturday.

Mrs. O. S. Bookwalter of Kings-ton shopped in Circleville, Saturday.

BAD MEMORY
SEEKONK, Mass. — Town authorities charged that Mrs. Stella L. Smith, 58, had obtained $852 in welfare funds since 1933 under false representation. In the refrigerator police found a purse containing $24. Hidden in a sack of meal was a second purse containing $1,000 in large bills of the 1928 series. Mrs. Smith claimed she had forgotten where the money was hidden.

The man at the next desk tries to say that he knows a lot of wives who go with their husbands to football games just to get ideas on how to break through the bargain counter brigade.

THE
★ Jewelry Gift
She Will Remember!
HAMILTON
America's Fine Watch

Hamilton . . Celia—17 jewels
yellow gold filled .....$42.50

Flawless blue white center diamond
4 side diamonds set in platinum 14 K
yellow gold .....$90.00

Our diamonds offer an assurance of quality
which costs no more.

We Invite You To Use Our Convenient Layaway Plan

Famous For L. M. Butch Co. Finer Jewelry
Diamonds JEWELERS For the 58th
Christmas

PRE-THANKSGIVING

SALE

TURBANS SOAR SKYWARD
IN BREATHTAKING COLORS

Another sensational purchase, just received for a timely pre-holiday event. Rich Velvets, French Beltings and other new supple fabrics.

Thrilling Jewel
Tones and Black...
Head sizes from 21½ to 23.

$2

REGULAR $2.95 AND $3.95 VALUES!

CRIST
DEPT. STORE

It's On STEVENSON'S
12 LB. TURKEY
FREE!

With Any ESTATE
Product Until
Thanksgiving Nov. 23rd

Save Work
ESTATE
MECHANICAL HAND
Slides the baking in and
out of the oven.

Save Time
THERMESTATE
and
TIME ESTATE
even controls do the watching and waiting
for you.

Save Food
ESTATE FRESH-AIR OVEN
means perfect
baking every time
— no disappointments.

COME IN!
Discover a dozen other thrilling reasons why your life will be easier and happier with an

ESTATE Gas Range

STEVENSON'S FURNITURE CO.
148 W. MAIN ST.
Circleville—Phone 334

THANKS TO MOTHER
FOR A LOVELY MEAL—

—and Thanks To
Our New Tappan
Gas Range, Too

Family appreciation for mother's cooking will quicken with the advent of a new Tappan in the kitchen. Countless modern improvements such as Visualite oven, Visiguide cooking chart, divided top, Flexo-speed oven with low temperature burner, CleanQuick smokeless broiler, giant top burner with simmer-set valve, steps cooking into a new world of ease and enjoyment. The Tappan "Celebration" model is equipped with all these features and more. Regularly priced at $129.75 — it is now reduced to $99.75 for a limited time. Other models priced as low as $69.75 during this sale. Convenient terms.

TAPPAN
"Celebration"
MODEL

Now—
SAVE
$30.00
ON THIS MODEL

The Gas Company

GAS DOESN'T COST IT PAYS!

CLASSIFIED ADS

Classified Ad Rates
To order a classified ad just telephone 782 and ask for an ad-taker. She will quote rates and help you write your ad. You may mail your ad to The Cincinnati Herald if you prefer.

WORD RATE
Per word each insertion ..... 2c
Per word 3 consecutive insertions 4c
Per word 6 insertions ..... 7c
Minimum charge one time .... 25c
Obituaries $1 minimum.
Card of Thanks 50c per insertion.
Meetings and Events 50c per insertion.
Publisher reserves right to edit or reject all classified advertising copy. Ads ordered for more than one time and cancelled before expiration will only be charged for the number of times the ad appears and adjustments made at the rate earned. Publishers reserve the right to classify ads under the appropriate headings.
Classified Ads received until 9 o'clock a. m. will be published same day. Publishers are responsible for only one incorrect insertion of an ad. Out of town advertising, household goods, etc., must be cash with order.

Automotive
NOW is the time to change to Winter lubricants in your transmission, differential and crankcase. Goodchild's Shell Service, phone 107.

Pontiac
Announces Four Great New Cars for '40 AT NEW LOW PRICES
THE SPECIAL SIX
THE DELUXE SIX
THE DELUXE EIGHT
THE TORPEDO EIGHT

Helwagen
MOTOR SALES

SNAP YOUR fingers — starts easy as that. Guaranteed Soblo Starting. R. E. Norris, corner Court and Franklin St.

PROMPT, efficient, courteous service. Modern rest rooms. Fleetwing gasoline. Everything is best at Nelson's Service Station.

See These Cars

- 1937 Terraplane Coach, Heater
- 1935 Chevrolet Master Deluxe Coupe, Radio and Heater
- 1935 Terraplane 4 Door, Heater
- 1939 Terraplane Coach, Heater
- 1933 Plymouth Coach, Heater

Pile Motor Sales

Places To Go
THERE'S always a congenial crowd at The Sportsman Pool Room. Why don't you join us?

BUSINESS DIRECTORY

A Detailed Reference to Business Facilities of Cincinnati

AUCTIONEER		FLORISTS
WALTER BUMGARDNER R. F. D. No. 2 Phone 1981		BREHMER GREENHOUSE 800 N. Court-st Phone 44
AUTOMOBILE DEALERS		LUMBER DEALERS RETAIL
HARDEN-STEVENSON CO. Chevrolet Phone 522		CINCINNATI LUMBER CO. 150 Edison-ave Phone 269
AUTO EQUIPMENT SERVICE AND SUPPLIES		ROOFING—SPOUTING
NELSON TIRE SERVICE General Tires Phone 475		FLOYD DEAN 317 E. High-st Phone 698 Carey Products "A Roof for every Building"
DAIRY PRODUCTS DEALERS		REAL ESTATE DEALERS
PICKAWAY DAIRY ASSN. Pickaway Butter. Phone 28		GEORGE C. BARNES 814 S. Court St. Phone 1006
ELECTRICAL EQUIPMENT DEALERS		TRUCKING COMPANIES
COLUMBUS AND SO. OHIO ELECTRIC CO. 114 E. Main-st Phone 236		CINCINNATI TRANSFER CO. 114 W. Water-st Phone 1227
ELECTRICAL WELDING SHOP		VETERINARIAN
YOUNG'S WELDING SHOP 205 S. Pickaway-st Phone 762		DR. C. W. CROMLEY Large and Small Animals. Phone Ashville 4.

Business Service
PAPER HANGING, painting and paper cleaning. E. F. Traub. Phone 8311.

CASKEY Cleaners

SPECIAL FOR WEEK
Suits ..... 55c
or 2 for $1.00

Overcoats ..... 75c
Ladies Fur Trims $1.00
CASKEYS CLEAN CLOTHES CLEAN
143 Pleasant St.
Phone 1034

CHRYSANTHEMUM SHOW
Continues Tuesday and Wednesday Afternoons at BREHMER'S

Live Stock
REGISTERED Hampshire boars, priced reasonably. Richard Noecker, phone Ashville 5811.

FOR SALE—Spotted sow—due to farrow in February. 2 years old. Fred Lewis on J. H. Bowers farm, 5 miles north just off Route 23.

FOR SALE — Guernsey-Brindle cow with heifer calf by side—third calf. Geo. M. Fitzpatrick.

CAPONS for Thanksgiving. Miller Fruit Farm, 5 miles from Cincinnati on Route 188.

PURE bred Hampshire sows and pigs. Priced to sell. A. Hulise Hayes. Phone 258.

TURKEYS FOR SALE. Mrs. Ernest Crites, Stoutsville, Ohio.

PURE BRED Poland China boars and gilts. Phone 1971. C. A. Dumm.

TURKEYS for sale. Phone 1684.

2 GOOD WORK HORSES for sale. Weight 1500 lbs. Phone 1084.

FOR SALE—Pure bred Cheviot buck lambs, $10 each. McCoy Brothers.

TURKEYS—Purina fed. Mrs. Howard Hinson. Phone 4971.

Financial
WE WILL LOAN you money to buy, build or repair your house or for personal needs. Interest 6%. Scioto Building & Loan Co.

MONEY TO LOAN on real estate. Inquire of C. A. Weldon, 112½ N. Court St.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY by Baer

"I still don't see why we live like this when there are so many good home values in The Herald classified ads."

Real Estate For Sale

WE SELL FARMS
OHIO STREET—6 rooms, one floor plan, 2 car garage.
TOWN STREET—5 rooms, gas, electricity, garage.
SOUTH COURT STREET — 5 rooms, electricity, gas, basement, one floor plan, 2 rest rooms, gas pumps in front leased, garage.
5 ACRES, 5 miles S. E. of Cincinnati. Level, small orchard, good well, cistern, 6 room house, closed-in porch, electricity, garage, corn crib, chicken house. Possession anytime.

CARL R. BEATY
Branch office—129½ W. Main St. Cincinnati, Phone 70
C. E. Valentine, local agent

FOR SALE
Several Modern Homes and Building Lots, well located.
A Modern Brick double close to Main Street, $4500.00.
80 Acre farm, good improvements, Price right for quick sale.
5 room frame dwelling with garage, $1600.00.
Grocery Stock and Fixtures, will trade for property.
Several good Poultry Farms and other good buys.
For further information, call or see

W. C. Morris, Realtor
Phone 234.
Rooms 3 and 4, Masonic Temple.

SOME exceptionally nice farms for sale near Cincinnati. Farm loans at 4½%.
W. D. HEISKELL
Williamsport, Ohio
Authorized Agent for Prudential Insurance Co. of America

Real Estate For Rent

3 ROOM furnished apartment—also sleeping room, newly decorated. Furnace heat. Phones 155 or 222. 356 E. Main St.
2 ROOM furnished light housekeeping rooms, 1 sleeping room. 327 S. Scioto St., phone 575.
STEAM HEATED apartments for light housekeeping. 226 Walnut St.

Wanted To Buy
RAW FUR bought at the White Rose Filling Station, 1130 S. Court St. on Saturdays only.

HIGHEST PRICES paid for furs in season. Also buy beef hides. See C. H. Paper, Mt. Sterling, Ohio.

We Buy
RAW FURS and HIDES
Highest Market Prices Paid
CINCINNATI IRON and METAL COMPANY
Phone No. 3
Mill and Clinton Sts.

Articles For Sale

HAVE you tried Circle City butter milk? 20c per gallon or 6c a quart in bottles. It's rich in energy and body builders. Circle City Dairy, phone 438.

BUY OUR COAL and save. Quality coals are cheapest. Get the best at The Pickaway Grain Co. Phone 91, we deliver.

IF IT'S quality and excellent service all at a thrifty price that you want, then shop at Ferguson's Market, 408 S. Pickaway St. Phone 315.

APPLES

All good varieties Fall and Winter apples, sweet cider at storage house in Laurelvile. Phone Laurelvile Exchange 333.

Bowers and Reichelderfer, Prop. Our cider may be bought at Gearhardt's Market in Cincinnati.

LAURELVILLE FRUIT FARMS
Laurelvile, O.—Rt. 56

COME in and see our selection of RCA Radios. We have everything electrical. Call us for your needs. A & B Radio Shop, S. Pickaway St.

CHRYSANTHEMUM SHOW
Continues Tuesday and Wednesday Afternoons at BREHMER'S

New Galvanized and Black PIPE
at Money-Saving Prices
Also New Pipe Fittings and Good Used Pipe

Get our prices before you sell Your Scrap Metal, Paper, Etc.

Cincinnati Iron & Metal Co.
Phone 3

STOVE REPAIRS—grates or full lining. Cash for your old stove. Urton & Son, New and Used Furniture, 211-213 W. Main St.

NEW and used cooking and heating stoves, coal or gas. Stove pipe, dampers and collars, all reasonably priced. 1 walnut wardrobe. R & R Auction & Sales, 162 W. Main St.

THOR electric washing machine. fine running condition. Bargain $10.00. Phone 392 or 644.

ENAMEL ROASTERS—Special at 60c and $1.00. Hamilton's 5c to $1.00 Store.

Lost

LOST—Heavy tan pigskin glove for left hand, size 7½. $2.00 reward. J. H. Jefferson, 509 S. Main St., Washington C. H., Ohio.

CHRYSANTHEMUM SHOW
Continues Tuesday and Wednesday Afternoons at BREHMER'S

Employment
MEN WANTED—To sell our extensive line of Fruit Trees and Ornamentals. Cash commission or salary paid weekly.
WAYNESBORO NURSERIES, WAYNESBORO, VA.

WANTED—Two men, neat appearance, able to give reference with direct sales or collecting. Experience to do local work. Apply L. B. Price Co., 76 South 4th St., Columbus, Ohio.

WANTED—Married man, over thirty, with car; local territory. Good compensation for man who can sell; steady, pleasant work; your own boss; home nights. Wirt P. O. Box 420, Cambridge, Ohio.

Winter Favorite for Derby

VICTORIOUS in six straight starts as a two-year-old this year, Bimelich, Col. E. R. Bradley's latest, will be installed as winter book favorite for both the Kentucky Derby and the Preakness next year. Bimelich is shown in his stall at Pimlico, Md. Colonel Bradley already has won four Derbies.

Do Your Part!

Cincinnati's children all need the Park and Playground. It's up to you. Have you helped yet?

OLD BOY

Public Sales

No charge for publication of sales under this heading where regular advertising has been ordered in The Herald. Set your date early and get the benefit of this extra publication.

Monday, November 20 at 10 a. m. on David Ludwig farm, 3 miles S. of Cincinnati just off Kingston pike, sale of personal property of James N. Mowery. Emanuel Dresbach, auctioneer.

O. C. Rating

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 20—Ohio Conference football standings today follow:
Team	W	L	T	Pts	Opp	Team	W	L	T
Muskingum	7	0	0	150	13	Wittenberg	2	4	0
Toledo	1	0	0	29	9	Wheaton	2	4	0
Capital	1	0	1	121	12	Wheaton	2	4	0
Case	1	0	0	72	20	Wheaton	2	4	0
Bowling Green	1	1	1	92	33	Wheaton	2	4	0
Findlay	1	1	1	73	29	Wheaton	2	4	0
John Carroll	1	1	0	26	26	Wheaton	2	4	0
Denison	1	2	0	116	52	Wheaton	2	4	0
Ohio Northern	1	2	0	79	58	Wheaton	2	4	0
Wittenberg	2	2	0	123	29	Wheaton	2	4	0
Mount Union	2	3	1	54	86	Wheaton	2	4	0
Kent State	1	3	0	38	99	Wheaton	2	4	0
Marietta	1	0	0	22	65	Wheaton	2	4	0
Wheaton	2	4	0	58	95	Wheaton	2	4	0
Heidelberg	2	5	0	23	141	Wheaton	2	4	0
Baldwin-Wallace	1	4	0	46	19	Wheaton	2	4	0
Ashland	1	4	0	32	82	Wheaton	2	4	0
Oberlin	0	2	0	21	32	Wheaton	2	4	0
Kenyon	0	0	0	6	105	Wheaton	2	4	0
Ottawa	0	7	0	6	219	Wheaton	2	4	0

TARLTON

The King Helpers class of the Methodist Church held their meeting Thursday evening in the church basement. The business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. Forrest Pierce. After the meeting the following program was rendered, a solo on the Horn by Donald Root, duet by David and Franklin Ballard accompanied on the piano by Richard Ballard, and a solo by Gladys Marie Pierce. A delightful lunch was served.

Misses Burnelle and Freda Waliser, Salt Creek Township, entertained at dinner Friday the following guests: Ella Mae Spangler, Dorothy Hedges, Lucia Krelender, Twyla Patrick, Pauline Neff, Mildred Neff, Grace Heffner, Mrs. Marvin Hartranft, Mrs. Robert Bowers, Mrs. Nelson Waliser, Blanche Waliser and Mrs. Otis Waliser. The afternoon was spent in playing "Hop Ching."

We Pay For Horses $5&Cows $3
of Size and Condition
HOGS, SHEEP, CALVES, COLTS
Removed Promptly
Call
CINCINNATI FERTILIZER
Telephone
Reverse 1364 Reverse
Charges E. C. Baehsich, Inc. Charges

STATE TURNS EYES TOWARD GREAT HARMON

"He's The One To Stop", Say Ohioans As They Gird For Final Tilt

COLUMBUS, Nov. 20—The Football juggernaut of Ohio State, whose 21-to-0 victory Saturday over Illinois gave it a conference record of five straight wins, prepared today for its classic struggle at Ann Arbor with Michigan, ancient rival and pre-season favorite for Conference and national honors.

That was before the same Illini team that was smothered by Ohio State rose to inspired heights and smacked down the mighty Wolverines by a 16-to-7 score. The Wolverines, still reeling from that almost unbelievable upset, suffered another setback from Minnesota the following week, but rose again to football eminence Saturday and handed a 19-to-17 drubbing to Penn.—with Thomas Harmon mainly responsible. He's the boy Ohio State will have to stop.

State, now sure of a tie for conference honors and riding on top of the heap, needs only a victory over the Wolves to assure themselves of an undisputed title—something they've dreamed about since they last held one back in 1920.

And so they were to enter the game slight favorites—but anything can and usually does happen when those two rivals meet. The dope bucket has been dented beyond recognition by past titanic struggles between the Bucks and the Wolverines.

Buck casualties were heavy in the Illini contest, particularly in their Maginot line. However, most of the bumps and bruises were expected to react to treatment before Saturday's game, with the possible exception of Jim Langhurst's knee injury.

A contingent of 15,000 Buckeye fans will make the trek to Ann Arbor with the fond hope of seeing their Bucks dine on Wolf meat and capturing the undisputed title. Even if they should lose, a Northwestern victory over Iowa would accomplish the same result.

BULLIES' LEAD WHITTLED DOWN BY LOS ANGELES

LOS ANGELES, Calif., Nov. 20—The lead of the Columbus Bullies, top-dogs in the American Professional Football League, had been whittled to a more slender prop today by a pair of sensational field goals that gave the second place Los Angeles Bulldogs a 20 to 14 victory over the league leaders.

The toe of Tillie Manton booted the three-pointers from 49 to 36 yards out to give his team the six-point victory. His first boot, in the second quarter, broke a 14-all deadlock, and his final effort in the last stanza put the game on ice.

Columbus' Davis-to-Busch pass combination clicked for a 65-yard touchdown heave in the first canto to give the Bullies an early lead. But the Bulldogs came back with a 55-yard drive to tie the score before the quarter ended, Hutchinson scoring.

Los Angeles forged ahead with a touchdown pass of 39 yards in the second quarter, Peterson to Beatty. Columbus bounced back with 80 yards in two plays, Reupke covering the final 20 to pay dirt. Then came Manton's field goals to end the scoring.

The season's record of the two teams now stands:
Columbus: won eight, lost two.
Los Angeles: won three, lost one.
Score by periods:
Columbus ..... 7 7 0 0—14
Los Angeles .... 7 10 0 3—20
In the only other league game yesterday, Kenosha handed the Louisville Tanks a 34 to 10 drubbing before only 307 fans at Louisville. The game was played in the rain.

CHEVROLET LEADS
NEW CAR REGISTRATION
USED CAR RESALE VALUE
LOW COST OPERATION
LOW COST OF UPKEEP
Better Investigate and Invest.
THE HARDEN-STEVENSON CO.

CLASSIFIED ADS

Classified Ad Rates

To order a classified ad just telephone 782 and ask for an ad-taker. She will quote rates and help you write your ad. You may mail your ad to The Cincinnati Herald if you prefer.

WORD RATE
Per word each insertion ..... 2c
Per word 2 consecutive insertions 5c
Per word 6 insertions ..... 7c
Minimum charge one time ..... 25c
Obituaries $1 minimum.
Card of Thanks 50c per insertion.
Meetings and Events 50c per insertion.

Publisher reserves right to edit or reject all classified advertising copy. Ads ordered for more than one time and cancelled before expiration will only be charged for the number of times the ad appears and adjustments made at the rate earned. Publishers reserve the right to classify ads under the appropriate headings.
Classified Ads received until 9 o'clock a. m. will be published same day. Publishers are responsible for only one incorrect insertion of an ad. Out of town advertising, household goods, etc., must be cash with order.

Automotive

NOW is the time to change to Winter lubricants in your transmission, differential and chassis. Goodchild's Shell Service, phone 107.

Pontiac

Announces Four Great New Cars for '40 AT NEW LOW PRICES

THE SPECIAL SIX
THE DELUXE SIX
THE DELUXE EIGHT
THE TORPEDO EIGHT

Helwagen

MOTOR SALES

SNAP YOUR fingers — starts easy as that. Guaranteed Soho Starting. R. E. Norris, corner Court and Franklin St.

PROMPT, efficient, courteous service. Modern rest rooms. Fleetwing gasoline. Everything is best at Nelson's Service Station.

See These Cars

1937 Terraplane Coach, Heater

1935 Chevrolet Master Deluxe Coupe, Radio and Heater

1935 Terraplane 4 Door, Heater

1939 Terraplane Coach, Heater

1933 Plymouth Coach, Heater

Pile Motor Sales

Places To Go

THERE'S always a congenial crowd at The Sportsman Pool Room. Why don't you join us?

BUSINESS DIRECTORY

A Detailed Reference to Business Facilities of Cincinnati

AUCTIONEER

WALTER BUMGARDNER
R. F. D. No. 2 Phone 1851

AUTOMOBILE DEALERS

HARDEN-STEVENSON CO.
Chevrolet Phone 522

AUTO EQUIPMENT SERVICE AND SUPPLIES

NELSON TIRE SERVICE
General Tires Phone 475

DAIRY PRODUCTS DEALERS

PICKAWAY DAIRY ASSN.
Pickaway Butter. Phone 28

ELECTRICAL EQUIPMENT DEALERS

COLUMBUS AND SO. OHIO ELECTRIC CO.
114 E. Main-st Phone 236

ELECTRICAL WELDING SHOP

YOUNG'S WELDING SHOP
206 S. Pickaway-st Phone 762

Business Service

PAPER HANGING, painting and paper cleaning. E. F. Traub. Phone 8311.

CASKEY Cleaners

SPECIAL FOR WEEK

Suits ..... 55c
or 2 for $1.00

Overcoats ..... 75c

Ladies Fur Trims
$1.00

CASKEYS CLEAN CLOTHES CLEAN

143 Pleasant St.
Phone 1034

CHRYSANTHEMUM SHOW

Continues Tuesday and Wednesday Afternoons at BREHMER'S

Live Stock

REGISTERED Hampshire boars, priced reasonably. Richard Noecker, phone Ashville 5811.

FOR SALE—Spotted sow—due to farrow in February. 2 years old. Fred Lewis on J. H. Bowers farm, 5 miles north just off Route 23.

FOR SALE — Guernsey-Brindle cow with heifer calf by side—third calf. Geo. M. Fitzpatrick.

CAPONS for Thanksgiving. Miller Fruit Farm. 5 miles from Circleville on Route 188.

PURE bred Hampshire sows and pigs. Priced to sell. A. Hulise Hayes. Phone 258.

TURKEYS FOR SALE. Mrs. Ernest Crites, Stoutsville, Ohio.

PURE BRED Poland China boars and gilts. Phone 1971. C. A. Dumm.

TURKEYS for sale. Phone 1684.

2 GOOD WORK HORSES for sale. Weight 1500 lbs. Phone 1084

FOR SALE—Pure bred Cheviot buck lambs, $10 each. McCoy Brothers.

TURKEYS—Purina fed. Mrs. Howard Hinson, Phone 4971.

Financial

WE WILL LOAN you money to buy, build or repair your house or for personal needs. Interest 6%. Scioto Building & Loan Co.

MONEY TO LOAN on real estate. Inquire of C. A. Weldon, 112 1/2 N. Court St.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY by Baer

"I still don't see why we live like this when there are so many good home values in The Herald classified ads."

Real Estate For Sale

WE SELL FARMS

OHIO STREET—6 rooms, one floor plan, 2 car garage.

TOWN STREET—5 rooms, gas, electricity, garage.

SOUTH COURT STREET — 5 rooms, electricity, gas, basement, one floor plan, 2 rest rooms, gas pumps in front leased, garage.

5 ACRES, 5 miles S. E. of Circleville. Level, small orchard, good well, cistern, 6 room house, closed-in porch, electricity, garage, corn crib, chicken house. Possession anytime.

CARL R. BEATY

Branch office—129 1/2 W. Main St. Circleville, Phone 70
C. B. Valentine, local agent

FOR SALE

Several Modern Homes and Building Lots, well located.
A Modern Brick double close to Main Street, $4500.00.
80 Acre farm, good improvements, Price right for quick sale.
5 room frame dwelling with garage, $1600.00.
Grocery Stock and Fixtures, will trade for property.
Several good Poultry Farms and other good buys.
For further information, call or see

W. C. Morris, Realtor

Phone 234.
Rooms 3 and 4, Masonic Temple.

SOME exceptionally nice farms for sale near Circleville. Farm loans at 4 1/2 %.

W. D. HEISKELL
Williamsport, Ohio
Authorized Agent for Prudential Insurance Co. of America

Real Estate For Rent

3 ROOM furnished apartment—also sleeping room, newly decorated. Furnace heat. Phones 158 or 222. 356 E. Main St.

2 ROOM furnished light house-keeping rooms, 1 sleeping room. 327 S. Scioto St., phone 575.

STEAM HEATED apartments for light housekeeping. 226 Walnut St.

Wanted To Buy

RAW FUR bought at the White Rose Filling Station, 1130 S. Court St. on Saturdays only.

HIGHEST PRICES paid for furs in season. Also buy beef hides. See C. H. Paper, Mt. Sterling, Ohio.

We Buy
RAW FURS
and HIDES
Highest Market Prices Paid

CINCINNATI
IRON and METAL COMPANY
Phone No. 3
Mill and Clinton Sts.

This Space
Launched
By

BARNHILL DRY
CLEANERS

Articles For Sale

HAVE you tried Circle City butter milk? 20c per gallon or 6c a quart in bottles. It's rich in energy and body builders. Circle City Dairy, phone 438.

BUY OUR COAL and save. Quality coals are cheapest. Get the best at The Pickaway Grain Co. Phone 91, we deliver.

IF IT'S quality and excellent service all at a thrifty price that you want, then shop at Ferguson's Market, 408 S. Pickaway St. Phone 315.

APPLES

All good varieties Fall and Winter apples, sweet cider at storage house in Laurelville, Phone Laurelville Exchange 333.

Bowers and Reichelderfer, Prop. Our cider may be bought at Gearhardt's Market in Circleville.

LAURELVILLE FRUIT FARMS

Laurelville, O.—Rt. 56

COME in and see our selection of RCA Radios. We have everything electrical. Call us for your needs. A & B Radio Shop, S. Pickaway St.

CHRYSANTHEMUM SHOW

Continues Tuesday and Wednesday Afternoons at BREHMER'S

New Galvanized and Black PIPE

at Money-Saving Prices
Also New Pipe Fittings and Good Used Pipe

Get our prices before you sell Your Scrap Metal, Paper, Etc.

Circleville Iron
& Metal Co.
Phone 3

STOVE REPAIRS—grates or full lining. Cash for your old stove. Urton & Son, New and Used Furniture, 211-213 W. Main St.

NEW and used cooking and heating stoves, coal or gas. Stove pipe, dampers and collars, all reasonably priced. 1 walnut wardrobe. R & R Auction & Sales, 162 W. Main St.

THOR electric washing machine, fine running condition. Bargain $10.00. Phone 392 or 644.

ENAMEL ROASTERS—Special at 60c and $1.00. Hamilton's 5c to $1.00 Store.

Lost

LOST—Heavy tan pigskin glove for left hand, size 7 1/2. $20.00 reward. J. H. Jefferson, 509 S. Main St., Washington C. H., Ohio.

CHRYSANTHEMUM SHOW

Continues Tuesday and Wednesday Afternoons at BREHMER'S

Employment

MEN WANTED—To sell our extensive line of Fruit Trees and Ornamentals. Cash commission or salary paid weekly. WAYNESBORO NURSERIES, WAYNESBORO, VA.

WANTED—Two men, neat appearance, able to give reference with direct sales or collecting. Experience to do local work. Apply L. B. Price Co., 76 South 4th St., Columbus, Ohio.

WANTED—Married man, over thirty, with car; local territory. Good compensation for man who can sell; steady, pleasant work; your own boss; home nights. Write P. O. Box 420, Cambridge, Ohio.

Winter Favorite for Derby

VICTORIOUS in six straight starts as a two-year-old this year, Bimelich, Col. E. R. Bradley's latest, will be installed as winter book favorite for both the Kentucky Derby and the Preakness next year. Bimelich is shown in his stall at Pimlico, Md. Colonel Bradley already has won four Derbies.

Do Your Part!

Circleville's children all need the Park and Playground. It's up to you. Have you helped yet?

OLD BOY

Public Sales

No charge for publication of sales under this heading where regular advertising has been ordered in The Herald. Set your date early and get the benefit of this extra publication.

Monday, November 20 at 10 a. m. on David Ludwig farm, 3 miles S. of Circleville just off Kingston pike, sale of personal property of James N. Mowery. Emanuel Dresbach, auctioneer.

O. C. Rating

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 20—Ohio Conference football standings today follow:
Team W L T Pts OP
Muskingum ..... 7 0 0 23 13
Toledo ..... 1 0 0 29 86
Capital ..... 5 1 0 121 12
Case ..... 3 1 0 72 29
Bowling Green ..... 2 1 1 32 33
Findlay ..... 3 1 1 73 28
John Carroll ..... 2 1 0 26 26
Denison ..... 5 2 0 116 32
Ohio Northern ..... 5 3 0 79 58
Wittenberg ..... 3 2 2 123 29
Mount Union ..... 1 3 1 54 86
Kent State ..... 1 3 1 38 90
Marietta ..... 2 3 0 23 65
Wooster ..... 2 4 0 53 95
Heidelberg ..... 5 5 0 23 141
Baldwin-Wallace ..... 1 2 0 46 19
Ashland ..... 1 4 0 21 22
Oberlin ..... 0 2 0 0 105
Kenyon ..... 0 4 0 0 105
Otterbein ..... 0 7 0 0 219

TARLTON

The King Helpers class of the Methodist Church held their meeting Thursday evening in the church basement. The business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. Forrest-Pierce. After the meeting the following program was rendered, a solo on the Horn by Donald Root, duet by David and Franklin Ballard accompanied on the piano by Richard Ballard, and a solo by Gladys Marie Pierce. A delightful lunch was served.

Misses Burnelle and Freda Waliser, Salt Creek Township, entertained at dinner Friday the following guests: Ella Mae Spangler, Dorothy Hedges, Lucia Kreider, Twyla Patrick, Pauline Neff, Mildred Neff, Grace Heffner, Mrs. Marvin Hartranft, Mrs. Robert Bowers, Mrs. Nelson Waliser, Blanche Waliser and Mrs. Otis Waliser. The afternoon was spent in playing "Hop Ching."

We Pay For
Horses $5&Cows $3
of Size and Condition

HOGS, SHEEP, CALVES, COLTS
Removed Promptly
Call

CINCINNATI
FERTILIZER

Telephone
Reverse 1364 Reverse
Charges Charges
E. G. Buehlich, Inc.

STATE TURNS EYES TOWARD GREAT HARMON

"He's The One To Stop", Say Ohioans As They Gird For Final Tilt

COLUMBUS, Nov. 20—The Football juggernaut of Ohio State, whose 21-to-0 victory Saturday over Illinois gave it a conference record of five straight wins, prepared today for its classic struggle at Ann Arbor with Michigan, ancient rival and pre-season favorite for Conference and national honors.

That was before the same Illini team that was smothered by Ohio State rose to inspired heights and smacked down the mighty Wolverines by a 16-to-7 score. The Wolverines, still reeling from that almost unbelievable upset, suffered another setback from Minnesota the following week, but rose again to football eminence Saturday and handed a 19-to-17 drubbing to Penn.—with Thomas Harmon mainly responsible. He's the boy Ohio State will have to stop.

State, now sure of a tie for conference honors and riding on top of the heap, needs only a victory over the Wolves to assure themselves of an undisputed title—something they've dreamed about since they last held one back in 1920.

And so they were to enter the game slight favorites—but anything can and usually does happen when those two rivals meet. The dope bucket has been dented beyond recognition by past titanic struggles between the Bucks and the Wolverines.

Buck casualties were heavy in the Illini contest, particularly in their Magnot line. However, most of the bumps and bruises were expected to react to treatment before Saturday's game, with the possible exception of Jim Langhurst's knee injury.

A contingent of 15,000 Buckeye fans will make the trek to Ann Arbor with the fond hope of seeing their Bucks dine on Wolf meat and capturing the undisputed title. Even if they should lose, a Northwestern victory over Iowa would accomplish the same result.

BULLIES' LEAD WHITTLED DOWN BY LOS ANGELES

LOS ANGELES, Calif., Nov. 20—The lead of the Columbus Bullies, top-dogs in the American Professional Football League, had been whittled to a more slender prop today by a pair of sensational field goals that gave the second place Los Angeles Bulldogs a 20 to 14 victory over the league leaders.

The toe of Tillie Manton booted the three-pointers from 49 to 36 yards out to give his team the six-point victory. His first boot, in the second quarter, broke a 14-all deadlock, and his final effort in the last stanza put the game on ice.

Columbus' Davis-to-Busch pass combination led to a 65-yard touchdown heave in the first canto to give the Bullies an early lead. But the Bulldogs came back with a 55-yard drive to tie the score before the quarter ended, Hutchinson scoring.

Los Angeles forged ahead with a touchdown pass of 39 yards in the second quarter, Peterson to Beaty. Columbus bounced back with 80 yards in two plays, Reupke covering the final 20 to pay dirt. Then came Manton's field goals to end the scoring.

The season's record of the two teams now stands:

Columbus: won eight, lost two. Los Angeles: won three, lost one.

Score by periods:
Columbus ..... 7 7 0 0—14
Los Angeles ..... 7 10 0 3—20

In the only other league game yesterday, Kenosha handed the Louisville Tanks a 34 to 10 drubbing before only 307 fans at Louisville. The game was played in the rain.

CHEVROLET LEADS

NEW CAR REGISTRATION
USED CAR RESALE VALUE
LOW COST OPERATION
LOW COST OF UPKEEP

Better Investigate and Invest.

THE HARDEN-STEVENSON CO.

CROSS-WORD PUZZLE

11-20

ACROSS

- |                           |                                |                                       |                          |
|---------------------------|--------------------------------|---------------------------------------|--------------------------|
| 1. To rub off             | 20. To accept                  | 17. Full to the brim                  | 23. Hollow tube          |
| 6. Frosty                 | 23. Friend                     | 18. Symbol used in "Lloyd's Register" | 24. Affirm               |
| 8. Capital of Switzerland | 25. Salt                       | 19. Exist                             | 27. Measuring instrument |
| 10. Light boat            | 26. Personal pronoun           | 21. Every one                         | 29. River in Russia      |
| 11. Scandinavian myth     | 27. Bestow                     | 22. To darken                         | 30. Secured              |
| 12. Questions             | 28. Close-fitting cap          |                                       |                          |
| 13. Exclamation           | 30. Yawned                     |                                       |                          |
| 14. Nucleated cells       | 31. A yellow feather of the oo |                                       |                          |
| 16. Footlike organ        | 32. Mythical monster           |                                       |                          |
| 17. Delayed               | 33. Distend                    |                                       |                          |
| 19. Courageous            |                                |                                       |                          |

Answer to previous puzzle

APIARY SOW
BURLAP ORAL
ARIA RE FRA
SES DEMY T
BUS OATH
BATON CURIE IDOL TANKER
D THONG
DIE EWE HIT
YORE E MICE
SEN RAISED

Distributed by King Features Syndicate, Inc.

SCOTT'S SCRAP BOOK

By R. J. Scott

Do you know your dogs?

A BIG, DIGNIFIED DOG, WEIGHING AS MUCH AS A MAN — GOOD-NATURED, HE IS A SAFE GUARDIAN OF CHILDREN — HIS NOSE AND EARS ARE SURE TO BE BLACK.

ANSWER BELOW

WOMEN OF CENTRAL ASIA NEVER WASH THEIR HAIR — INSTEAD, THEY KEEP THEIR HAIR FULL OF GREASE

BIG SISTER

By Les Forgrave

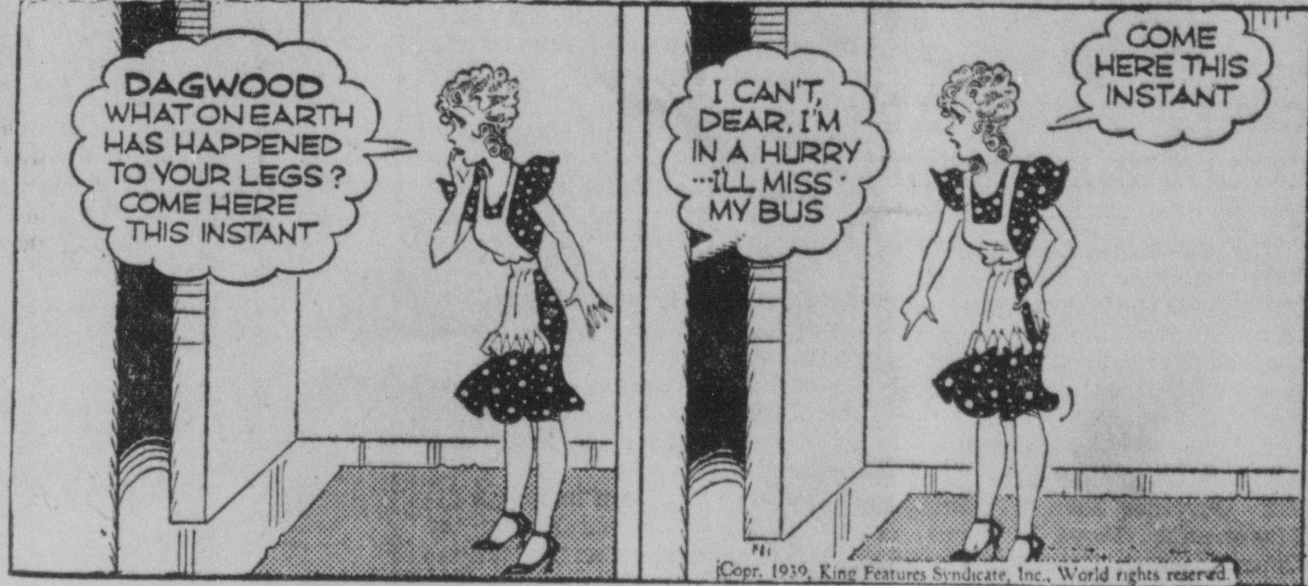

ROOM AND BOARD

By Gene Ahern

BLONDIE

DONALD DUCK

POPEYE

ETTA KETT

MUGGS McGINNIS

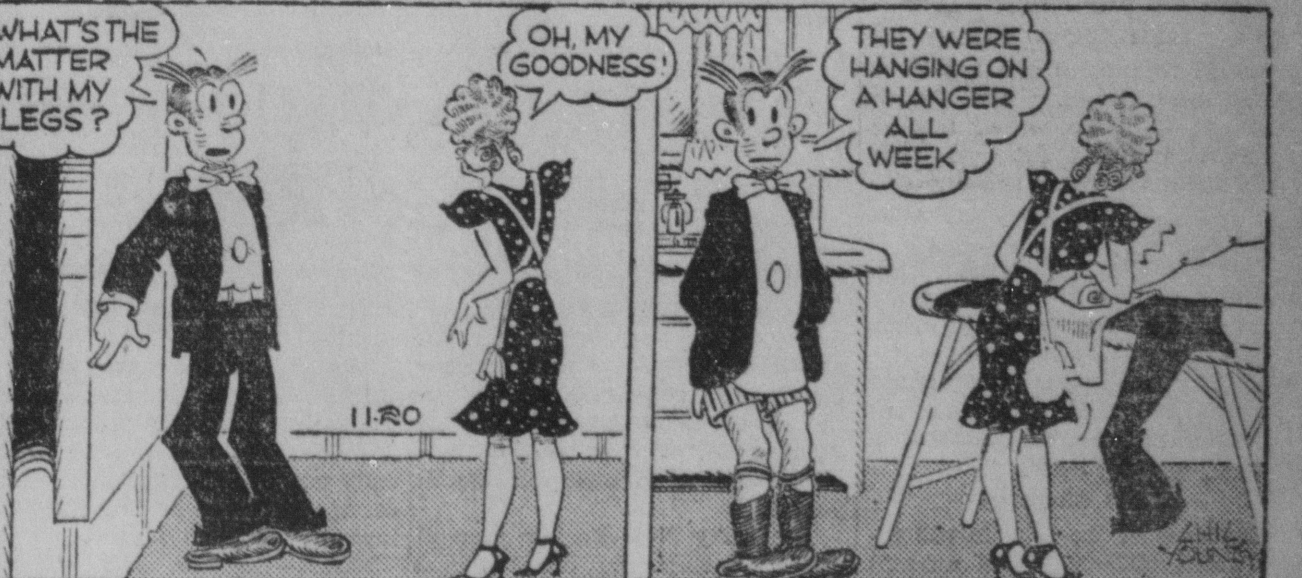

BRICK BRADFORD

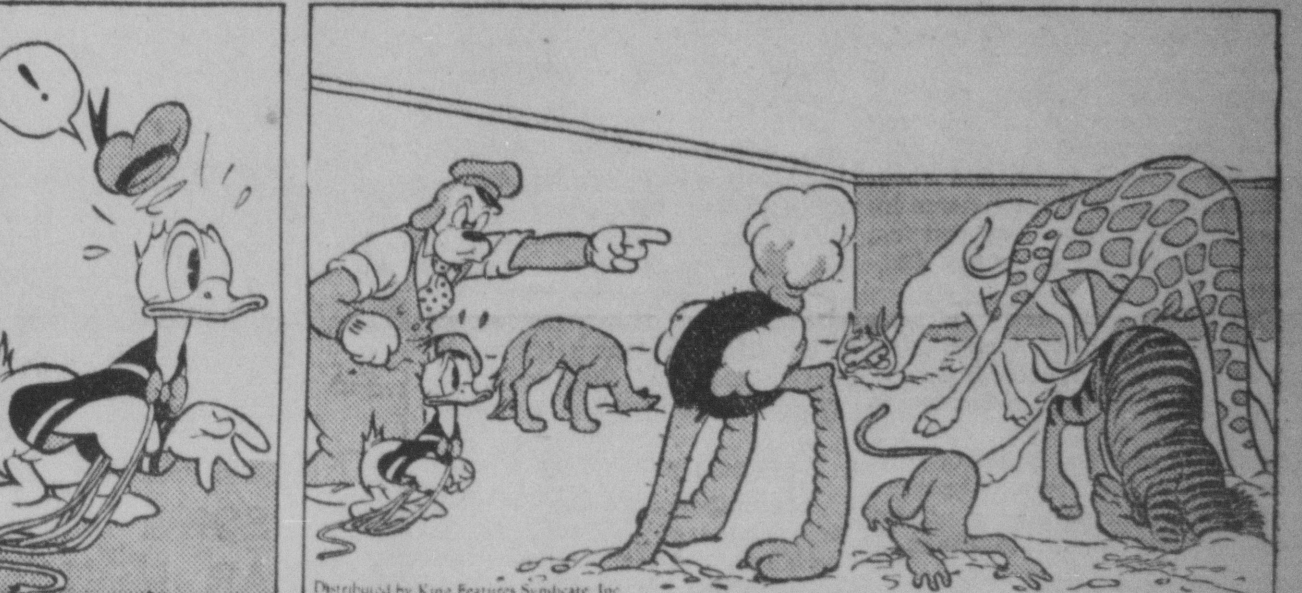

By William Ritt and Harold Gray

By Chic Young

By Walt Disney

By Paul Robinson

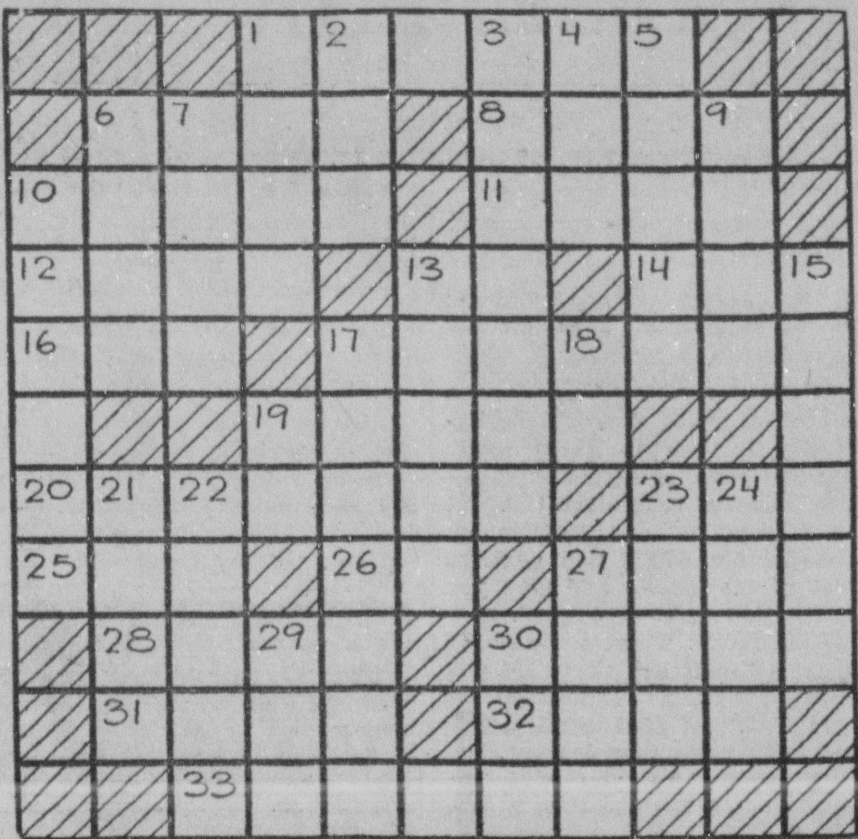

By Wally Bishop

CROSS-WORD PUZZLE

11-20

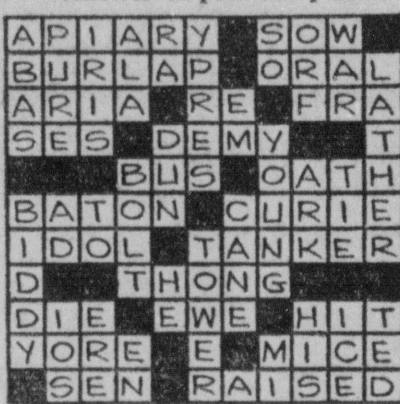

ACROSS

1. To rub off
6. Frosty
8. Capital of Switzerland
10. Light boat
11. Scandina- vian myth
12. Questions
13. Exclamation
14. Nucleated cells
16. Footlike organ
17. Delayed
19. Courageous
20. To accept
23. Friend
25. Salt
26. Personal pronoun
27. Bestow
28. Close-fitting cap
30. Yawned
31. A yellow feather of the oo
32. Mythical monster
33. Distend

DOWN

1. Masculine name
2. Secondary
3. To acquit
4. Large body of water
5. Disease of rye
6. Level to the ground
7. Material used for writing (pl.)
9. A hub
10. Frisks
13. To pant
15. Muddled
17. Full to the brim
18. Symbol used in "Lloyd's Register"
19. Exist
21. Every one
22. To darken
23. Hollow tube
24. Affirm
27. Measuring instrument
29. River in Russian
30. Secured

Answer to previous puzzle

Distributed by King Features Syndicate, Inc.

SCOTT'S SCRAP BOOK

By R. J. Scott

BIG SISTER

By Les Forgrave

ROOM AND BOARD

By Gene Ahern

BLONDIE

DONALD DUCK

POPEYE

ETTA KETT

MUGGS McGINNIS

BRICK BRADFORD

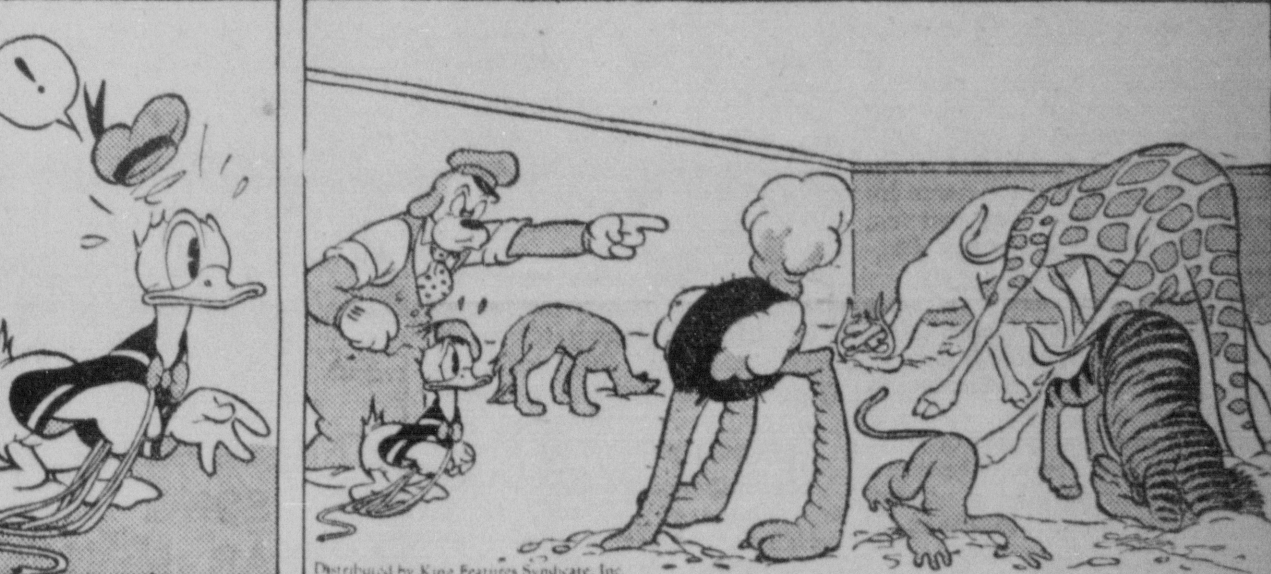

By William Ritt and Harold Gray

WHAT BUCKO SEES —

WHOP!

WHOP!

WHOP!

WHOP!

CIRCLEVILLE SCHOOLS FACE SHORTAGE OF $8,000 IN INCOME FOR 1940

SLASH IN CITY TAX RATE HITS INSTITUTIONS

Board Of Education Faces Difficult Problem For Next Year

FREE OF DEBT IN 1939

Increased Expenses, $6,000 Loss In Income Bring Big Local Problem

Circleville's schools face a shortage of about $8,000 in funds for operating expenses for 1940 as a result of the reduction ordered in Circleville's real estate tax rate.

The city's real estate tax rate for 1939, tentatively set at $15.40 per $1,000 must be cut to $14.80 with the reduction to be taken in funds for city schools, according to the tax board's ruling.

When the city's rate was tentatively set at $15.40 the schools expected to receive about $37,000 from local taxes. The $8,000 shortage is made up of income losses and added expense. The school income from taxes under the new levy will be only about $31,000.

Clarence Barnhart, clerk of the board, explained Monday that the city schools will receive about $52,000 from the state in 1940, $31,000 from local taxes and about $1,000 from other sources including tuitions, etc., making a total of about $84,000.

$8,000 Shortage
Expenses of the schools will total about $92,000. This amount includes $63,200 for salaries of the teachers, superintendent and principal, $6,000 for janitors, $2,100 for other salaries, $5,000 for coal, heat and light, $4,500 for books and educational supplies, $700 for sewer rental charges, $700 for janitors' supplies, $1,200 for other supplies and about $3,600 for various other items including insurance, advertising, etc. This makes a total of $92,000.

Mr. Barnhart explained the Board of Education would be able to end 1939 clear of debt but he could offer no explanation as to how the expenses could be met in 1940. He said the Board of Education in recent years had carried a balance over each year. There will be no balance to assist in 1940.

Salaries Advanced

Under the foundation program the salaries of teachers were advanced. The teachers, superintendent and principal formerly received about $54,000 as compared with $63,200.

Circleville's tax rate had been boosted .9 of a mill to provide additional funds for school purposes. The boost in the assessment was based on the contention that a .9 of a mill levy made to meet a bond issue of $130,000 in 1916 should not be in the 10-mill limitation. When this levy was tentatively taken from inside the limitation a similar levy was made inside the limitation for operating expenses.

The state tax commission advised County Auditor Forrest Short that one-third of the levy could be taken outside the limitation. It was pointed out at the time the levy was made there was a 15-mill limitation instead of a 10-mill limitation.

WESTERN MINING BOOM PREDICTED AS PRICES RISE

DENVER. — Cheery prospects for 1940 were predicted recently for western mining interests, "if present metal prices continue their advances."

Robert Palmer, secretary of the Colorado Mining Association, said that mining prospects look better for next year than they have at any time in the past five years. He said, however, that his organization does not favor "any system of profiteering by reason of the European conflict."

If metal prices continue upward, mining in Colorado will nearly double, thus boosting agriculture, transportation and all related business, he added.

Palmer said that zinc and manganese were leading the field in the mining revival and that all other metals would rise along with these strategic war materials. The federal government has been asked for $50,000 to make a survey of manganese deposits in the state, Palmer asserted.

The largest known zinc deposits in the nation are located at Gilman, Colo., and Palmer indicated a possibility those mines would be re-opened if zinc prices continue their upward trend.

There's Reason for This Street Being Deserted

THERE'S a reason for the deserted appearance of this street in Viipuri, Finland. The thriving Finnish seaport is within 30 miles of the Soviet border and more than 50,000 persons have been evacuated from it since the Soviet-Finnish crisis became acute. Note how the buildings are sand-bagged. This is an exclusive picture by Frank Muto.

The Daily Washington Merry-Go-Round

(Continued from Page Six)

money-raising concern, on a 25 per cent commission basis, to solicit funds for his "National Committee to Keep America out of Foreign Wars" has proved embarrassing to Ham's presidential yearnings.

The hefty New Yorker was all set to launch himself into the 1940 GOP sweepstakes by using the committee as his publicity foil. But instead of hurrahs, he is getting brickbats. In addition he might even face a congressional investigation.

Representative Clifton A. Woodrum, powerful Virginia Democrat, is making a secret probe of Fish's operations for the purpose of opening up on him when Congress reconvenes in January. The two men had a hot set-to over Fish's committee at the recent special session, and the money-raising disclosure was just the ammunition Woodrum need for his shotgun.

LITTLE BUSINESS MEN

Legislative plans for the January session of Congress still are nebulous, but at least one proposal is definitely slated for consideration—government loans to little business men.

Reason is that little business men are making it their business to get this legislation passed. They have quietly organized local pressure groups all over the nation to prevent a repetition of the congressional double-cross which scuttled them last Spring.

At that time the President, after much prodding, had OK'd a bill sponsored by Senator Jim Mead of New York, and in a White House conference was, in effect, told by Roosevelt to lineup for the legislation. Jealous of any encroachment on his lending prerogatives, Jones persistently had opposed the Mead bill, but finally agreed to go along.

Several days later the Senate Banking Committee held a hearing especially to give Jones a chance to bestow his blessing. But there he reverted to his secret animus and testified against the bill.

Little business men, still unable to get credit despite Jones' promises, mean to see that he doesn't pitch them any more low balls at the next session. Neither are they taking any chances on the President.

NEW MEAD BILL

Evidence of their aggressiveness was Mead's introduction of a new bill during the last days of the special session, after an unpublishing meeting with little business leaders. It would create an industrial loan corporation, financed by the Federal Reserve, to make moderate loans, to buy preferred stock, or to assist private underwriters to float small business securities.

The corporation's capital would be the $139,000,000 set aside four years ago for industrial loans by the Federal Reserve—and practically untouched. The Federal Reserve's record in helping little business men is also very sketchy.

NOTE—Senator Bob Wagner, chairman of the Banking Committee and a strong supporter of the Mead bill, privately has agreed to begin hearings on it in December before Congress opens.

SENATOR TAFT

Whether or not you agree with Bob Taft, you have to admit that he has a sense of humor. Sitting at dinner beside an old friend who had not seen him since he entered the Senate, Taft remarked: "They say I've improved, Doris, but I'm just the same as I ever was."

MARCHING MEN OF SONG WILL APPEAR MONDAY

The first of the Collins entertainments, sponsored by the Kiwanis Club, will be presented Monday evening in the high school auditorium.

Phil Clark's Marching Men of Song is the first program of the series. They also will present a program for Kiwanians at their meeting Monday evening.

FUNERAL SERVICE HELD FOR INFANT GIFFIN

Funeral services were held in White Church Cemetery, south of Hallsville, at 3 p. m. Sunday for Darrell Lawrence Giffin, infant son of William and Bessie Montgomery Giffin, Washington Township. The baby, one of a pair of twins, died at 1 p. m. Saturday about seven hours after birth.

Surviving besides the parents are the twin brother, Dale Leslie, and a half brother, Elmer Butterbaugh. The funeral was in charge of M. S. Rinehart.

THIS MAN SAVES $25 EACH YEAR ON HIS FUEL BILL

Cuts Gas Bill From $109 To $84 By Using Storm Sash

"I'm thoroughly sold on storm sash," says Earl W. Allen, 6838 Cherry St., Kansas City, Mo., "because it saves me money on my fuel. But that isn't all.

"Storm sash keeps my house at an even temperature, does away with foggy windows and condensation that used to cause water to run down on the inside of the windows and damage the woodwork and wallpaper."

This has been the experience of thousands who equip their homes with storm sash. The Circleville Lumber Co. will give you an estimate of the cost of storm sash in your home and will also give you an estimate of the savings which will result. He'll tell you what other home owners say storm sash did for them. You can buy storm sash through F. H. A. Financing with no down payment.

Call The Circleville Lumber Co. today and save money this winter. —adv.

THE GARDEN CLINIC

By VICTOR H. RIES,
O. S. U. floriculturist

QUESTION: The leaves of my oleander are sticky, then they dry up and drop off. There are little round brown spots on some of the leaves. Can you tell me what I can do for it?

ANSWER: The specimen that you sent along with your letter shows you have scale insects on your oleander. Although these are relatively easy to control by spraying with Volck, if you do not wish to purchase it you probably will get satisfactory control by taking an old toothbrush and Ivory soap and scrubbing both top and bottom surfaces of each leaf and the stem of the plant as well.

QUESTION: Will you kindly inform me if a farmer can sell trees from his woods to nurseries and real estate men without an inspection license?

ANSWER: The sale of all woody plants can be carried on only with a nursery license. This may be obtained through the Chief Nursery Inspector, Bureau of Plant Industry, State Office Building, Columbus, Ohio. The fee for this license is $20.

QUESTION: In storing my dahlias for the winter and packing them in sawdust, should I take the soil off them or leave it on?

ANSWER: It really does not make any difference unless the soil is wet and soggy when they are put in storage.

QUESTION: I am enclosing a list of the members of our garden club who would like to receive your Farm and Home Garden News Letter.

ANSWER: Although our News Letter which is published monthly is free to anyone upon request, a recent ruling of the Post Office Department requires that these requests be made by the individuals rather than by their club officers.

QUESTION: I am having a little difficulty in purchasing the golden rain tree. Can you tell me what other name is used for it?

ANSWER: The golden rain tree or Koelreuteria, is a very satisfactory small tree. It is often confused with the golden chain tree or Laburnum which is not nearly as hardy for Ohio conditions.

QUESTION: I would like very much to grow some blue spruce.

Will you please tell me how to use the new root growth substances in order to root the cuttings?

ANSWER: The ordinary Colorado blue spruce is grown from seeds but the good named varieties, which are preferable, since they cannot be grown satisfactorily from cuttings, are grafted. This must be done in the greenhouse and is difficult even for experienced nurserymen.

QUESTION: I have several mountain laurels in my yard which, besides having leaf spot, are rather skimpy and straggly in their growth. Can you tell me if they can be cut back?

ANSWER: Unless your plants

are very weak, you will find it perfectly satisfactory to cut them back to the ground any time between now and next spring.

QUESTION: I am writing you to see if you can tell me what to get to kill small bugs on my house plants.

ANSWER: Since there are a number of pests, it would be impossible for me to guess which ones you have. I suggest you ask your county agricultural agent for a copy of our bulletin on house plants which will describe most of the insects and give you information on their control.

QUESTION: I have about 40 shrubs of different sizes. If you know of anyone wishing to buy some, I will be glad to sell a few as I have more than I want.

ANSWER: As you will see from one of the answers above, in order for you to sell nursery stock it is necessary for you to take out a license with the State Bureau of Nursery Inspection. The license fee is $20.

QUESTION: What is the difference between the native woodbine or five-leaf ivy and the ivy that is sold by nurseries to plant on chimneys and brick buildings.

ANSWER: Although our native woodbine is sometimes used for this purpose, the Boston ivy is much more satisfactory for this

THANKSGIVING —DANCE—

PHI BETA PSI PRESENTS

PAUL DECKER and HIS ORCHESTRA

Wednesday Night

NOVEMBER 22nd

Memorial Hall

CIRCLEVILLE

10'til 1

Dress Optional

BENEFIT ELKS' PARK AND PLAYGROUND FUND

$1.50 Per Couple

Door Prize

Family Size 10 1/4 SKILLET

LOWEST PRICE EVER MADE ON

Genuine Wagner Ware

Large Wagner Cast Iron Skillet brings back all the delicious flavor of old-fashioned cooking.

Gives a lifetime of service. Easy to use and clean. An exceptional buy.

Formerly $1.00 NOW ONLY 59c

Harpster & Yost Hardware

107 E. MAIN PHONE 136

Chesterfield holds the Record for REAL MILDNESS

and Better Taste

because of its Right Combination of the world's best cigarette tobaccos

The real reason more and more smokers are asking for Chesterfield is because CHESTERFIELD'S RIGHT COMBINATION of the world's best cigarette tobaccos gives them a better smoke...definitely milder, cooler and better-tasting. For real smoking pleasure...you can't buy a better cigarette.

Make your next pack

Chesterfield

MILDER FOR MILLIONS MILDER FOR YOU

DRAPERIES Expertly Cleaned

We guarantee satisfactory work, for we have the necessary knowledge and skill, and the essential facilities and equipment.

BARNHILL CLEANERS

PHONE 710

CIRCLEVILLE SCHOOLS FACE SHORTAGE OF $8,000 IN INCOME FOR 1940

SLASH IN CITY TAX RATE HITS INSTITUTIONS

Board Of Education Faces Difficult Problem For Next Year

FREE OF DEBT IN 1939

Increased Expenses, $6,000 Loss In Income Bring Big Local Problem

Circleville's schools face a shortage of about $8,000 in funds for operating expenses for 1940 as a result of the reduction ordered in Circleville's real estate tax rate.

The city's real estate tax rate for 1939, tentatively set at $15.40 per $1,000 must be cut to $14.80 with the reduction to be taken in funds for city schools, according to the tax board's ruling.

When the city's rate was tentatively set at $15.40 the schools expected to receive about $37,000 from local taxes. The $8,000 shortage is made up of income losses and added expense. The school income from taxes under the new levy will be only about $31,000.

Clarence Barnhart, clerk of the board, explained Monday that the city schools will receive about $52,000 from the state in 1940, $31,000 from local taxes and about $1,000 from other sources including tuitions, etc., making a total of about $84,000.

$8,000 Shortage
Expenses of the schools will total about $92,000. This amount includes $63,200 for salaries of the teachers, superintendent and principal, $6,000 for janitors, $2,100 for other salaries, $5,000 for coal, heat and light, $4,500 for books and educational supplies, $700 for sewer rental charges, $700 for janitors' supplies, $1,200 for other supplies and about $3,600 for various other items including insurance, advertising, etc. This makes a total of $92,000.

Mr. Barnhart explained the Board of Education would be able to end 1939 clear of debt but he could offer no explanation as to how the expenses could be met in 1940. He said the Board of Education in recent years had carried a balance over each year. There will be no balance to assist in 1940.

Salaries Advanced

Under the foundation program the salaries of teachers were advanced. The teachers, superintendent and principal formerly received about $54,000 as compared with $63,200.

Circleville's tax rate had been boosted .9 of a mill to provide additional funds for school purposes. The boost in the assessment was based on the contention that a .9 of a mill levy made to meet a bond issue of $130,000 in 1916 should not be in the 10-mill limitation. When this levy was tentatively taken from inside the limitation a similar levy was made inside the limitation for operating expenses.

The state tax commission advised County Auditor Forrest Short that one-third of the levy could be taken outside the limitation. It was pointed out at the time the levy was made there was a 15-mill limitation instead of a 10-mill limitation.

WESTERN MINING BOOM PREDICTED AS PRICES RISE

DENVER, — Cheery prospects for 1940 were predicted recently for western mining interests, "if present metal prices continue their advances."

Robert Palmer, secretary of the Colorado Mining Association, said that mining prospects look better for next year than they have at any time in the past five years. He said, however, that his organization does not favor "any system of profiteering by reason of the European conflict."

If metal prices continue upward, mining in Colorado will nearly double, thus boosting agriculture, transportation and all related business, he added.

Palmer said that zinc and manganese were leading the field in the mining revival and that all other metals would rise along with these strategic war materials. The federal government has been asked for $50,000 to make a survey of manganese deposits in the state, Palmer asserted.

The largest known zinc deposits in the nation are located at Gilman, Colo., and Palmer indicated a possibility those mines would be re-opened if zinc prices continue their upward trend.

There's Reason for This Street Being Deserted

THERE'S a reason for the deserted appearance of this street in Viipuri, Finland. The thriving Finnish seaport is within 30 miles of the Soviet border and more than 50,000 persons have been evacuated from it since the Soviet-Finnish crisis became acute. Note how the buildings are sand-bagged. This is an exclusive picture by Frank Muto.

The Daily Washington Merry-Go-Round

(Continued from Page Six)

money-raising concern, on a 25 per cent commission basis, to solicit funds for his "National Committee to Keep America out of Foreign Wars" has proved embarrassing to Ham's presidential yearnings.

The hefty New Yorker was all set to launch himself into the 1940 GOP sweepstakes by using the committee as his publicity foil. But instead of hurrahs, he is getting brickbats. In addition he might even face a congressional investigation.

Representative Clifton A. Woodrum, powerful Virginia Democrat, is making a secret probe of Fish's operations for the purpose of opening up on him when Congress reconvenes in January. The two men had a hot set-to over Fish's committee at the recent special session, and the money-raising disclosure was just the ammunition Woodrum need for his shotgun.

LITTLE BUSINESS MEN

Legislative plans for the January session of Congress still are nebulous, but at least one proposal is definitely slated for consideration—government loans to little business men.

Reason is that little business men are making it their business to get this legislation passed. They have quietly organized local pressure groups all over the nation to prevent a repetition of the congressional double-cross which scuttled them last Spring.

At that time the President, after much prodding, had OK'd a bill sponsored by Senator Jim Mead of New York, and in a White House conference was, in effect, told by Roosevelt to lineup for the legislation. Jealous of any encroachment on his lending prerogatives, Jones persistently had opposed the Mead bill, but finally agreed to go along.

Several days later the Senate Banking Committee held a hearing especially to give Jones a chance to bestow his blessing. But there he reverted to his secret animus and testified against the bill. Little business men, still unable to get credit despite Jones' promises, mean to see that he doesn't pitch them any more low balls at the next session. Neither are they taking any chances on the President.

NEW MEAD BILL

Evidence of their aggressiveness was Mead's introduction of a new bill during the last days of the special session, after an unpublished meeting with little business leaders. It would create an industrial loan corporation, financed by the Government and operated by the Federal Reserve, to make moderate loans, to buy preferred stock, or to assist private underwriters to float small business securities.

The corporation's capital would be the $139,000,000 set aside four years ago for industrial loans by the Federal Reserve—and practically untouched. The Federal Reserve's record in helping little business men is also very sketchy.

NOTE—Senator Bob Wagner, chairman of the Banking Committee and a strong supporter of the Mead bill, privately has agreed to begin hearings on it in December before Congress opens.

SENATOR TAFT

Whether or not you agree with Bob Taft, you have to admit that he has a sense of humor. Sitting at dinner beside an old friend who had not seen him since he entered the Senate, Taft remarked: "They say I've improved, Doris, but I'm just the same as I ever was."

MARCHING MEN OF SONG WILL APPEAR MONDAY

The first of the Collins entertainments, sponsored by the Kiwanis Club, will be presented Monday evening in the high school auditorium.

Phil Clark's Marching Men of Song is the first program of the series. They also will present a program for Kiwanians at their meeting Monday evening.

FUNERAL SERVICE HELD FOR INFANT GIFFIN

Funeral services were held in White Church Cemetery, south of Hallsville, at 3 p. m. Sunday for Darrell Lawrence Giffin, infant son of William and Bessie Montgomery Giffin, Washington Township. The baby, one of a pair of twins, died at 1 p. m. Saturday about seven hours after birth.

Surviving besides the parents are the twin brother, Dale Leslie, and a half brother, Elmer Butterbaugh. The funeral was in charge of M. S. Rinehart.

THIS MAN SAVES $25 EACH YEAR ON HIS FUEL BILL

Cuts Gas Bill From $109 To $84 By Using Storm Sash

"I'm thoroughly sold on storm sash," says Earl W. Allen, 6838 Cherry St., Kansas City, Mo., "because it saves me money on my fuel. But that isn't all. "Storm sash keeps my house at an even temperature, does away with foggy windows and condensation that used to cause water to run down on the inside of the windows and damage the woodwork and wallpaper."

This has been the experience of thousands who equip their homes with storm sash. The Circleville Lumber Co. will give you an estimate of the cost of storm sash in your home and will also give you an estimate of the savings which will result. He'll tell you what other home owners say storm sash did for them. You can buy storm sash through F. H. A. Financing with no down payment.

Call The Circleville Lumber Co. today and save money this winter.

—adv.

THE GARDEN CLINIC

By VICTOR H. RIES, O. S. U. floriculturist

QUESTION: The leaves of my oleander are sticky, then they dry up and drop off. There are little round brown spots on some of the leaves. Can you tell me what I can do for it?

ANSWER: The specimen that you sent along with your letter shows you have scale insects on your oleander. Although these are relatively easy to control by spraying with Volck, if you do not wish to purchase it you probably will get satisfactory control by taking an old toothbrush and Ivory soap and scrubbing both top and bottom surfaces of each leaf and the stem of the plant as well.

QUESTION: Will you kindly inform me if a farmer can sell trees from his woods to nurseries and real estate men without an inspection license?

ANSWER: The sale of all woody plants can be carried on only with a nursery license. This may be obtained through the Chief Nursery Inspector, Bureau of Plan Industry, State Office Building, Columbus, Ohio. The fee for this license is $20.

QUESTION: In storing my dahlias for the winter and packing them in sawdust, should I take the soil off them or leave it on?

ANSWER: It really does not make any difference unless the soil is wet and soggy when they are put in storage.

QUESTION: I am enclosing a list of the members of our garden club who would like to receive your Farm and Home Garden News Letter.

ANSWER: Although our News Letter which is published monthly is free to anyone upon request, a recent ruling of the Post Office Department requires that these requests be made by the individuals rather than by their club officers.

QUESTION: I am having a little difficulty in purchasing the golden rain tree. Can you tell me what other name is used for it?

ANSWER: The golden rain tree or Koelreuteria, is a very satisfactory small tree. It is often confused with the golden chain tree or Laburnum which is not nearly as hardy for Ohio conditions.

QUESTION: I would like very much to grow some blue spruce.

Will you please tell me how to use the new root growth substances in order to root the cuttings?

ANSWER: The ordinary Colorado blue spruce is grown from seeds but the good named varieties, which are preferable, since they cannot be grown satisfactorily from cuttings, are grafted. This must be done in the greenhouse and is difficult even for experienced nurserymen.

QUESTION: I have several mountain laurels in my yard which, besides having leaf spot, are rather skippy and straggly in their growth. Can you tell me if they can be cut back?

ANSWER: Unless your plants

are very weak, you will find it perfectly satisfactory to cut them back to the ground any time between now and next spring.

QUESTION: I am writing you to see if you can tell me what to get to kill small bugs on my house plants.

ANSWER: Since there are a number of pests, it would be impossible for me to guess which ones you have. I suggest you ask your county agricultural agent for a copy of our bulletin on house plants which will describe most of the insects and give you information on their control.

QUESTION: I have about 40 shrubs of different sizes. If you know of anyone wishing to buy some, I will be glad to sell a few as I have more than I want.

ANSWER: As you will see from one of the answers above, in order for you to sell nursery stock it is necessary for you to take out a license with the State Bureau of Nursery Inspection. The license fee is $20.

QUESTION: What is the difference between the native woodbine or five-leaf ivy and the ivy that is sold by nurseries to plant on chimneys and brick buildings.

ANSWER: Although our native woodbine is sometimes used for this purpose, the Boston ivy is much more satisfactory for this purpose. It does not hang out as far from the building so it does not give as much chance for sparrows to nest. Another vine that you will find excellent for this purpose and which in addition is evergreen is the wintercreeper, Euonymus radicans, or a slightly faster growing variety of it, Euonymus radicans coloratus. These are both perfectly hardy and completely evergreen. In the southern half of the state, you can use the evergreen English ivy on east and north exposures.

Family Size
10 1/4" SKILLET

59c HAS BEEN $1

LOWEST PRICE EVER MADE ON

Genuine Wagner Ware

Large Wagner Cast Iron Skillet brings back all the delicious flavor of old-fashioned cooking. Gives a lifetime of service. Easy to use and clean. An exceptional buy.

Formerly $1.00
NOW ONLY 59c

Harpster & Yost Hardware

107 E. MAIN PHONE 136

Chesterfield
holds the Record
for
REAL MILDNESS
and Better Taste
because of its Right Combination of the world's best cigarette tobaccos

The real reason more and more smokers are asking for Chesterfield is because CHESTERFIELD'S RIGHT COMBINATION of the world's best cigarette tobaccos gives them a better smoke...definitely milder, cooler and better-tasting. For real smoking pleasure . . . you can't buy a better cigarette.

MILDER FOR MILLIONS
MILDER FOR YOU

Make your next pack Chesterfield

FRANK FULLER, winner of the 1939 Bendix Race, holds the Bendix transcontinental race record. His right combination of efficiency and flying ability has made him a record holder in aviation, just as CHESTERFIELD'S Right Combination of tobaccos has made it a record holder for More Smoking Pleasure with its real mildness and better taste.

DRAPERIES
Expertly Cleaned

We guarantee satisfactory work, for we have the necessary knowledge and skill, and the essential facilities and equipment.

BARNHILL CLEANERS

PHONE 710